

For Men Only

PEEK INTO OUR WINDOW

PURITY GUARANTEED

SANITO GROCERY

Local News

P. A. Lux was down from the county seat town Friday.

Ladies' Union Suits, $1.00. $1.25 value.—John Dickey.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Taylor of Myrtle Point were guests at the Gallier Monday.

Don't forget, Audrey Munson in "Purity" at the Grand, Monday, January 15th.

Harry Ferris returned a few days ago from Portland, where he spent the holidays.

Mrs. Fred Jamieson of Powers returned home this week from a visit with relatives in Port Orford.

T. P. Hanly was down from his Lampa creek ranch Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Port Commission.

Thos. Hughes of Cape Blanco has been a guest at the Gallier several days. Wednesday he went to Marshfield for a brief stay.

Walter Panter of the Myrtle Point Transportation company was on the sick list last week, but is now able to again be back on the job.

"Bunny," the popcorn magnate of the southside of First street, has now built himself a frame structure as protection against the elements.

W. H. Button, superintendent of the West Shore Oil company, went to Marshfield Sunday enroute to San Francisco for a brief business visit.

Earl Williams of the Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows was in the city interviewing members of the local lodge the forepart of the week.

Cleve McAllister, with Sidwell's has been quite sick with the lagripps the past two weeks, for a large part of the time unable to be at the store.

Coming—to the Grand theatre soon, "The Ne'er Do Wells" in 12 reels. Watch for the date.

The person who lost a valuable Masonic emblem on one of the local docks recently may have the same by applying at the Western World of vice.

Rev. A. Haberly left Thursday for Salisbury, Miss., being summoned by wire on account of the serious illness of his father, Christian Haberly.

E. B. Thrift, the Langlois merchant, stopped in town Monday evening enroute to Los Angeles and other California points, just to look around.

Miss Chloee Buell of Myrtle Point was a guest at the Hotel Bandon several days ago enroute to Gold Beach, where she has a position as teacher.

Mrs. Geo. Langdon of Nampa, Idaho, arrived Saturday for a visit at the homes of her daughters, Mrs. J. T. Lillard and Mrs. L. D. Felsheim.

Mrs. John Fromm, Jr., and son of Port Orford stopped at the Gallier Sunday enroute home from a holiday visit with relatives and friends at Coos Bay.

Geo. Bradford, in charge of mining operations near Bullards, has gone to San Francisco for a business visit. He expects to return about the first of the month.

The steamer Speedwell which was recently sold by the A. F. Estabrook company, is reported to have been chartered for carrying lumber from Puget Sound to Balboa.

Sam Armstrong left Saturday for Corvallis to resume his studies at the O. A. C. where he is studying mechanical engineering. Friday night Sam was a guest at the Shumate home.

BORN—Friday, January 5, 1917, to Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Felsheim, a lusty 7½ pound daughter. Mother and daughter getting along nicely; father completely disorganized.—Howe.

Lawrence Rackleff of Coquille and Leland Rackleff of Florence have been visitors in this community during the week. The former is preparing to build a cheese factory on the Figg place.

C. C. Inman is back from Medford, where he spent several weeks with his wife who resides there. He is interested in mining properties in Curry county and has returned to look after them.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hage of Wedderburn spent a few days here this week on their way to Twin Falls, Idaho, where they expect to locate. They were recently married, Mrs. Hage being a daughter of Alf. Miller of Curry.

Thos. Carter of San Francisco is in the city calling on merchants for Haas Brothers. Mr. Carter is quite well acquainted here, having been a traveling salesman in this territory several years ago. This is his first trip for Haas.

Max Timmerman of Marshfield made another visit to the local shipyard this week to look the plant over. Mr. Timmerman is said to be an efficient man and it may be that he will work up some proposition where by he can get the plant in operation.

Ed. Gallier has just finished planting a half acre of ground on the Gallier place near the school house, to potatoes. He says the soil is in fine shape and if the weather conditions prove to be as favorable as they are indicated at the present time a good early crop is looked for.

J. L. Foster who recently purchased the Corner confectionery and fruit stand from Joe Bertas, has combined the establishment with his popcorn and peanut, and shoe shining stand, and he and Mrs. Foster are busy taking care of the large trade in their line.

Lloyd Knapp of Port Orford stopped at the Hotel Bandon Friday enroute to Portland to resume his studies at college. He was accompanied by C. Dick Ainsworth, representative of a Portland machinery house who had gone to Curry to sell the county a rock crusher.

L. M. Strong, manager of the Dew Valley cheese factory, accompanied by his eldest son, was in Bandon Tuesday enroute to Myrtle Point to attend a directors' meeting of the newly organized Coos-Curry Cheese Manufacturers' association. He expects to return home today.

Bert Patterson, foreman of the works here during the Jetty improvements a year ago, returned to Bandon from the Umpqua where he was employed in like capacity on the Jetty works there. Mr. Patterson states that the Jetty at that point has been completed and the crew disbanded.

Everybody has been wondering why George Laird has been going around with such a broad smile on his face the last few days, but the secret is now out. It appears the warm spring like days of the past week have acted as a strong "call to the Buick," of which George is now local agent.

Louis Reeves was a Coos Bay visitor the forepart of the week. He met a number of former Bandonians while there, among them being M. D. Sherrard, Edmund Gallier, H. B. Lewellyn, and Geo. Laffaw. Mr. Reeves has decided to move to Marshfield where he will be employed in the O. K. barber shop.

W. E. Best, manager for the A. F. Estabrook company in Coos county, was on the Bay this week. Mr. Best says the company is still buying ties in the vicinity of Port Orford and storing them there. It is necessary that the ties be held in large quantities so that big orders can be filled on demand.—Coos Bay Harbor.

T. W. Laird, formerly efficient pharmacist at the Orange Pharmacy, and an all around good scout, has transferred his membership from the local Knights of Pythias lodge to the organization's lodge at Seio, Ore. Mr. Laird is now a resident of that thriving little city, and feels that he will in future years become an integral part in its upbuilding.

M. W. Treadgold was in from his Upper Four Mile stock ranch the forepart of the week. He says that range conditions are much better than anticipated earlier in the season. He had provided feed when the recent snow fell but now the cattle have again gone out in the hills where there is plenty of green grass.

Owing to the usual winter shortage of milk the cheese factory at Dew Valley has closed down for a short while. Manager Strong has been busy preparing for the coming rush, and says he doesn't intend for any of his patrons to lose any money on high-priced cheese through inability on his part to handle all the milk they can bring in.

George Wilson came over from Coos Bay Monday afternoon on his way to Curry county where he has a mining prospect, which he believes is quite valuable. He will do considerable prospect work on the claim at this time. Mr. Wilson is a relative of Engineer Roy Rozelle of Bandon, and while here was a guest of the latter.

Work on the Knights of Pythias building which was stopped during the holidays so as not to interfere with Bandon Furniture company's trade during that period, is to be resumed immediately and the finishing of the building rushed to completion. The work is under the direction of Fred A. Mehl, proprietor of the Acme Planing mill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gillings started last Saturday for Portland where the latter will receive medical attention. Mrs. Gillings has been ailing for several months, and her condition has become so serious that Mr. Gillings is taking her where she can be treated by specialists. A special auto came down from Bandon after them.—Port Orford Tribune.

Miss Elsie Kinley, who has been visiting with her parents and other relatives in Bandon, this week returned to Monmouth to resume her studies at the state Normal school. Miss Kinley is a local High school graduate and for the past two years was the efficient assistant at the Bear creek school which won high honors among the county rural schools during that time.

At the regular meeting of the Knights of Pythias lodge Monday night installing Officer Capt. Thos. White and J. W. Mast took charge and installed the new officers for the coming term. The new officers are: Jas. H. Howe, chancellor commander; Roy B. Corson, vice chancellor; C. F. Pape, prelate; W. A. Hoover, m. of w.; Dr. L. L. Scofield, master at arms; Victor Breuer, K. R. S.

Ingersoll
A Dress-up Watch
JUNIOR
THE small, thin Junior at $2.50 is a watch a man need not feel backward in taking from his dress suit pocket.
Not only is it small and neat, but it has a solid nickel case which can't turn brassy. Comes also in the popular $2.50 ular gun metal finish.
ORANGE PHARMACY

F. A. Mehl, M. of E.; J. H. Jones, I. G.; Cleve McAllister, O. G.; Capt. Thos. White, trustee.

Harold Sabro left the past week for New York City, from which port he sails this week for Christiana, Norway, for a visit at his old home. His mother, who is growing elderly, has been in poor health for some time and Mr. Sabro thought it best to go to her side at this time. He must pass through the North Sea on the voyage across the Atlantic and for a part of the journey will brave the danger of his ship being torpedoed by a German submarine.

Girls' Sailor Suits, six to twelve years, reduced from $3 to $2 each.—John Dickey.

Too Late To Classify

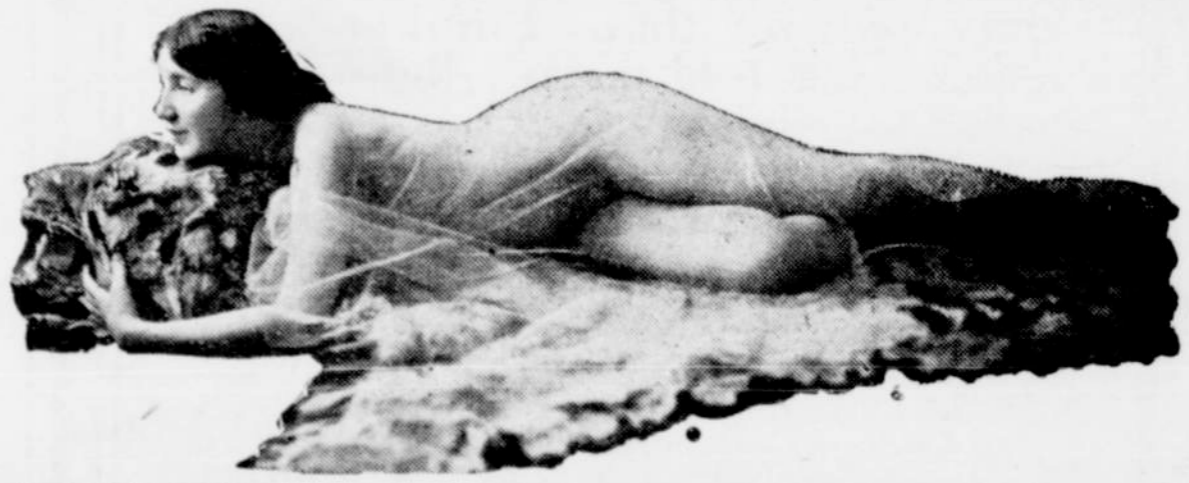

FOR SALE—All of my livestock including my registered Holsteins, at reasonable prices. Geo. A. Henry. 11

NEXT MONDAY

AFTERNOON and EVENING

The World's Greatest Model

in a remarkable and true interpretation of the Beauty of Sculpture and Feminine Form

AUDREY MUNSON

PRESENTED IN

"PURITY"

Masterpiece Photoplay in Seven Wonderful Parts

The frank clearness of this picture will cause much comment on account of the many disappointments in the past by the suggestive treatment of nude in motion pictures. There is nothing in Miss Munson's poses in the nude that should wound the sensibilities of even the most Puritanic person. The posing of Miss Munson assumes the paramount interest, while the plot and action serve to make the poses acquire a real significance and give them adequate dramatic setting.

GRAND THEATRE, Monday, January 15
AFTERNOON and EVENING
Matinee 2:30 Evening 7:00 and 9:00