Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson of Gold Beach were in Bandon Friday enroute to Portland, making the trip in their auto. They will visit several weeks in the Oregon metropolis.

Met Farley of Crawfordsville, Ore., has arrived to take charge of the weaving department of the Sunset Woolen Mills. Mr. Farley is an experienced man and comes well recommended.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Schetter and children and Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Nielson composed an outing party which motored in Mr. Schetter's car to the scene of the Sinaloa wreck at Cape Blanco.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Trowbridge, accompanied by their house guest, Miss Celeste Bunker, and by Mr. and Mrs. Lentner Gallier, drove to Coos Bay in the Trowbridge auto Sunday, and spent the day.

Monday's Coos Bay Times says: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rosberg of Kittyville will leave tomorrow for Tacoma, Washington, to make their home there. Mr. Rosberg will be employed in the Seaburn shipyards at that place.

Miss Margaret Hanly of Bandon who has been a visitor in San Francisco and Oakland for the past three months stopped in North Bend on her return home and was a guest at the August Hoelling residence.—Monday's Times.

Marriage licenses were last week issued at Coquille to Henry Mark Brown and Dollie May Welch of Powers; Chas. Edward Pullen and Leta E. Kirkendoll of Bandon; and Thomas W. Murphy and Rose Hoyt of Powers.

W. L. Hay and wife of Sedan, Kan., arrived Saturday for a month's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Gardner in North Bend. Mr. Hay is one of the leading business men of Kansas and will look into the possibilities of Coos.

L. A. Weil, publisher of the Port Huron Herald of Port Huron, Mich., and interested in the Moore Mill & Lumber company of this city, arrived here Saturday to consult with Mr. Moore on business matters and visit with local friends.

Mrs. Allen L. Harrington, who had been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Counts, and with local friends, left the past weekend for her home in St. Johns, Portland, where Mr. Harrington is employed in the woolen mills.

Divorce suits filed this term of court are: H. D. Duffner from Carrie Duffner; Elizabeth J. Roberson from Louis E. Roberson; Grace E. Parks from John A. Parks; Catherine McClung from Chas. H. McClung; Annie M. Baker from Chas. Manda Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wells and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Endicott and family Maxwelled to Middle Fork the latter part of last week for a week camping and outing trip. Mr. Wells returned to Bandon on Monday to attend to business matters, joining the party again later in the week.

The new state law requiring Oregon dogs outside of the towns in Oregon to have special licenses, does not affect Coos and Curry counties, they having been eliminated from the workings of the law. The constables are required to collect the licenses which is aimed at sheep killing canines.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Buckingham and family left Sunday morning in their auto for their home at Eugene, after a week's visit with local relatives and friends. Mr. Buckingham stated before leaving that the upper story of the B-B building would be completed at once, the work being under the supervision of Geo. P. Laird.

J. O. Peart, long janitor of the Coquille schools, has been appointed turnkey and caretaker of the prisoners at the Coos county jail. Sheriff Gage said today (Saturday). He succeeds Nova Landrith, son-in-law of Mr. Gage, who has taken charge of the Coos County Infirmary, succeeding Mr. and Mrs. Allan McLeod.—Coos Bay Times.

Eighteen filled one box of strawberries which A. Knopp gave the World force an opportunity to sample Monday. And the box would have passed inspection, too, for there was no vacant space. Mr. Knopp has a small patch of these "New Oregon" berries at his home in Portland addition. It is certainly a splendid variety for this section, the flavor being excellent and the production prolific.

George B. McDonald of Bullards returned from a trip to Spokane, Wash., and points in Idaho. While away Mr. McDonald tried to enlist in the marine corps at Portland and being rejected, tried to enter the field artillery corps at Spokane, but with similar luck. He was rejected on account of injuries received in a runaway about two years ago. Mr. McDonald is very patriotic and regrets very much that his country will not accept his services on the battlefields in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Watkins left Sunday for Fortuna, Cal., where Mr. Watkins will take over the management of the Standard Oil company's distribution station. For several years Mr. Watkins has had charge of the local plant and his new assignment is a promotion as the California town covers a larger territory, and the change brings a larger salary. Mr. Campbell of Marshfield has taken charge of the local station.

J. S. Sawyer, formerly city engineer, who is now employed by the date in the Coos county road work came over from Empire the first of the week to spend a few days with his family. He is engaged on the Empire-South Slough job, and states that the work is progressing satisfactorily. Twenty teams are now employed there, an equal number are employed on the Bandon-Curry road and 18 are at work in the Fairview section.

The Coos Bay Harbor at North Bend has the following: Mr. Chas. F. Pape, an old friend of the editor and prominent business man of Bandon was a caller Wednesday. Just came in to collect a thousand dollars he owed him he said, that is he figured it at the rate of a dollar a day penalty for not calling on him at Bandon. Fact is, Bandon is not far from North Bend, but just far enough to prevent frequent trips, and with fleeting time one scarcely realizes that a year elapses before he knows it. Mr. Pape is agent for the Sperry Flour company and has been here relieving Mr. Fletcher a few days. He is one of the real men of Bandon, the kind of fellows that go to make up a real city, and one whom it is a pleasure to know and meet.

BULLARDS, A BUSY FERRY

Ferryman Wilson's Report Shows 696 Autos Crossed in June

Following is the report of traffic over the Bullards ferry during the month of June as compiled by Ferryman N. Wilson:

Automobiles	696
Foot passengers	3395
Teams	82
Single rigs	122
Cows	29
Sheep	15
Saddle horses	22
Motorcycles	4

Judging from the report one would gain the impression auto traffic is becoming the predominating form of travel over local roads, it being approximately three times that of all forms of horse travel combined.

DEW VALLEY SCHOOL HOLDS ANOTHER CONTEST

Parents and Pupils from Other Districts Were Guests at the Recent Event.

(By Roy A. Giles, teacher.)

Another spelling contest was held at the Dew Valley school. The school was divided into two sections, the Third grade comprising one section, while all grades above that grade formed the other. Those pupils scoring 100 points are as follows:

Third grade—Carl Richert, John Cox, Lyle Strong, Kenner Giles, Elsie Richert, Ida Barnes. Fourth grade—Alden Strong. Sixth grade—Norma Hesse, Agnes Hoover, George Cox. Seventh grade—Myrtle Crabtree, Lester Cox. Eighth grade—Melden Baker.

In the contest the words used were those taken from the N. E. A. spelling contest, and none of the pupils who failed to receive perfect fell below 85 per cent. A number of pupils were present from other schools as well as some of the parents and patrons, but it is to be hoped that more will evince interest enough in the school to attend, and give evidence of the fact that they are really parents.

If parents would visit school and consult with the teachers as to the work of their children, there would be fewer cases of "somebody else's incorrigible children."

A program will also be given in connection with the regular spelling match which will be given in the form of "chosen sides," with Norma Hesse and Agnes Hoover as captains. All as cordially invited.

MILLER-KRICK

Daughter of Local Resident Married at Pretty Home Wedding.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Miller was the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding the evening of June 30th when their daughter, Miss Inez, became the bride of Thaddeus Krick of this city. The bride was attired in a handsome dress of pale blue silk and carried a bouquet of white roses and forget-me-nots.

The Miller home was beautifully decorated in ferns, roses and honeysuckles. The wedding ceremony, which was performed by Rev. A. R. Reese, was followed by a sumptuous wedding dinner. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James M. Miller, Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Reese, Mrs. John Krick, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Miller, Misses Verna and Irma Miller, Chester Miller, Ray Miller, Ernest Krick and Ellen and R. Dorothy Krick.

Will Build Six U. S. Boats

Kruse & Banks of North Bend have been awarded contracts by the government for the construction of six ships. The ships are to be 280 feet over all, 46 feet wide and 26 feet in depth. There will be two decks and part of the amidships will have three decks. Plans of the ships are the same for all yards, thus standardizing the construction, etc., and giving the government an accurate check on costs.

COOS COUNTY MEN LOSE HOMESTEADS

Nine Claimants Have Entries Rejected on Evidence of Forest Service Officials.

Roseburg, Ore., July 3—After trial of the cases before the local land office officials, decisions in which were received from the Commissioner General at Washington D. C., nine Coos county homesteaders are deprived of their titles as the result of the efforts of the U. S. Forest Service. Testimony in the case was taken here about five or six months ago.

The defendant claimed the land as being best suited for agricultural purposes, and through possession which antedated the establishment of the forest reserves. They are Geo. W. Langdon, James H. McCloskey, H. S. Kribbs, Eckley Guerin, George H. Gaerin, David McNair, William L. Berry, Fred B. Garrett and Geo. H. Guerin, Jr. The land is situated in township 24 S., range 9 W. The men had settled upon it many years and had claimed to have lived up to all the requirements which gave them title to the land as homesteaders. The government officials in the forestry service, however, claimed the rules had not been observed and finally won out in the several suits. These are still subject to appeal before the secretary of the interior.
