

Uncle Sam
will save you from Indigestion and Constipation.

Uncle Sam
Health Food
A delicious, prepared breakfast food. A mild, natural food laxative composed of toasted and crushed flaxseed, toasted whole wheat flakes flavored with ground celery seed and salt. Requires no cooking.

20c and 30c Packages

Sanito Grocery

PHONE 571.

BICYCLE DELIVERY.

Local News

E. G. Peirce of Sixes was a business visitor here this week.
J. W. Sweet made a trip to his big Elk river ranch Saturday.
J. H. Shields of Bancroft is in Bandon attending to business matters.
Charlie Crew, a Port Orford homesteader, was here on business Wednesday.
Chauncey Carpenter has returned to Bandon from Gold Beach for the winter.
H. P. Falt and wife of North Bend were Bandon visitors the first of the week.
Mrs. C. F. Pape was at Marshfield on Red Cross business during the past week.
Miss Ione Thompson is musician at the Orpheum during the absence of Mrs. McGraw.
We make a specialty of watch repairing. If your's is not keeping time bring it in. Sabro Bros. O4

C. F. Pape made a business trip to Coquille and Myrtle Point Wednesday. Mrs. Pape accompanied him.
Willis White of Port Orford was in Bandon Wednesday on his way to Portland for a short business trip.
George Thomsen, a Langlois business man, was a visitor here and at Coos Bay the forepart of the week.
R. G. McKenzie of Port Orford stopped in Bandon a while Saturday on his way home from a visit to Myrtle Point.
G. A. Bonebrake and wife and daughter and Carl Abramson, of Marshfield, spent Sunday on the local beach.
Claire Shumate, who has been mail clerk on the river steamers, has gone to Portland to take up a pharmacy course.
Francis Floyd of Myrtle Point was here several days last week visiting the various points of interest along the local beach.
How about some Community Silver? You should see the new Adam pattern in Sabro Bros. It's a beauty. Drop in today. O4

School Supplies

We carry a complete supply of books, tablets, pencils, pens, ink, crayons and other drawing material, in fact everything needed at school.

This Store is Headquarters for
KODAKS and SUPPLIES

C. Y. LOWE

REXALL DRUGGIST

FIRST STREET

"BUSY AGAIN"

A Soliloquy in Two Paragraphs.

"That's the third time this morning. I can't wait a moment longer on that fellow. Let me see—what is Smith's number?"

"If Jones won't provide sufficient telephone facilities for his customers, he can't blame me for dealing elsewhere. Operator give me 437."

How do you know this very occurrence doesn't happen with your single telephone. Have an auxiliary line; the cost is trifling. Call the business office today.

Coos & Curry Telephone Co.

The Pythian Sisters announce that a "500" party will be given at the K. P. hall Wednesday evening, October 24th.

A. H. Thomas, superintendent of the Sixes Mining Co. of Curry county spent several days on business in Bandon this week.

Sallie L. Hogg has been appointed postmistress at Denmark, Curry county, filling the place vacated by Mary Capps, resigned.

Errol McNair and John Moore left Sunday for Eugene where they will enroll as first year students at the University of Oregon.

Judge and Mrs. C. L. Pennock of Coos Bay came over to Bandon Saturday afternoon for a short week end visit at the local beach.

C. W. Smith has returned from a two months stay in San Francisco and will again begin black sand mining operations north of Bandon.

Ed Brodie, formerly with the Coos Bay and lower Coquille shingle mill, has leased the Prosper shingle mill and will operate it for the coming year.

Figures recently issued, show that the government farm loan association had granted loans to Curry county farmers at Gold Beach in the amount of $47,750.00.

We have the new "Adam" pattern in Community Silver. This is the very latest. Call and see it. Sabro Bros. O4

George Laffaw was here Tuesday, having just arrived with a new Chandler roadster from Portland. Mrs. Laffaw and Mrs. Johnson of Marshfield are visiting in Portland.

Mrs. C. F. Pape leaves Saturday for Portland to attend the Grand Lodge of Pythian Sisters as representative for the Bandon lodge. She expects to be gone about a week.

Mrs. C. G. Copeland of Newport spent several days in Bandon this week enjoying the beach. She was enroute to Eureka to visit her daughter. She was a guest at the Gallier.

Remember that Sabro Bros. is headquarters for Victrolas and Records. Hear the late pieces. O4

Mrs. Bessie Chandler and Mrs. Pearl Edwards of Portland were in Bandon several days this week collecting funds for the Louise home for girls located at Portland.

Roy Rozelle of Coos Bay, in charge of government property here and at Marshfield was in Bandon on business overnight. He returned to Coos Bay this morning.

Capt. Alex Scott, who spent the summer looking after mining and ranch interests near Agnes, is back at Hotel Gallier where he expects to spend the winter months.

Charlie Chaplin is on the boards at the Grand next Saturday in a screaming two reel special Mutual, THE COUNT. Don't come unless you are prepared to laugh. It

Mrs. Blanche Faulds left Monday for Albany, Oregon, to attend the state W. C. T. U. convention as a delegate from Coos county. She will be gone about a week or ten days.

Mrs. R. H. Rosa, Miss Kate Rosa, Mrs. C. Y. Lowe and Miss Maude Lowe were at Marshfield a few days ago visiting. They also transacted business for the local Red Cross auxiliary.

Mrs. Matt Lux has returned to Coos Bay from a visit of several months in Curry county. She was the guest of Mrs. Thos. Smith at Wedderburn and Mrs. C. Morris at Gold Beach.

Enjoy an evening's entertainment of comedy pictures at the Grand next Saturday. It will do you good. It Frank Severro, manager of a San Francisco match company, was in town this week arranging to purchase match wood. It is understood that he has acquired a shipment of white cedar.

Sam Armstrong, son of Commissioner and Mrs. Geo. J. Armstrong, left Thursday for Corvallis to resume his studies at O. A. C. Mr. Armstrong is a second year student in mechanical engineering.

Our refrigerator counter keeps butter and cream always on ice and therefore clean and sanitary. It offers you extra service at no extra cost. Let us furnish you butter. Sanito Grocery. O4

DR. F. A. VOGEL, dentist, who is at present at Gold Beach, will be home about Monday, the 8th. The large number of patients awaiting him there has made it necessary to remain another week. It

E. O. Clinton of the Bandon Hardware, returned this week from a trip to San Francisco and other California points. Mr. Clinton returned overland, spending a few days with friends in the Willamette valley.

The duck season opened Monday and a number of local sportsmen motored to New Lake to take part in the opening shoot. Among those who "brought home the bacon" were A. Garfield, W. S. Wells and Lee Eaton.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Davis of the New Lake section, accompanied Mayor Geo. P. Topping to Grants Pass in his auto Sunday where they will make their home for the winter. Mr. Davis has leased his ranch to his son, Rollie.

J. F. Hopkins of the Arizona Inn, Corbin, Curry county, Oregon, was in Bandon Saturday on his way home from an auto trip, making the circuit of Gold Beach, Crescent City, are now being worn more than ever. We have just received a part of our fall stock which will offer you a wide selection. The prices are moderate and the watches are excellent time-keepers.

Bracelet Watches

Our stock of bracelet watches, lavallieres, pendants and agate jewelry is more complete than at this time last year.

We will be pleased to have you come in and allow us to show you these new articles.

BOYLE JEWELRY CO.

Medford, Grants Pass, Roseburg and Coos county towns.

Are you drinking too much coffee? If so try Cereo for a change. It's a splendid breakfast drink. Has the taste but not the effect of coffee. A pound package for 25c. At the Sanito Grocery. O4

Miss Kate Chatburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Chatburn went to Eugene Sunday where she will enter the University of Oregon to specialize in teaching and music. She was a teacher in the local schools last year.

Dr. and Mrs. E. Mingus of Marshfield spent a few days in Bandon this week enjoying the beach. The doctor is preparing to leave soon for active duty with the U. S. Medical officers reserve. He has been commissioned a captain.

Big double feature program at the Grand next Saturday. Enid Bennett in HAPPINESS—a sparkling five act comedy produced by Thomas H. Ince. And Charlie Chaplin in THE COUNT. No advance in price. 15c and 5c. It

Miss Alice Gallier and Miss Fern DeLong left Sunday for Eugene to enroll in the University of Oregon which opened this week. Both young ladies are graduates of the Bandon High school and won honors as members of local debating teams.

Mrs. Kate Lando of Marshfield, head of the Red Cross work in Coos and Curry counties, was in Bandon this week taking up the work with the local auxiliary. She also visits the Curry county organizations, going as far south as Brookings.

There will be a card social at the Catholic Rectory on Wednesday evening, October 10th. All the Catholic people of Bandon are kindly invited to attend. No charge or admission of any kind. Time—7:30 o'clock. Refreshments will be served.

Wm. Sleep returned from a three weeks stay at Bandon Monday. He says Sunday was a busy day in shipping there. The Elizabeth and Brooklyn arrived in from San Francisco, the Bandon sailed and the Phoenix was loaded and ready to sail.—Coos Bay Times.

Thirty ducks is the limit for one day and for one week according to the game laws, and Deputy J. M. Thomas of North Bend has issued a warning to hunter not to let their enthusiasm make them attempt to exceed the bag limit. Ducks are extremely plentiful this season.

S. Ralph Dippel left Saturday for Portland to resume his studies at the Pacific Dental college where he is a second year student in dentistry. He was accompanied as far as Marshfield by Mrs. Dippel, who returned to Bandon and will reside here during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Niles and Mrs. M. L. Meyers, of Salem, and Sam R. Mosher of Eugene, who had been attending the Knights Templar conclave at Marshfield, came over to Bandon Saturday to view the attractions of the local beach. They returned north Sunday.

According to a report from Springfield, where the recent Methodist conference was held, Rev. J. Stanley Van Winkle has been appointed to take charge of the Bandon-Port Orford district. Rev. E. H. Campbell of Marshfield and Rev. H. Gould will have the Coos Bay circuit.

Capt. O. Wren of the local Light Station is wont to try his hand at gardening during leisure hours. That he is as successful with the hoe and rake as with the duties of the light station is attested by the prize winning cabbage he displayed this week. The cabbage weighed 35 pounds.

Mrs. George Laffaw is suffering from painful burns received when she attempted to light a gas oven at her apartments at the Myrtle Arms. An explosion occurred throwing her to the floor, burning her face and singeing her hair and eyebrows. The injuries are not serious but are very painful.—Coos Bay Times.

H. M. Axtell, who has been engaged in black sand mining along the coast north of here, recently returned from a business trip to Portland and expects to leave in a day or so for San Francisco. He is said to be going there to purchase some new machinery for himself and other parties operating in this section.

Mrs. John Johnson and daughter, Miss Hattie, left overland Friday for San Francisco where Johnsons intend to make their future home. Adolph left on the Brooklyn for the south Saturday. He will enter the government navigation school at San Francisco with a view of becoming an officer in the American merchant marine.

Harry Gauntlett and wife of Gold Beach were here Saturday enroute to American Lake, Mr. Gauntlett having been drafted in Curry's first call. His wife accompanied him to Bandon. He had for several years been cashier of the bank at Gold Beach. He is a relative of the Manciet and Mars families with whom he visited here before going north.

Fred Jamieson, who had been American Lake cantonment, Tacoma, Washington, working on the buildings being constructed there, was in Bandon this week on his way to Port Orford to visit with his folks. He says that the government has practically completed the big army camp and is now drilling the recruits arriving there daily.

Mrs. Grace McGraw, pianist at the Orpheum, was called to her home in Washington this week because of injuries sustained by her mother. It is reported that the latter lost several fingers from one hand. Mrs. McGraw will return in about two weeks and will bring her two older daughters back with her, one of whom will enter school.

Miss Marlon Mateer, domestic science instructor in the Marshfield high school, and Miss Larsen, also a teacher in the Marshfield schools, spent the week end enjoying Bandon beach as the guests of Miss Conner, local domestic science instructor. They occupied Klakama cabin. They also visited Mrs. J. T. Lillard and Mrs. L. D. Felsheim while here. Miss Mateer having been one of their former schoolmates.

Attention!

DAIRYMEN

We have leased the Bandon Beach Creamery at Bandon, and hope to retain your patronage. Mr. H. B. Warner will still be at the plant as Local Manager for us, so very little changes will be made in the business system, except that we will pay you cash for each delivery of cream the day following delivery, at the very highest prices. Our price today is 49c for butter fat delivered at Bandon.

T. S. TOWNSEND
Creamery Co.

Bandon, Oregon