quick action to the liver and carries off the bile by a mild movement of the bowels. It is no pur-purely vegetable. Many people my only success was in the use of Simmons Liver Regulator, which never failed

PRICES CLIMBING.

Retail Merchants Advised of Advances all Along the Lines.

Tradesmen nowadays are in constant receipt of bulletins and circulars informing them of advance in the price of commodities. In some instances, raw material are bringing more than double what they did a year ago at this time. Perhaps in the leather market, the inflation has been most marked all along the line. Perusal of the following from "Hide and Leather," a Chicago trade journal of the leather industry, will show how rapid the rise has been:

"The markets remain tinged with excitement, but shadowed by conservatism. The rapid inflation is unsettling and the question of the day is—How will it all end?"

"Trade veterans are divided in their views. The future appears to be an unfathomed sea. It looks as if hides and skins will go still higher; that leather will follow, and carry up with it irresistibly the numerous products made therefrom.

"Within the past week or ten days the leading manufacturers of cut soles, taps, etc., have met in Chicago and agreed to advance their price list 33 1/2 per cent. Oak, hemlock and union soles are dearer than a week ago. Harness leather is ascending excitedly. Grain and smooth finished sides leathers are at least 100 per cent higher than at this time last year, and wax calf and kip are buoyant.

Picked sheepskins have increased in cost recently from 50 cents to $1.50 per dozen and sheep leather is up half cent a foot, and may be a full cent higher by the time this writing is published. Bellies and heads are scarce and expensive.

Furniture and upholstery leather is about to be raised two or three cents a foot. Raw goat skins are in fair supply, yet glazed kid is two cents a foot higher, in sympathy with the whirl in other leathers."

"To put the case in a nutshell, heavy hides—rough speaking—cost over 100 per cent, and calfskins fully over 85 per cent higher than in May, 1894. Against this, heavy leather is about 50 per cent, and upper, such as grains and smooth finishes, about 100 per cent higher than at this time last year. Shoes are now listed at an advance of from 10 to 25 per cent, the latter principally on low priced grades, and it is predicted will rise still farther unless the expected should occur and leather decline."

During the two months just passed, tacks have advanced 300 per cent, though they may break back.
During the same period of time nails have risen 30 per cent and drawn wires 10 per cent. Advances on some commodities is attributed to combinations or trusts, and in some cases they will not be able to hold the present figure, though in others they may force it higher.

A Narrow Escape.

The trainmen on the O. R. & N. line accommodation from Colfax to Moscow Sunday afternoon had an experience that they will not soon forget, and which only the rarest good fortune prevented from being a terrible accident. The train comes out of one of the rocky cuts near Riverside just before running on a bridge. At that point the engineer and fireman were horrified to see a girl 11 or 12 years old and a boy 9 or 10 in the middle of the bridge. It was impossible to stop the train before the engine reached the farther end of the bridge.
There the engineer, fireman and conductor climbed down with

An Open River.

The last section of the gates have arrived at the Cascades, and these will be put in position as soon as the water will permit, says the Times-Mountaineer. The gates that have been erected keep the water out of the canal and permit work to be done, and the constructors are pushing forward the improvement as fast as possible. It is no idle dream for our citizens to expect during the year to see boats loaded at our wharves with produce and never break cargo until they land their freight at Portland or As-toria. An open river to the sea of the people of this vicinity is on the point of realization.

THE OREGON PIONEER.

Reduced Railway Rates for the Meeting to be Held in Portland.
The annual meeting of the Oregon Pioneer Association will be held in Portland on June 14.
The Southern Pacific and the O.
R. & N. will grant a reduction as follows: Each person going to Portland to attend the reunion must get a receipt for his fare. Attached to this receipt will be a blank certificate, which must be presented to the secretary of the pioneer association at Portland.
This certificate presented at the Portland ticket office prior to June 17, will secure a return rate of one-third the regular fare. In order to get the reduced rate there must be at least twenty-five tickets sold over each line. This arrangement includes Indian war veterans who go to Portland to attend their meeting on June 13. The program for the reunion includes: Annual address—Hon. Wm. Galloway, of McMinnville.
Occasional address—Hon. T. T.
Geer, Macleay.

"The Part of Women in the Pioneer Days"—Mrs. Robert A.
Miller, of Oregon City.

Was It Murder.

James G. Kidwell, son of James Kidwell, who is supposed to have committed suicide at Baker City last week by taking poison, seems to have doubt about his father committing the deed. It is learned, he stated, that the old man had considerable money on his person the evening before his death, and when found had but a two-bit piece in his pocket. He advanced the theory that his father was doped and robbed by someone and from the effect died. He does not know how to explain the letter found on the body but thinks it was a decoy, written by someone who knows the family, to throw off suspicion. The matter is to be thoroughly investigated and if sufficient evidence is adduced to indicate murder, steps will be taken to bring to justice the guilty party or parties.
