

CHRISTMAS SWEETS

...FOR... CHRISTMAS DINNER

Fancy Sunkist Oranges 35c and 50c per doz.
Spitzenberg Apples (Fancy Rogue River) 35c per doz.
Dromedary Dates 2 pkgs. 25c
Pressed Figs 2 pkgs. 15c
Calarab Canned Figs 30c lb.
Mixed Xmas Candies 20c lb. up.
(Special prices on quantity)
Admiration and Guitard's fancy Boxes (Chocolates) 25c to $1.50
1917 Diamond Brand soft shell Walnuts 30c lb.
Manchurian Walnuts 20c lb.
Mixed Nuts 30c lb.
Swans Down Cake Flour 45c pkg.

Also Heinz Mince Meat, Heinz Plum and Fig Puddings, Cluster Raisins, Fancy Cakes, Marshino Cherries, Green and Ripe Olives in bulk and glass, Salted Peanuts, Salted Almonds, Salted Pecans, Cranberries, Celery, Lettuce, Pumpkins.

SANITO GROCERY

Place your orders for Whipping Cream and Milk early.

Archie Kruse, formerly of Bandon, is now connected with the government shipbuilding work at Portland. Mrs. Kruse and children, who have been residing at Marshfield, will join him soon.

Mrs. C. I. Frese arrived in Bandon this week to join her husband, who is the new local representative of the Standard Oil company. Mr. and Mrs. Frese have established their home in west Bandon.

A. J. Marsh and son, N. Marsh, accompanied Mrs. Marsh to Bandon Friday. Mrs. Marsh was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Kronenberg of Coquille who is very ill.

Mrs. N. A. Pitner from Port Orford was here Friday, enroute to Omaha, Neb., to make her home with her children. She has been with her son, Ed. Pitner, who is employed at the Knapp hotel.

J. M. Beam, of Montavilla, Oregon, is stopping at the Hotel Bandon for a few days. He represents a nursery company and is interviewing local and Curry county people on the fruit tree question.

R. J. Nead, for a number of years second assistant lighthouse keeper at the Cape Blanco station, was in Bandon Saturday on his way to Selmo, Wash., where he becomes first assistant keeper of a lighthouse.

Among Curry county people who spent the week end at Bandon were: Frank Catterlin, W. R. Dickson, D. M. Moore, J. Huntley, W. Gauntlett, Frank Caughell, of Gold Beach; J. Milken, Brookings; John O. Foster, Langlois.

N. H. Larson of Port Orford was in Bandon Saturday on his way to Marshfield where he transacted business matters, returning to Port Orford Tuesday. Mr. Larson operates a sawmill at Port Orford which is cutting spruce.

Col. C. T. Blumenrother of New Lake came up the latter part of the week and remained over Tuesday. The Colonel doesn't visit with his local friends very often but he is never a stranger once you have made his acquaintance.

Miss D. B. Burnley of Silverton, Oregon, who taught school the past summer in one of the districts of southern Curry, was in Bandon the latter part of the week enroute to her home. She was a guest of Hotel Bandon while here.

Mrs. Wm. McLaren stopped over Sunday in this city on her way from Sixes, Oregon, to her home at Bishop, Cal. She is the mother of Mrs. Ed. Cox of Sixes and had been the guest of her daughter the past month.

B. F. Wanamaker and family who came here from northern California a few weeks ago to investigate local prospects returned to their old home this week. Mr. Wanamaker was pleased with this section's possibilities, but did not like the coast rains.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Marshall arrived from Portland Tuesday on their way to Langlois to again take up residence on their ranch. They moved to the Rose City about four years ago, but state that they are glad to get back to God's country again.

J. T. Sullivan left to spend some time in the southern Coos county cities for Oregon Life Insurance Co. Mrs. Sullivan has returned from California, where she remained most of fall and is being welcomed home by her many friends.—Coos Bay Times.

Mrs. W. E. Best and daughter, Margaret, and Mrs. R. B. Holmes and son were arrivals from Bandon, Saturday. The latter two, who make their home in Minneapolis, went north Sunday, and Mrs. Best and daughter returned home.—Coos Bay Times.

Walter S. Wells of the Orange Pharmacy is the happiest man in town. He has found his dog. Mr. Wells' dog became lost last August at Marshfield and had not been seen until the other day when he showed up at the Gordon store, the same place from which he had disappeared.

Gordon Eldon Langlois, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Langlois of this city, and Bertha Irene Baughn were united in marriage Wednesday of last week. Following a short honeymoon spent on the Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Langlois returned to Bandon and have established their home in this city.

The steamers Acme, Elizabeth and Bandon left for the south Saturday and the Brooklyn and Phoenix left Sunday. All were heavily loaded. An eight foot tide afforded between 13 and 14 feet of water on the bar. The new steamers South Coast and Girlie Mahoney are expected in to take cargoes soon.

E. H. Ganang and family arrived in Bandon from Portland Sunday to make their home in this section. They formerly resided in Idaho, but came to the coast for the benefit of Mrs. Ganang's health, and hearing of this section decided to visit it. Mr. Ganang is looking for a farm with the idea of purchasing.

J. R. Peters left Monday for Portland where he was called by government officials to explain his electrical gun, which the U. S. government has become interested in. Mr. Peters will go to Washington, D. C., if the preliminary tests prove to the satisfaction of the officials that the invention is practical.

Christmas Gift SUGGESTIONS

Community Silver

The new ADAM pattern in all the different pieces—

Knives and Forks, hollow handles, half dozen each, $13.75.

Knives and Forks in modeled handles, half dozen each $11

Teaspoons, set $3.00

Salad Forks, set of six $5.50

Butter Spreaders, set of 6, $4.50

Bouillon Spoons, set of 6, $5.25

Two Piece Carving sets, $5.00

Three Piece Carving sets $11.00

Also a complete line in the Patrician pattern.

French Ivory Traveling Sets in satin lined leather cases at $4.50 to $12.00.

French Ivory and Sterling Silver Manicure Pieces.

Radiolight Watches from $2.25 to $12.00.

Crystal Bud Vases, at prices from 75c to $1.75.

Lavallieres in solid gold, some set with diamonds, from $3 to $35.

Candle Sticks, crystal and mahogany, with shades and candles to match, per pair $2.50 to $3.00.

Silver Vanity Cases, $3.75 up.

Silver Bread Trays, new hammered designs.

Diamond, ruby and other rings.

Sterling Silver

TABLEWARE

Plain and Hammered Designs.

Butter Spreaders, set of 6, $7.75

Tea Spoons, heavy weight, set of six, $8.50.

Tomato Servers, $4.00

Two piece Carving Sets, $6.00.

Cold Meat Serving Forks, $3.50

Pie and Cake Servers, $3.00.

Cheese Servers, $1.65.

Many other articles.

Ladies' Bracelet Watches, the latest designs, in silverine cases from $4.25 to $10.00; in gold cases from $16.00 to $50.00.

Practical Wrist Watches, just the thing for the school girl.

Cut Glass

Cut Glass Bowls, $4.50 up.

Vases, $3.00 up.

Water Sets, $8.50 to $18.00.

Lamps, $12.50 to $40.00.

Sherbet Cups, per set $6.50.

Sugars and Creamers, $3.50 to $12.00.

White Ivory in all the different articles.

Sterling Silverware, new stock at surprisingly low prices.

Silver and gold Thimbles, from 35c to $3.75.

Diamond Ear Rings, at from $12.50 up.

The Boyle Jewelry Company

OPEN EVERY EVENING UNTIL CHRISTMAS.

PACKAGES WRAPPED FOR MAILING.

EXPERT ENGRAVING FREE

Local News

M. Farley was a Marshfield visitor the first of the week.

Chas. Richert is building a new house on his ranch south of town.

S. G. Whitsett was a Coos Bay business visitor over the week end.

J. J. Kreutzer and two boys of Denmark were Bandon visitors Saturday.

Mrs. C. I. Kime of Coquille was registered at the Gallier Hotel over Friday.

For your Xmas dinner try Heinz's famous plum pudding. You can get it at the Sanito.

A marriage license was last week issued to Samuel E. Logsdon and Alma A. G. Houck, both of Bullards.

Mrs. Walter S. Wells was a guest of Mrs. J. T. Sullivan and other relatives and friends in Marshfield last week.

BORN—Sunday, December 9th, to Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Seaman, a son. Mr. Seaman is filer at the Moore mill.

Ted Petterson of Marshfield, was in Bandon passing the good word with old friends the latter part of the week.

J. E. Ford, live stock buyer of Coos Bay, came over to Bandon the first of the week to make some purchases.

Louis Machino, employed as cook at the Hotel Gallier, was over to Marshfield the first of the week visiting his friends.

Frank T. Berey, deputy U. S. marshal, was in Bandon Tuesday and Wednesday looking for slackers and alien enemies.

Clifford Cox of Langlois who underwent an operation at Mercy hospital, North Bend, last week, is reported to be doing nicely.

Roy H. Rozelle, in charge of the government property at Bandon and

Coos Bay, came over from Marshfield the latter part of the week.

Heinz's Mince Meat is the best on the market. Economical to use, The Sanito has it.

You can get almost everything you need for your Xmas dinner but the turkey at the Sanito Grocery. See the list of suggestions in their ad. it

H. M. Shaw, M. D., Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat specialist, will be at the Gallier Hotel, Bandon, on Friday, Dec. 21st. "Glasses fitted." 1312c

Lester Kranick of the Coast Guard station returned Saturday from North Bend where he spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. Herbert Bowen.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Dixon and children of Bear creek left the latter part of last week for Hoquiam, Wash., where they expect to make their home.

A. P. Sweet of Lampa is in town for a few days. Mr. Sweet is helping the force at the Bank of Bandon during the early Holiday season rush.

BORN—Tuesday, December 11th, to Mr. and Mrs. John Nielson, a son. John says the young man is sure to be a soldier for he already keeps everyone standing at attention.

C. W. Cumbers of the Standard Oil Company station at Marshfield was in Bandon this week conferring with local agent, C. I. Frese. He also visited Curry county points.

Mrs. Wm. Tenbrook and son, Theodore, have gone to Martinez, Cal., to remain for some time for the benefit of the boy's health. He had been suffering severely from asthma.

C. E. Spangler of Langlois was in town the latter part of the week on his way to Marshfield on a short business trip. He stopped over night at the Bandon Hotel.

DR. F. A. VOGEL, Dentist, has moved from the First National Bank building to the room formerly occupied by Dr. Scofield in the Ellington building. First door to the right at head of stairs. 011tf

HOLIDAY SATISFACTION

WITH EVERY PURCHASE HERE

You are sure to find something for the children in OUR BIG VARIETY OF CHRISTMAS

TOYS

We can save you money in anything in our line:

Dry Goods, Ladies' Furnishings, Dishes, Novelties, Groceries

Jewelry CLOSING OUT our line. It is of good quality At Cost

C. C. CASH STORE

F. J. Chaburn, Manager

Second Street

Your Portrait

Baby's Portrait

FOR

CHRISTMAS PRESENT

Twelve Portraits make Twelve Presents

Prices just the same; no advance.

NEPTUNE STUDIO

COME EARLY.

WE CAN GET ALL WORK OUT FOR CHRISTMAS