ROAD GRADES SHOULD HAVE BEEN LOWER

Edmaster Tells Coquille Paper Too Much Emphasis Has Been Placed on Highway.

Talking with Roadmaster Murock last Monday, he said that the only regret he had about the road grades so far adopted on the bond fund work in this county was that he had ever listened to the people who told how high the water got in 1890 or 1906 or any other old year, to the extent of trying to make the new grade everywhere above the highest watermark known, says the Coquille Valley Sentinel. He thinks that where a section of road has been overflowed once in five or ten years for a few days, it would be much better to let it overflow as often again, and for people to submit to a few days or hours inconvenience than to spend tens of thousands of dollars in raising the grades above the highest flood record known. He has adopted the policy of retrenching in that way now and wishes he had done so from the start.

Along the same line he figures that the difference in interest between an investment of $45,000 in a high wooden trestle that cannot be permanent and one of $18,000, in a gravelled roadway in the new road to be constructed from Coquille to Fat Elk across the willow land bottoms south of town, would be cheaply bought by the inconvenience of dispensing with the use of the road for a few days once in five years. At the same time he favors throwing up a good dyke out of the ordinary high water for the first section of the Coquille to Bandon road.

Mr. Murock also says that the County Court has time and again been induced to make considerable appropriations for graveling a fractional section of some road by the representation that the rest of the road was in first class condition and that improvement would put it in shape for travel the year round; when in point of fact, the section asked for was not particularly better or worse than the rest of the road. He is advising against piecemeal appropriations of this kind without close investigation to find out whether the claims are warranted.

Brother of Local Lady Weds

Announcements were received in Padden this week of the marriage of Edward F. Wieder and Miss Elena R. Demetri at San Francisco October 2nd. Mr. Wieder is well known to old time Bandonians being a brother of Mrs. F. S. Tuttle of this city and having resided in Coos county in his youth. The San Francisco Examiner of a recent date says: Eddie Wieder, port superintendent of the Crowley Launch & Tugboat Co., left yesterday for Portland on the Emerald line steamer Kilburn. Naturally enough he was given the bridal suite as he is on his honeymoon. Half the waterfront attended the departure of the vessel with some shoes too old for the Belgian relief and enough rice to spatter the decks.

U. S. GOVERNMENT WILL NOT SIEZE HOME FOOD

Department of Agriculture Publication Issues Denial of Persistent Rumors to Contrary.

There is no truth in a widely circulated statement that the government expects to take food supplies from any family. Both the food administration and the department of Agriculture join in a statement to counteract what seems to be a deliberate propaganda to the effect that the government intends to take from every family all canned goods put up in excess of 100 quarts.

This is only one of the variations of the rumor, which has been widely circulated. Another statement is that the government has been urging the canning, drying and preserving of fruits and vegetables so that they will be in a convenient form for the government to handle and transport when it takes them away from the people. Further elaboration is that these goods are to be taken from the American homes and shipped to England.

Specific Instances Cited
In one instance a motorist stopped at a farm house to fill the radiator of his automobile. In the course of conversation he casually inquired whether the farmer's family was canning all the surplus fruits and vegetables in order to help conserve the food supply. He was informed that the farmer was not doing this because the government intended to take all the canned goods away except a small part of it actually needed by the family itself.

The authorities state emphatically that no such course has ever been contemplated by the government. On the contrary, both the department of Agriculture and the food administration are strongly urging housewives to can and preserve, especially at this time, all surplus fruits and vegetables in order that the households themselves may have a cheap and plentiful supply of food.

TO HELP RED CROSS

Parkersburg Residents Are Taking Active Interest in the Work.

The people of Parkersburg and other lower-river communities are just as patriotic and just as active in displaying that patriotism as any sections of the country. These sections responded liberally in the government's campaign for the first Liberty Loan, taking a good share of bonds; they also came through with their donations to the Red Cross fund and the ladies are taking an active interest in sewing for our boys at the front.

To further the Red Cross work arrangements have been made for a big dance and program to be held at the Parkersburg hall on Saturday evening, October 13th, commencing at 8:30 p. m. Steamer Relief will leave Riverton at 7:30 and return after the dance for the convenience of those who will attend from that section. Doubtless other boats and also cars will aid parties from other river sections and Bandon to attend the affair. An admission of 15c and 25c will be charged, and the proceeds will be turned over to the Red Cross.

Butter and Eggs Going High

Local people who were fortunate in preserving a large supply of eggs during the past summer are now beginning to congratulate themselves. The same holds true of those who laid in a supply of butter. Both eggs and butter are growing more scarce every day locally. The government has issued a statement as follows: "Butter will be higher in price this year than we have known it to be since the Civil war. The poultry situation is equally as serious. The farmers have killed practically all spring chickens for food, while only one-tenth of the usual supply of milk-fed chickens is now available."

Harry Pearce in Draft Army

Harry Pearce, a former Bandon resident who had made his home at Fresno, California, the past two years, arrived on the Elizabeth this week for a short visit with his mother who resides here and with local friends. Mr. Pearce was one of the young men drafted into the National Army from the Fresno district, and must report at American Lake, Washington, by October 15th. He states that around Fresno exemptions for various reasons averaged about 50 per cent, mostly farmers and married men with children dependents, or physically unfit. The men drafted seem to take the matter philosophically and after it is all over with, are glad to be on their way to the training camps.

Woolen Mill Outlook Good

Miss Grace Miller was a Coquille visitor Saturday and Sunday last.

Our Dew Valley neighbor, J. J. Morris, is not far from right when he says that the city watering trough is not sanitary. Very true, the float keeps the trough supplied with water but to be sanitary a stream of water should enter one end and out at the opposite end at all times. I would not necessarily believe that this trough was the means of spreading this epidemic of distemper simply because about 90 per cent of all the
