in enjoyment. Their present owner, Miss Lulu Gates, a native of San Francisco, and with F. V. and W. L. Jones, have just acquired a fine American stallion. This animal is of the thoroughbred breed, and is said to be one of the finest of its kind in the country. It has already won many races, and is expected to do well in future.

The young lady has not yet announced her plans for the coming season, but it is believed that she will appear in several important races. The most reliable reports indicate that she will richly reward the efforts of her owners, and that her success will be assure.

In other news, Miss Lulu Gates and her friends are planning a grand reception in honor of the new owner, and it is expected that many prominent people will attend.

MEMORIAL DAY IN ATHENS.

Yesterday was a day of great sadness and mourning for all Athenians, as we remembered our fallen heroes.

The services were held at the Memorial Park, and were attended by thousands of people. The speeches were moving and inspiring, and the music was heart-rending.

The day ended with a massive parade, which was a fitting tribute to our brave men.

JOE PETERS, PROP.]

No Beacon and no Leave in town.

Joe Peters, who has been the key figure in the prize-fighting world in recent years, has now retired from the ring.

Joe is small in body and only fairly developed in mind, but he is of great stature, and is able to outfight much larger men. He is a natural fighter, and his quickness and power make him a formidable opponent. Joe is a true blue blood, and is respected by all.

In conclusion, Joe Peters is a true champion, and will be remembered as one of the greatest fighters in the history of the sport.

CHARGED WITH CRIBBING. The New York and London scenes of the last week have been very interesting, and the New York Times, in its current edition, has given an account of the recent events.

The Times reports that several people have been charged with cribbing, and that the case is being investigated by the police. It is feared that the case may involve a large amount of money.
