

"THE LIBERTY BOND IS VICTORY'S WAND"

—By H. E. Allen, Hillsboro

SUBSCRIBING for Liberty Bonds does not mean giving anything. It does not mean even sacrificing—unless you call it that to spend more heedfully here and use more heedfully there. It means safe, sane, sensible, substantial INVESTMENT, backed by the best security in the world—our whole United States, and from which you will receive reasonable income in INTEREST.

Compare this degree of patriotism with the kind that is taking our sons, brothers, husbands and fathers across the seas to probable hardship and possible death.

The balance is in their favor if you were to mortgage your entire financial future in order that they may be backed up with those supplies which represent the means for both PREPAREDNESS and PROTECTION.

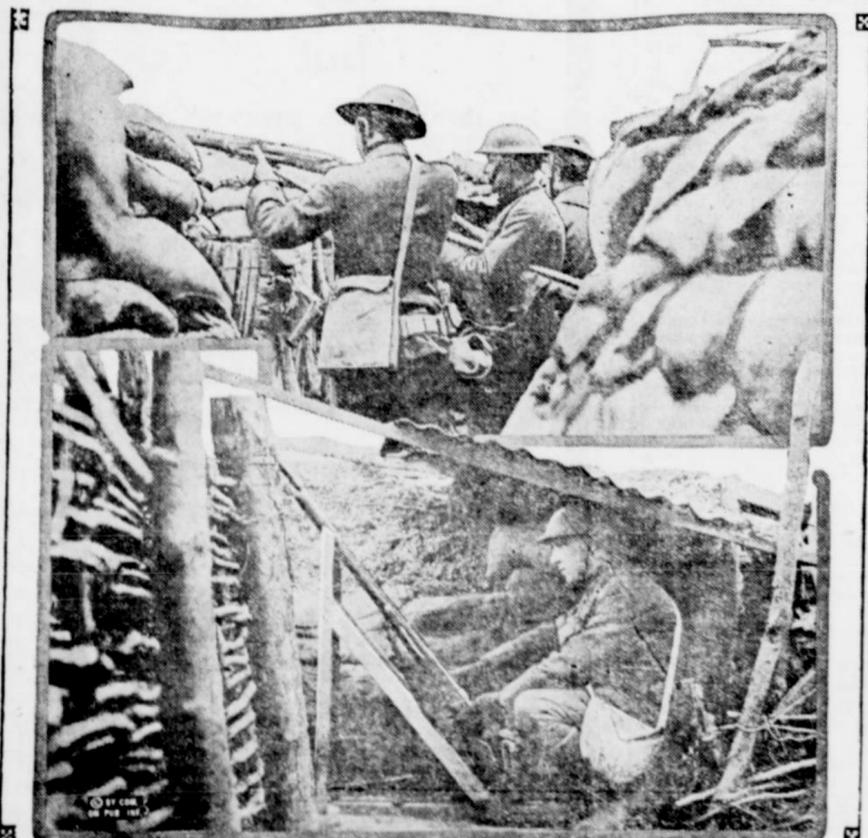

The third Liberty Loan is at hand. Don't wait to be personally solicited for your subscriptions. Go to your bank and VOLUNTEER YOUR DOLLARS.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS HALTING THE TEUTONS AT THE LORRAINE GATE

Here are two of the first pictures received in the United States showing our boys at the actual fighting from holding a portion of the Lorraine sector against the Teuton horde. At the top is shown a section of a trench held by American troops, and at the bottom a soldier ready to fire a rocket as a warning that an attack has begun.

tion of a day of the week working for the Red Cross.

LIBRARY NEWS

We had always thought of December as the month of giving, but the generous response to our appeal for books for soldiers and sailors, besides most unusual donation to our own library, has convinced us that March is the month for the giving of books, at any rate.

Think of it! Ninety good books, in fine condition, besides magazines and booklets. And in each book is written a cheery message from Ban-don to "our boys."

Early in the month we were congratulating ourselves on the possession of a friend whose generosity enabled us to acquire the complete set of Mark Twain's works; a set hand-somerly bound in crimson.

Besides these twenty-five volumes, thirty-two others have been donated.
Many of them replace books worn-out. Following is a list of those new to the Library: The Royal Road to Health, The Argentine Republic, Marine and Other Poems, The Masquerader, Bob Hampton of Placer, A Rose of Normandy, Captain of the Grey-Horse Troop, Prince of Graus-tark, The Honor of the Big Snows, Marion the Swamp Fox, Boy Allies With the Flying Squadron, Boy Allies in the Balkan Campaign, The Lookout Man, The House of Iron Men, Ranson's Folly, Lynch's Daughter, With Wolfe in Canada, The Captain.

One family preparing to leave Bandon are giving their entire library, dividing the books between Bandon and the soldiers' library.
This generosity deserves the highest praise.

We have eight new cook books from the Oregonian bureau. We can help you to use that 50 per cent substitute.

A. J. MORRIS

The death of A. J. Morris occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs.
Emma Young, on 14th street, March 25th. Deceased was 80 years, two months and 21 days old, and for one of such advanced years had been quite spry up until about a month ago. He had made his home in Bandon for about eight years.

Deceased is survived by two brothers, Joseph E. Morris of Florence, Oregon, Wm. N. Morris of Florence, Oregon; two sisters, Mrs. M. A. Land-rith of Marshfield, and Mrs. M. E.
Kirtley of Oakland, Cal. He is also survived by two sons, G. F. Morris of Eugene and Eva Morris of Chicago, and the daughter, Mrs. Emma Young of Bandon. There are also a number of grand children and two great grand children.

Mrs. A. B. McNitt arrived home a few days ago from an extended visit with relatives. From Bandon she went to Warren, Mo., where she was the guest of her mother and other relatives for a few months. She then went to Point Richmond, Cal., where she visited for three weeks with her daughters, Mrs. Annie Smith, and Mrs. Chamberlain, formerly Miss Carmen McNitt of Bandon. Mrs.

McNitt found no section of the country which looked better than good old southwestern Oregon, she says.

Z. H. Gatchell left on the Elizabeth for San Francisco where he will transact business matter for the Central Transfer company. This is Mr.
Gatchell's first trip to the outside in a number of years.

G. W. Irwin, of Mill City, Pa., is in town today attending to business affairs, being owner of property in this community. Mr. Irwin arrived in the county from the East some weeks ago, but has been ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. R.
Barnes at Coquille. He may again locate here.

Mrs. Rosa Bingaman has been obliged to remain in bed for the past two weeks with a severe attack of bronchitis.
