LOCAL TROUBLES AIRED AT COQUILLE

Hans Christiansen, the Fellow Who Drank the Ink, Was Arrested on Charge of Assault.

One of the two Bandon women who filed charges of assault against their husbands last Friday was Mrs. Hans Christiansen. Hans has had trouble with his wife before and about a year ago we published the story of his having drunk a bottle of ink in an attempt to commit suicide because she had left him. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Laird Friday and his trial occurred before Justice Stanley of Coquille at one o'clock Tuesday. Mrs. Christiansen and her father were the only witnesses on her side. She said that on several occasions he had beaten her with his fists. He admitted that on the 21st of July he had grabbed her around the neck with one hand, while he placed the other over her mouth to make her keep still. Probably he failed to realize the danger he incurred in closing a woman's safety valve. She also testified that he struck her on the head because she wouldn't help him hang up a quarter of beef in the butcher shop he runs. He was found guilty and fined $20 and costs, which will amount to about $15. Being strapped at the time he was given until Thursday morning to rustle the funds and come across. Failing to make the raffle Hans was brought up here and placed in jail yesterday morning to serve time for ten days in lieu of the cash. A. H. Blatchley appeared for Mrs. Christiansen, as private prosecutor, and the defendant was not represented by counsel.

The second one was that of Mrs. Fred Feiger who charged her husband with assault with a dangerous weapon—a shaving mug. It seems the couple had trouble and the wife left. Feiger telephoned the sheriff's office here to stop her and then she filed the charge of assault and the matter was probably smoothed over.—Coquille Sentinel.

Hagry Heath, representing the R. L. Polk & Co., printers of state and county directories, was here the first of this week gathering data for the new state directory his company is preparing to issue.

D. C. Kay of Riverton, was transacting business in Bandon today.

THINGS THAT NEVER DIE. The pure, the bright, the beautiful That stirred our hearts in youth, The impulses to wordless prayer, The streams of love and truth; The longing after something lost, The spirit's yearning cry, The striving after better hopes— These things can never die.

The timid hand stretched forth to aid A brother in his need; A kindly word in grief's dark hour That proves a friend indeed; The plea for mercy softly breathed, When justice threatens high, The sorrow of a contrite heart— These things shall never die.

Let nothing pass, for every hand Must find some work to do; Lose not a chance to waken love— Be firm and just and true; So shall a light that cannot fade Beam on thee from on high, And angel voices say to thee— "These things shall never die." —Charles Dickens.

TAXES ARE AGAIN AN ALL-ABSORBING ISSUE

Assessor Now Collecting the 1916 Personal Taxes—Must Be Paid in Thirty Days.

"Life is just one thing after another," at least that seems to be the consensus of opinion of many who signed up this week for business-looking registered letters bearing the return card of the county assessor's office.

The said envelopes contain a brief, but forceful demand that the recipient divide his cash assets with the county to the extent of personal property assessments for 1916 taxes.

Although the registered mail comes as a shock to many, and the county may in the course of time be sued for damages owing to death by heart failure following the reading of said notice by some unsuspecting new arrival, the majority received a similar blow last year. It appears under provisions of Oregon law, that the unfortunate being who owns personal property, but no real estate of great value, must pay his taxes in a jiffy when the assessor calls. In fact the notice plainly states that if the said amount is not paid in thirty days the taxpayer is subject to 100 per cent penalty. The twice a year tax payment proposition covers real estate only, or in cases where real estate in addition is valued at a sufficient sum to guarantee to the county the payment of taxes.

While the law is very stringent, however, there are many redeeming features. Personal property taxes heretofore have been very hard to collect and the counties of the state have lost thousands of dollars in efforts to collect same. Under the new law the tax dodger has no loop hole and must face the issue. In forcing that class it works a hardship, at least so it appears, on the person who is always ready to pay.

Upper Fourmiler Kills a Panther?

Prominent Upper Four Mile Rancher Now Having His Eyes Examined by a Specialist.

Not everything that looks like a cougar is a cougar, at least such is now the firm opinion of one of the prominent ranchers of the Upper Four Mile country.

Owing to the rather "sheepish" feeling of the "principal witness" details are very hazy. Indications are, however, that the aforesaid rancher, having read the bear stories in the Western World of the last two issues, and other thrilling literature, was in an imaginative state of mind. Hence when out riding the range he carried a trusty 30-30 in hopes of meeting with some big game.

Riding along one of the hillsides of his vast ranch late one evening a few days ago, he perceived a short distance away what looked like a big panther crouching near a log. He viewed the animal a few moments, then took steady aim. At the crack of the rifle the animal pitched forward in its death struggle, and the rancher rode forward with a feeling of exultation, firm in the belief he had bagged one of the largest cougars ever seen in that section.

Shades of Hercules! Why say more. It was one of the finest calves on the ranch.

Mrs. Alice B. McDonald of San Francisco, and Miss Madge Yoakum came down from Coquille Saturday, where the former had been looking after property interests.
