"BACK the KAISER WELL."

The evening congregation, was gathered round the stove, With burly old dad Haver, and feeble Grandad Clove. And talk was flyin' fast and free, as talk there ever will. They talked about the Huns and war, and then some more war, still Old Grandad Clove he chuckled, his feeble little cackle. Doc Peters' sittin' nigh to him, made the fire flick and crackle. "Now, Grandad, what's a ticklin' you? You seem so eternally chirp. Just as if you'd capture the Kaiser, and chucked him in the mud and mirk. "Was you there slanderin' the Kaiser? Well I haint 'zactly done that. I'm a backing up the Kaiser, just as fer as I can back!" Grandad's words came in his feeble voice, that his mirthful cackle be voted 5,342.40

broke.

And old Dad Haver and pert Doc Peters, and all the others choked.

"Why-why-say, Old Clove, lookie here just what do you mean by that?"

If you wasn't so old and feeble, I'd knock you down right flat.

You say you're backing the Kaiser up, just as far as you can back?"

By Gosh, we aint no Germans—we'll put a stop to that!"

Old Grandad Clove he just smiled, a quizzical sort of smile.

And fumbilin' round in his pocket, found what he wanted, "after while.

"Now boys, you see this document? Well, perhaps you'ns doesn't know.

But I reckon this Bond's worth five hundred the way the government goes.

I thot I'd back the Kaiser, thot I'd back him purty well.

And I reckon this will back him, bout five miles, along the road to h—l.

FOUR MILE

By CLEM

The Richert Mill has shut down for a few days.

Five thousand pounds of milk per day is the daily receipt at the Cheese Factory.

Elmer and Fred Miller are working for Rosa & Smith at their Cedar Camp.

Roy Jones is once more installed on his ranch.

Wgrk! at the Dufort & Montague Cedar Camp has been suspended for a time on account of a misunderstanding between partners.

The DeLong High school aggregation is home for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Shields of Bancroft were visitors at the Jackson ranch Sunday and Monday.

We are all wondering as to whether Bandon will scare up a Fourth of July Celebration this year. Seems like it is nearly time for the old town to wake up and start something.

Northern Cows Healthy.

A number of the dairymen of northern Curry were quite elated a short time ago when they had their herds examined by a State expert for tuberculosis.

So many cattle on the Coquille had been found afflicted with this dreaded disease during the past year or two that the farmer of Curry commenced to have their fears for their herds and it was with a good many misgivings that some of them decided to have their cows tested. However, when the expert finished on Elk river he said that he had then examined over 300 cows in northern Curry and had not found a trace of tuberculosis in one of them.

With healthy cows, and a good season at hand, our dairymen have reason to feel elated.—Port Orford

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Cure that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
