THE SUNSET

L. O. REYNOLDS, Prop.
(Formerly Blundell's)

RANDOLPH

Mrs. Herman, August Herman and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blundell and their two daughters took a trip to Roseburg in the Herman car to see Phil Blundell who is home on a five days furlough visiting his wife, mother and other relatives.

Norman Pederson of Prosper is home to see his relatives and friends having been given a five days furlough.

The youngest child of Richard Thrush is sick with bronchial pneumonia and with its mother is at Hotel Gallier in Bandon.

Elbert Philpott writes home from Somewhere in European waters that he is well and contented and having a good time. He is on the U. S. S. Cononcus.

Miss Gladys Ward has gone to her grandmother's, Mrs. Erickson, on Daniels Creek where she will enter school for the winter.

The Dora and the Norma are both undergoing repairs at the Herman Brothers shipyard.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tucker and Mrs. Wm Panter and children of Bandon, were Sunday visitors at the Hultin home.
Reuben Squire of Bandon visited our burg last week.
The Randolph school house is being given a new coat paint. Sutherland & Way of Bandon are doing the work.

FOUR MILE

By CLEM

Jim Adams and family left Saturday in their new Dodge for an extended camping trip.

Mrs. Robert Francis spent Sunday at the DeLong ranch.

Roy Jones is spending his vacation in Curry county. Needless to say he took his gun along.

Mrs. Rambo was a Bandon caller Sunday.

Elmer Miller left Sunday for Camp Lewis to join the colors. His many friends gave him a big supper party Saturday eve at the Miller home. Elmer will be greatly missed by us all. We hope that our Four Mile boys will return safe and bring "Bills" scalp with them.

Mrs. M. W. Treadgold and her daughter, Miss Gladys, returned home Friday after spending the week in Bandon visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Claire Treadgold and children returned with them to enjoy an outing at the ranch.

Miss Daisy Matheny who was to sail on the Elizabeth last Monday to visit her sister received word not to come as her brother-in-law had been drafted and her sister would come to Bandon immediately.

C. W. and J. A. Gurratt railroad men from Portland spent Tuesday looking over Four Mile for a possible location.

The Laurel Lake school has received a brand new organ which they purchased with a fund received from an entertainment some time ago.

There will be an auction sale at the Mrs. Francis cottage on the Clausen farm, Saturday, August 31st, at 2 p. m. The list of articles to be sold is as follows: All kinds of household goods, including a bureau, library table, three-quarter iron bedstead, kitchen table, piano, violin, sheet music, rug curtains, 50 quarts of canned fruits and vegetables, groceries and numerous other articles.—Mrs. R. F. Francis.

On Sunday night, September, 1st, there will be another patriotic community "sing" at the Presbyterian church at eight o'clock. There will be a few special numbers but everyone is invited to come and join in the singing of our national airs.

WEDDING SURPRISE AT PORT ORFORD

Marriage of Robert McKenzie and Miss Lucile Sorensen is Formally Announced

It was a complete surprise to their many Curry county friends, when last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gillings at Port Orford, the marriage of Robert McKenzie and Miss Lucile Sorensen was announced. The occasion was a shower and banquet given by Mr. and Mrs. Gillings in honor of the bride and groom. The marriage had taken place at the M. E. parsonage in Bandon at 5 o'clock in the evening on August 11th, Rev. J. S. Van Winkle officiating, but it was kept a secret until the formal announcement was made. Mr. and Mrs. Gillings and Miss Ena McKenzie of Bandon, who is a sister of the groom, were the only guests at the wedding.

The groom is foreman on Seaview Ranch, a large dairy farm owned by the McKenzies, but expects to enter the service of Uncle Sam soon. The bride's parents reside in California. Both the young people are popular within a large circle of friends, many of whom were in attendance at the banquet when the announcement was made and had the opportunity to extend personal congratulations.

Met Old Fighting Comrade
Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Zeek have returned from the Encampment at Portland. Mr. Zeek had the pleasure of meeting one of his old comrades, Harvey Hank, who served in the same company, B, 13th Ind. infantry, with him. They had not met since June 29, 1864, when Hank was mustered out near Petersburg, Va. Mr. Zeek continued with the reorganized regiment until it was mustered out at Goldsboro, N. C. at the close of the war. Mr. Zeek also had the honor of spokesman for the Sons of Veterans of Coos county who presented to the National President of the W. R. C., Louise M. Knauft, a splendid jewel case made of Coos county myrtle wood. Mrs. Zeek was an Oregon delegate to the National convention of the W. R. C. which was held in Portland simultaneously with the G. A. R. encampment.

Back From Encampment
N. D. Trumbull and Chas Rodgers were among the first of the local G. A. R. members to return from the Encampment. W. A. Greek came a day or two earlier, he being afraid that he was about to get sick. Mr. Greek has been poorly of late and doesn't care to wander very far from home. All of the "boys" are loud in their praise of Portland folks and the entertainment that was afforded by them there. They had a splendid time and every moment was occupied. There was nothing too good for them and about everything was free.

Captain and Mrs. John Johnson and son, Randolph, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fahy and daughter, Beulah, have arrived home from a trip to southern Curry county. They made the trip in their motor cars and report good hunting and a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. John Windsor has been a guest at the R. W. Windsor home.

BIG TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION

Farmers of State Interested in Portland Attraction.

A number of local farmers are seriously considering a trip to Portland to attend the tractor and implement demonstration to be held there September 5, 6 and 7. The shortage of horse feed and farm labor is becoming a serious problem and the farmers are looking towards the tractor method to give them relief.

Practically every tractor manufactured or sold on the Pacific Coast will be shown in actual operation. It will be a wonderful opportunity for the man who needs or will soon need a machine, as he will be able to compare the favorable points of all of them.

Nothing Was Accomplished

The woolen mill meeting held at the city hall Saturday night was barren of results, so far as closing up the affairs of the Sunset corporation was concerned. There was insufficient stock represented to transact business, consequently the meeting was adjourned to be called at a later date.

Picnic at Glen Alder

Probably the most enjoyable affair given this season was the picnic luncheon given by Mrs. R. A. Felter at Glen Alder, their country home, on Thursday last. After a short three mile drive the guests enjoyed an ideal picnic in an ideal picnic ground and everything an Epicure could desire was on the table.

The afternoon was spent in playing bridge, and high score fell to Miss Blanche Radley.

Before returning to town the guests took in the strawberry ranch, which with its spraying irrigation was certainly a picture and left no doubt in anyone's mind why Bandon enjoys strawberries until Thanksgiving.

Miss Irene Barnekoff has arrived home from a ten week's visit with relatives in the Irvington district near Portland.

Miss Christine Denholm and Miss Nan Hunter of Portland, who had been the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. T. W. Robison, returned home the forepart of the week.

M. Broyles has gone to Lakeside for an outing of several weeks.

Geo. M. Laffaw was here on business for the Marshfield Auto Co. yesterday. He left in the afternoon for Portland on business and to meet Mrs. Laffaw who is returning home from a visit with relatives at Seattle. Her visit was cut short because of the fact that Mr. Laffaw has been called for physical examination by the local military board of Coos county. He has been reclassified and placed in Class 1. Having successfully passed the examination Saturday he expects soon to be called and is getting his business in shape.
