

You Can Buy For Less in the Ellingson Building

PAY A LITTLE

on that gift now. Have it put away. There is bound to be slim picking a little later this year in Christmas merchandise.

Look over our stock of the following while the selection is complete:

Books

For Grown-Ups and the Kiddies.

THE FAMOUS

Erector Sets

for Boys $1 to 7.50

Fountain Pens

Waterman or Conklin

Cut Glass and Hand Painted China

We have the new Bluebird pattern in China.

Beautiful Parision Ivory

By the piece or by the set.

DOLLS in different sizes and characters, prices ranging from 25c to $10.

Smokers' Stands, Safety Razors, Ingersoll Watches, Flashlights Ladies' Hand Bags, Leather Novelties, Perfumes, Atomizers. Also a full line of Dennison's Xmas Stickers and Seals and Xmas Post Cards of all kinds.

Orange Pharmacy

SANTA CLAUS HEADQUARTERS

Thanksgiving

Day

is here again but BIG BEN and BABY BEN have been here all the year 'round. Always "on time" and ever ready to serve you. Price everywhere $2.50 each. Other alarm clocks for you at from $1.00 up.

Athena Silverware

FOR HOLIDAYS

will add much to the appearance of the "Turkey and Cranberry" table. Athena silverware, 1835 R. Wallace, will do lots towards brightening everyone's face.

Boyle Jewelry Company

Phone 544

HAMILTON WATCH AGENCY

The President, The Governor, and our Honorable Mayor have each fulfilled their duty by issuing their Proclamations for Thanksgiving Day. We all should observe, as did our Pilgrim Fathers, the day fittingly.

Another Proclamation

FROM THE ELLINGSON BUILDING

The Orange Pharmacy, Boyle's Jewelry Store and Sidwell's Clothing Store will, in the columns of this paper, from now until after the Holidays, issue their Proclamations of the kind of merchandise and prices they have to offer both in staple and Holiday Goods.

---Watch the Proclamations

Local News

E. H. Boyle was a business visitor at Marshfield several days last week. Sliced cold meats at the Sanito Grocery. 11

C. H. Pullen has been visiting relatives and friends in Myrtle Point.

H. McAdams arrived Monday from Hills, Cal., and is stopping at the Bandon Hotel.

Mrs. Wilson of Reedsport arrived Monday enroute to Brookings to visit her mother who is ill at that place.

Let us slice your bacon and get it all uniform thickness. It's a pleasure on our new slicing machine.—Sanito Grocery. 11

"Dad" Shields who came down from his Myrtle Creek ranch last week for the K. P. doings, has returned home.

Etta May, violin-harp entertainer, appeared at the Grand theatre Monday and Tuesday of this week with good success.

W. J. Ritz, the sewing machine man from Marshfield, is visiting prospective customers in this vicinity.

J. W. Reese, son of Rev. A. B. Reese of this city, who was operated on at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland recently, is reported to be recovering rapidly.

Mrs. Hempel was operated on at Emergency hospital Tuesday morning. The operation was successful but it is reported that her condition is quite serious.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will hold a bazaar and lunch in the Gallier building (formerly occupied by Boyle Jewelry Co.) on December 6th. 2c

W. T. White, Jr., superintendent of the Macleay ranch at Wedderburn, was here Tuesday enroute to Myrtle Point to get a blooded bull which was shipped in by rail.

Merle Krushal who recently left for Portland has secured a position with the Circle theatre. He expects to join the Y. M. C. A., and will take the automobile course offered by that institution.

Domestic Science girls will take orders for bread to be baked Wednesday and Thursday, December 6 and 7. Price 19c per loaf. Phone orders to High school not later than Tuesday, December 5th.

Roy Rozelle has completed the dredging work in the upper river for the Port of Coquille River, and has returned to his home here. The dredge was brought back to Bandon and stored.

W. H. Wigant, a hustling Langlois rancher and tie hauler, was in Bandon on business Tuesday. He took occasion to have his name enrolled on the long list of Western World subscribers.

Mrs. W. B. Smith stopped at the Hotel Bandon the latter part of last week enroute from Wedderburn to Marshfield to join her husband. He has secured a position with A. J. Mendel, the Coos Bay merchant.

Mrs. Still entertained a few friends Wednesday afternoon in honor of her mother's seventy-second birthday anniversary. After a delightful luncheon the guests departed wishing Mrs. Young many more happy occasions.

Mrs. Sam Nass and daughter, Mrs. Helen Brown, who have been living at Prosper during the canning season left for their home at Astoria Friday. They went by train. Mr. Nass also left Friday, taking the Breakwater north.

Many shipments of well-fed beef cattle have been shipped from Coos county since the railroad was completed, but there will be many more leave this locality before the new stock law prohibiting cattle running at large goes into effect.

C. Y. Lowe of Bandon has been appointed administrator of the estate of Maud Sorensen, deceased, which consists of $1600 real property. The appraisers appointed are Geo. P. Laird, L. J. Radley and Elbert Dyer.

Sabro Brothers are having their store re-tinted in preparation for the Christmas season. The walls are being tinted a pleasing green and the ceiling is finished in tan. The new painting gives the store a fresh, pleasing appearance. The work is being done by D. O. Fisher.

A special film will be shown at the Orpheum next Saturday and Sunday nights. Don't miss it. 11

Although a score of cattle buyers had scoured the country south of here and in Curry county during the past few months, there were still some left for sale last week. At least a Eugene party composed of Earl Gates, Cal Eaton and L. H. Linbarger, arrived here last Thursday and proceeded south, returning several days later after having bought 100 head. These will be shipped out to the North Portland yards at once.

Opheum theatre, Dreamland Orchestra and the best of pictures at popular prices, a combination that you appreciate. 11

C. R. Garney and N. O. Nicholson of Roseburg Land Office, have been in this vicinity several days appraising Indian allotments. They visited one place near Merchants, then went to the Two Mile country. They intended to go on through to Brookings but found the roads so bad that they came back intending to go to that place via Grants Pass. It is believed that all available Indian allotments will soon be taken up by stock raisers.

Evangelistic services will be held in First Baptist Church, commencing Sabbath evening, December 3rd. Rev. I. H. Ballarhede of Roseburg will assist the pastor in conducting these services. All Christians are invited to assist in these meetings for the Glory of God and the good of man. Services will open at 7 o'clock each evening. A more extended notice will be made later. All will receive a hearty welcome. A. B. Reese, Pastor.

"YOU CAN BUY IT FOR LESS IN THE ELLINGSON BUILDING"

This slogan is once more the guiding star to many Christmas shoppers. The trio of stores in that block namely: The Orange Pharmacy, Boyle Jewelry Co. and J. Ira Sidwell have again engaged a special page of this paper in which during the month of December they will offer holiday suggestions. It's a good habit to read this ad over carefully every week.