He said that there are a number of places, not as well equipped as Bandon that are building ships and there is no reason why this place should not be adding to Uncle Sam's tonnage. Mr. Tichenor is Deputy U. S. Marshal for Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Truman were hosts at a very informal evening's entertainment this week, receiving Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Langley, Mrs. O. W. Gibson, Richard Crain Euela, Valeen and Elinor Langley, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Russel, Charles Elmer and Anna Vivian Russel. The evening passed in music and pleasant talk and at the close of the evening refreshments were served by the hostess and her daughter, Miss Anna Truman.—Coos Bay Times.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Metzler of North Bend announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ethel May Metzler, to Mr. Leslie Martin Kranick of Bandon. The date of the wedding has not been made known, but rumor says "next month." The bride-elect is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural College and an instructor during the last year in the North Bend high school. Mr. Kranick formerly made his home in North Bend but is now one of the Coast Guard crew at the Bandon station. The two knew each other in their early school days in North Bend.—Coos Bay Times.

Captain and Mrs. W. S. Wells arrived home Saturday evening from Corvallis, making the trip to Bandon in their car in one day. Captain Wells completed the first military training course given at the University of Oregon under Col. Leader and is highly enthusiastic over the work. He had considered attending one of the reserve officers training schools for the current period, but it was necessary to leave immediately in order to gain entrance. His business here prevented him from going at once, so he had to pass up the opportunity. Mrs. Wells had been visiting with relatives and friends in Canada and also spent some time at Oregon City and Portland. They visited Mr. Wells' parents at Corvallis.

Subtle Youthful Reasoning.

Jimmy had been coaxing his mother all day for some of the new jam that she had made, and in order to discourage him she tried to tell him that it did not turn out well and that she would have to give it to the little dog, Toodles, next door. A few hours later she found him in a corner in the pantry, all smeared up with the jam and the jar half empty. In answer to his mother's questions as to what he was doing he said: "Toodles don't like jam, and you mustn't frow anything away, so I thought I would eat it."

Argentina's Wealth in Furs.

There is no country in the world except Argentina which has 10 different kinds of fur-bearing animals, including the otter and the chinchilla. If there is no one in the country who can compete with the European houses in the manufacture of furs, the establishment of government fur markets, where exporters could learn the true value of their wares and receive a price commensurate with their real worth, would seem advisable.
