DYSPEPSIA

Is that misery experienced when suddenly made aware that you possess a diabolical arrangement called stomach. No two dyspeptics have the same predominant symptoms, but whatever form dyspepsia takes

The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing is certain no one will remain a dyspeptic who will Start the Liver working and all bodily ailments will disappear.

"For more than three years I suffered with Dyspepsia in its worst form. I tried several doctors, but they afforded no relief. At last I tried Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, which cured me in a short time. It is a good medicine. I would not be without it."—JAMES A. ROSS, Philadelphia, Pa.

BEWARE OF SECTION SEVEN.
A Peculiar Warning Received by Lodge Men in Pendleton.

Recently, says the East Oregonian, members of the Junior Order United American Mechanics in Pendleton received notice mailed here anonymously and of which the following is an exact copy: ROLL No. 7.

Warning No. 1. . . 6. 11. . . 95.
We FIDEI DEFENSOR, beseech you, a man of reason, to sever all connections with a certain diabolical order, for your own sake.

If we, FIDEI DEFENSOR, can discover from this notice, that you will change your influence if not your principles from that order, we will make it of great interest to you.

But if you do not take warning,
"BEWARE OF SECTION SEVEN." That will be your penalty. This paper is for your eyes only. By order of the CUSTOS ROTULORUM.
1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7.

The notice had inscribed on it a cross and on the border was penciled a heavy mourning border.

Members of the order thought the matter serious and think so yet. They allege that they have been watched on every meeting night and to prove this and satisfy themselves as to who were the persons watching their members on a lodge night, they appointed men to watch their spies and it is claimed that they have all the names. But they absolutely refuse to divulge them. The order has been organized here several months, but has never taken active part in local elections. It is not an A. P. A. organization, as claimed by some, but members assert that they stand only on the following platform:

1. To maintain and promote the interest of America and shield them from the depressing effects of foreign competition.
2. To assist Americans in getting work.
3. To encourage Americans in business.
4. To establish a sick and funeral fund.
5. To maintain the public school system of the United States of America, and to prevent sectarian interference therewith, and uphold the reading of the Holy Bible therein.

Applicants for membership shall be:

A white, male person, born in the United States of North America or under protection of its flag.
Of good moral character.
A believer in the existence of a Supreme Being as the creator and preserver of the universe.
Opposed to union of church and state.
Favorable to free education and the American public school system.
Between 16 and 50 years of age for beneficial membership; over 50 years, honorary membership.
Many regard the whole thing as a hoax, and refuse to pay any attention to it. But on the other hand, there are very many who look at it seriously.

But whether joke or genuine threat, there seems to be no likelihood of any one being hurt.

What "section seven" means, no one knows, and "Custos Rotulrum" is a puzzle to most people. The whole thing is shrouded in mystery, and if a joke, is certainly a failure, as the warning does not appear to have caused any excitement or fright.

Forty Five Cent Wheat.
This morning a big deal in wheat was reported from Vansycle in the sale of 18,000 bushels of wheat at 45 cents clear of all warehouse and handling charges. The wheat was put in the warehouse at 22 cents last fall.

This, with the telegraphic report of $1 per bushel for cash wheat in St. Louis, caused a happy feeling among those who will have wheat for sale this fall.

Spring wheat is said to be needing rain very badly. The wind of the past few days has caused a rapid evaporation of the moisture.
Much spring wheat, it is feared, has been damaged already so that it cannot be saved even by copious rains.—East Oregonian.

The New Usury Law.

Washington has a new usury law which provides that the rate of interest on loans, discounts, etc., shall be 7 per cent., but this rate may, by contract between the parties, be increased at 12 per cent.
The legal rates for all warrants shall henceforth be 8 per cent.
Judgments on written contracts provided for payment of interest until paid at a special rate shall bear interest at that rate; otherwise at the rate of 7 per cent. The law provides a somewhat curious penalty for a breach. Where greater interest is contracted for the loan shall not be void, but the party who loans the money can only recover the principal less the amount of interest contracted for, and the defendant shall recover his costs, and in case interest has been paid the judgment can only be for the principal less twice the amount of the interest paid and less the amount of all accrued and unpaid interest.

Sheep Shearing.

In Eastern Oregon during the summer season sheep-shearers are in constant demand, and they find employment at good prices. According to the condition of the fleece they receive from five to eight cents a head for shearing sheep, and the average of good shearers will range from 90 to 125 head during a working day, which ranges from early light in the morning to twilight in the evening. Good wages are made; but the season does not continue over two or three months in the year. They generally divide themselves into crews and elect a foreman. He keeps a tally of the work done, and in the evening gives to each man an account of his earnings. These crews consist of ten or a dozen men each, and they journey from one band to another, taking with them their blankets. Accompanying each crew is a wool-sacker, whose duty it is to put the fleeces together in bags.

A Complete Hardware Establishment.

Geo. W. Proebstel, of Weston, has one of the most complete hardware establishments in Eastern Oregon, none-excepted. Harvest supplies, such as drapers, oils and axle grease, can be obtained of him cheaper, much cheaper, than anywhere else, from the mere fact that he carries larger quantities than any other firm. His hardware line is larger than ever and prices are quoted to suit the times. Then he conducts the only lumber yard outside of Pendleton where an order of any size can be filled on short notice. He sells rough lumber that is well seasoned and clean for $12 per M; red cedar shingles for $2 per M, and finishing lumber for $25. Proebstel is the man who can fit you out.

I have two little girl children who are teething this hot summer weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for children with bowel troubles.
I was myself taken with a severe attack of bloody flux, with cramps and pains in my stomach, one-third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. Within twenty-four hours I was out of bed and doing my house work. Mrs. W. L. Dun-agan, Bon-aqua, Hickman Co., Tenn. For sale by Osburn.

Cox-Mansfield.

E. R. Cox, sr., and Mrs. Alice Mansfield, were united in marriage in Pendleton, by Rev. W. E. Pot-wine. The bride and groom are both well known to PRESS readers, both having resided in this country for a number of years, the bride lately in the Willamette valley.
Both have a large circle of friends throughout this community. The PRESS extends congratulations.

back to the druggist from whom he had obtained it of for two more bottles of the same remedy. When you have a cough or cold give this preparation a trial and like Mr.
Scriven you will want it when again in need of such a medicine.
It is a remedy of great worth and merit. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Osburn.

COULD NOT VOTE.

An incident that Recently Occurred at Corvallis.

In its account of the recent election in Corvallis the Times gives an incident that ought to make every thinking man stop and consider his way, says the Albany Democrat. A different scene was when young Adam Bambarger offered to vote at the lower ward, and his vote was challenged on the ground that he had served a term in the penitentiary. The question of whether or not he had been pardoned out arose, and full five minutes was spent in examining the law. He read the book himself silently, and those who looked on could not help feel a pang of pity for the man whose own act placed him in a position for a time extremely disagreeable. A big crowd stood around, and when it was finally decided that he was entitled to no vote, Bambarger left the place with celerity. It was an incident that reminded those who saw it that the penitentiary should be shunned, not for the inconvenience of being locked within its dark walls, but for the discredit that comes with freedom.

An Army of Crickets.

The La Grande Chronicle says: Railroad Commissioner Eddy, who returned from Huntington, says that some of the farmers along Burnt river have been visited by a pest and others are fearful lest the invaders shall denude their gardens.
About Friday of last week the vanguard of an army of crickets appeared on the banks of the river, about five miles east of Huns-ington. They came from the west and were journeying east. On reaching the river the leaders plunged boldly in and the rank and file followed.
Millions floated down and were drowned, and millions more reached the opposite bank and proceeded on in an easterly direction. Every rock and stick in the stream below the point where the crickets took the water for hundreds of yards is littered covered with the insects.
Where bridges cross they climb up the posts over the bridge and on.
Every garden that happens in the way is left bare of verdure. They follow the corn stalks and eat them an inch or so below the surface.

Umatilla's Wheat King.

In the United States circuit court Friday last the case of C. S. Jackson, receiver of the National bank of Pendleton, vs. James M. Elgin was heard on motion of plaintiff's attorneys, Messrs. Cox, Teal, Cotton and Minor, for judgment. The basis of the suit was a series of promissory notes given by Elgin to the bank, one dated June 29, 1893, for $7000; one July 26, 1893, for $7650.00; and one December 29, 1893, for $8000. Inasmuch as Mr.
Elgin did not appear in court judgment by default was given as pray-

There Was Yet Hope.

"Pity!" Implored the unhappy damsel.
"The villains' knife gleamed aloft.
"Can you have no pity? Must you kill me?"
He faltered.
"Spare me!" She wildly cried.
"I cannot," he answered, sadly, "but I can give you a letter of inroduction to the party who is hypnotizing me."
