has proved itself during our participation in the war. It is difficult to say what banking conditions might have been without it. With it they have been stable and responsive to the needs of the situation. You should support a bank which supports the system.

Curry county on places like his that are a little ways back from the coast and sheltered from the North-west wind. The tree that bore this year, he said, had never had much care and yet yielded 120 lbs. of nuts. Another tree that has grown from a seed and is now several years old, will Mr. Hurst believes, commence bearing within seven years from the time it was planted.—Port Orford Tribune.

Costs Two Bits a Yard

Judge Watson furnishes us exact figures on the cost of transporting gravel by the new county truck, compared with the old methods. By horse power it used to cost 60 cents to haul a yard of gravel one mile, without making any allowance for wear and tear, and as the county rarely had to stand that, it should be figured that way. With the four ton truck the county is using the operating expense in hauling is 12.90—practically—13—cents per yard mile. To that he adds 12.95 cents for interest on the investment and depreciation. That is probably somewhat of an overestimate as it contemplates a life of only five years for the truck. So the expense of moving gravel by truck figures less than 25 cents per yard mile, or at the rate of $5 where it costs $12 before, a saving of 58 per cent.—Coquille Sentinel.

"Mother of Presidents."

Virginia has sometimes been called mother of presidents because she has furnished so many as compared with other states. Since the foundation of the government eight of our presidents have been natives of Virginia and no other state has furnished more than five. Of twenty-seven presidents eight were born in Virginia, six in Ohio, two in New York, two in North Carolina, two in Massachusetts and one each in New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Vermont and New Jersey.

Many Have Felt the Same Way.

Nothing is to be said in commendation of the spirit of the man who recently advertised in a London newspaper: "Loud, second-hand gramophone, wanted for reprisals." Many people, however, not only in London but in many other towns the world over, are only too familiar with the circumstances which provoked this vengeful and mistaken determination. Such circumstances certainly constitute one of the things which will need to be "seen to" sooner or later.

What Tommy Would Say.

One day when small Tommy was called to the desk with his slate he accidentally stepped on his teacher's foot. She looked up, expecting a "Please pardon me," but Master Tommy was silent.
"Why, Tommy, what should you say," she asked.
Tommy hung his little head.
"What should you say, dear?" Tommy began to cry.
"What should you say, Tommy?" persisted his teacher.
"I s—should s—say ouch!" sobbed Tommy.

Same Place Not There.

During the lesson one afternoon a violent thunderstorm arose and to lessen the fright of the children the teacher began telling of the wonders of the elements.
"And now, Jimmy," she asked, "why is it that lightning never strikes twice in the same place?"
"Because," said Jimmy confidently, "after it hits once the same place ain't there any more."—Sunshine Bulletin.

A Purpose in View.

"My friend," remarked the facetious man, "do you get any satisfaction out of starting at a thermometer when it registers 90 degrees in the shade?"
"None to speak of," replied the crusty individual, "but I hope that if I stand here and gaze at this thermometer the next blithering idiot who comes along won't think it necessary to remind me that it's a hot day."—Birmingham Age Herald.

The Man in the Tobacco Store Says

—it does beat all how men are taking to Real Gravely, now that they know it costs nothing extra to chew this class of tobacco. All you have to do is to get a man to take his first plug of Gravely. Let him get the pure, satisfying Gravely taste, and learn for himself how much longer the small Gravely chew stays with him than a big chew of ordinary plug.

It goes further—that's why you can get the good taste of this class of tobacco without extra cost.

This, the "L" Head type of automobile engine, like all internal combustion engines, requires an oil that holds its lubricating qualities at cylinder heat, burns clean in the combustion chambers and runs out with exhaust. ZEROLENE fits these requirements perfectly, because it is correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude.

"Proven Entirely Satisfactory"

Only perfect satisfaction can account for the use of ZEROLENE by the majority of automobile owners.

Leading coast distributors also testify that it is "a most satisfactory motor oil."

They know from the records of their service departments—and we know from exhaustive tests—that ZEROLENE, correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude, gives perfect lubrication with least carbon deposit. Get our lubrication chart showing the correct consistency for your car.
