

It Pays to Trade at the Peoples Warehouse

Annual Clearance Sale is Now On

THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE, Agents Butterick's Patterns

Items in Brief.

Try Boddy's sugar-cured hams and bacon.
Oh, My! '99" coffee at the Blue Front.
Try the new market for the best in meats.

Sheets, at Gates' old stand, will treat you right.
Everything for the table at the Blue Front Grocery.

For fine groceries trade at Gross & Worthington's.

C. A. B. & Co. have a complete line Racine buggies.

The "General Good" cigar is having the lead at Gay's.

A neat line of children's ready-made aprons at The Fair.

A fresh lot of canned goods just received at Bagley's.

Superior crackers, the best ever, 10c per lb. Shick & Co.

The leading brands of tobacco and cigars are sold by Gay.

The famous Superior brand of candies is to be found at Bagley's.

C. A. Barrett & Co. have a full stock of gasoline light supplies.

The celebrated Prescott flour—a solid car—think of it! Shick & Co.

You will find satisfaction as well as saving in buying at The Fair.

C. A. Barrett & Co. have a fine assortment of garden and field seeds.

"White as snow" is the term applied to Pendleton Steam Laundry work.

Beef tea and other hot drinks are served at Chas. Gay's popular resort.

When you want anything in the tobacco or confectionery line go to Sheets.

Don't fail to see the new Fireside and Domestic sewing machines at Bagley's.

The warmest baby in the bunch, Camilo coffee, 25c per lb. Shick & Co.

We do as we advertise; we advertise as we do. See for yourself. The Fair.

Spring is here and so is our shipment of fine garden seeds. C. A. Barrett & Co.

Remember the biggest Clearance Sale of the season will soon be on at The Fair.

Compare quality and you will always find our goods of the better grade. The Fair.

"Hustle and Push" are the modern words with an oldtime meaning, success The Fair.

R. J. Boddy has just placed on the market this season's sugar-cured hams and bacon.

The best cigars and the best grades of candies are offered by Sheets. Gates' old stand.

The best of everything in groceries are to be found at the Blue Front, at prices that are right.

Get our prices on barb and woven wire fencing before buying. Umatilla Implement Co.

If you want the best candies go to McBride & Co. and get Lowney's. They are world famous.

"Come early and avoid the rush." Get your choice of ladies' shirt waists for 50c. The Fair.

For down-right good hosiery values there is not the equal of this department at The Fair Store.

New dress trimmings, Allover in silk, linen, cotton and lace effects, just received. Athena Mer. Co.

Send us your orders for your groceries. We will fill them quickly and promptly. Shick & Co.

Full line of the new lemons and silver grays in the celebrated Mascott Kid gloves. Athena Mer. Co.

You can't afford to miss our prices on Monitor drills and Bradley plows and harrows. C. A. Barrett & Co.

We can sell you the "Dutchman" or "Canton" plows. You know the merit of these. Umatilla Implement Co.

Charles Gay has just put on sale the famous "Umatilla" 5-cent cigar. It deserves the popularity of being the best 5-cent cigar on the market.

The great special sale of ladies' muslin underwear still continues. It is evident that the ladies appreciate the low price by the quantities sold. Athena Mer. Co.

Just received our own importation of Crystal Kiki wash silk. The colorings are elegant this season. Make your selection early before the line is broken. Athena Mer. Co.

W. C. Miller, the harness dealer, carries only the best stock, which includes everything in the harness and saddle line. Repairing done on short notice by skilled workmen.

James Crawford, the leading harness maker of Pendleton, Ore., being overstocked in collars, whips, buggy cushions, fur schaps, kids, spurs, etc., will give special bargains for the next 30 days.

Press Paragraphs

Walkover shoes at Shick & Co.'s.

"Big" Dan Kirk was over from Milton this week.

Ask to see some of those exclusive dress patterns at Manasse's.

Take a look at the men's new spring suits just received. A. M. Co.

Just received, a new lot of Preferred Stock canned goods at Bagley's.

Mrs. Joseph Hudspeth is prepared to give lessons in flower, plain, brush and Kensington painting. Prices reasonable.

Dill pickles at Bagley's.

York Dell went down to Pendleton Tuesday.

John Davison was in Pendleton Tuesday on business.

Noah Remillard was over from Walla Walla this week.

C. A. Fischer has returned from Los Angeles, California.

Chas. Gay and Wm. Winship were in Pendleton Tuesday.

F. J. Beale, the Milton stock-buyer, was in town Saturday.

N. H. Pinkerton has returned from a trip through Crook county.

Born, March 9th, to Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Jarman, a daughter.

Another fall of snow last night—winter again this morning.

John Stockman and wife of Vansycle, will go to Pendleton to reside.

Many Athenians went down to Pendleton this week to pay taxes.

Zoeth Houser, ex-United States marshal, is in town this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmitt went over to Walla Walla Tuesday.

A carload of Moline wagons arrived yesterday for A. Kunkel & Co.

E. E. Cleaver, the well known mine promoter, was in town yesterday.

J. W. Adams has commenced work on his new dwelling on the West side.

Deputy Sheriff J. B. Gilliam, of Walla Walla county, was in town yesterday.

Grace Parker is detained at home this week from school on account of sickness.

Misses Anice and Doris Barnes, of Weston, visited friends in the city Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams spent Sunday in Athena from their farm near Weston.

Mrs. Florence Alloway is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones.

Joe Hodgson is still confined to his home north of town with an attack of rheumatism.

The new mayor and board of councilmen will begin active service in office next Monday evening.

The Vansycle Sunday school has reopened after being closed for some time on account of sickness.

Seven hundred head of cattle were wintered on the stubblefields in the Holdman neighborhood.

Posters are out announcing the last dance of the season. It takes place tonight at the opera house.

Mrs. Charles Keen and Mrs. F. E. Simpson are spending the week at the Rush home west of town.

Mrs. Boles, mother of Mrs. F. S. Le Grow, is over from Walla Walla, accompanied by her son, Grover.

Mrs. Vaughn has returned from Helix where she has been since before the death of her father, W. C. Kern.

The spring term of the Hillsdale school commenced Monday with Miss Kittie Sharp, of Athena, as teacher.

There will be church services at the Stanton school house Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week.

Mrs. J. E. Stanfield, of Adams, has been in Walla Walla several days having her eyes treated by a specialist.

The Umatilla Calidonian society will meet in this city tomorrow night. Business of importance is to be considered.

Mrs. Willis Bush and daughter, Miss Gladys, are visiting Mrs. Fanny Wright, a sister of Mrs. Bush, near Milton, this week.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gyles died Sunday morning and was buried in the Athena cemetery Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gyles extend heartfelt thanks to neighbors and friends for assistance rendered.

Mrs. Lillian Downs Dobson commenced the spring term of school Monday in the "Rawhide" district east of town.

Hardy Mansfield is over from Walla Walla county, being called here by the serious condition of his father, F. M. Mansfield.

A daughter was born on Tuesday of last week to County Commissioner and Mrs. Horace Walker at their home near Helix.

Rev. W. E. Armfield was in Walla Walla Tuesday on business connected with the building of the new Methodist church.

Mrs. Charlton and family, who the past winter occupied the Baptist parsonage, have moved to their ranch near Helix.

F. H. Beathe of Weston has been appointed by the county court to be roadmaster of the county at a salary of $100 per month.

J. E. Froome, Will Wells, Nate and Ad Pinkerton and Chas. Dunn left last night for Crook county where they will take homesteads.

There were six conversions Tuesday night at the Christian church in Pendleton, making a total of 64 during the present meetings.

"Grandpa" Kirk and Mrs. Jane Baldwin were married yesterday at Ukiah. Mr. Kirk is in his 74th year and the lady is past 50.

Ruth, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eckley, of Briggs, died last Friday from the effects of bronchitis, superinduced by measles.

Mrs. John Geiss of Adams, who has been at a hospital in Walla Walla for the past 11 days, has so far recovered as to be able to return home.

A meeting of the newly organized gun club is scheduled for tomorrow night at Dr. Plamondon's office. All members are requested to be present.

Ralph Steen, of Milton, a young man well known in Athena, died in a Walla Walla hospital yesterday morning, after submitting to a surgical operation.

The Umatilla county teachers' institute will be held in Athena tomorrow. A large attendance is expected and an elaborate program will be rendered.

It took just 19 days to dispose of 1100 Montello cigars at Gay's. The Montello is the best 6-cent cigar on the market and a new invoice of 2500 has just arrived.

J. W. Maloney, Grand Chancellor Commander of the Knights of Pythias, has started from Pendleton on an official visit to different lodges in this domain.

The usual morning and evening services will be held at the M. E. church Sunday. Rev. Armfield announces the subjects for his sermons in another column.

Earl Saunders and Bert Cartano, two well known Yellow Kids, left Monday for Moro, where they have been engaged for the season by the Moro baseball association.

Those who attended the Turner art exhibit at Pendleton Saturday from Athena, report that it was an excellent display and was extremely entertaining and instructive.

Mrs. Callender, who some time ago went to Portland to reside, is in failing health and is at Hot Lake hospital in Union county. She is accompanied by her daughter, Ival.

The dedication of the new Christian church of this city will take place on Sunday, March 22. A large number of church people from other towns will be present on that day.

Fire in the Hotel Pendleton Wednesday morning inflicted a loss of more than $10,000. The building was flooded with water and but few rooms in the house escaped a drenching.

John Haligus, of the firm of A. Kunkel & Co., accompanied by his wife, arrived in the city last evening from Lewiston. Mr. and Mrs. Haligus will reside in the Hawes residence.

The family of Mrs. McIntyre is under quarantine, because of a case of scarlet fever. The afflicted person is Ethel McIntyre, of Milton, a niece of Mrs. McIntyre, who is here on a visit.

The quarantine has been raised at the residence of Rev. W. E. Armfield. His young son has entirely recovered from scarlet fever and no indications of further spread of the disease are seen.

By request, Mr. and Mrs. Curry of the Curry Optical Co., of Walla Walla, will make a professional visit to Athena Wednesday, March 18. Eyes examined free. They are known to be reliable.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Wm. Thompkins, who, besides furnishing the ladies with work, also spread before them a bounteous lunch.

W. M. Thompkins went out to his farm Tuesday to commence seeding, but snow and rain put a stop to farm work. March, for sure, has "come in like a lion" and continues to show a leonine disposition.

Mrs. Hattie Mosier, of Weston, is visiting at the Colburn home in this city and attending the meetings at the Christian church. Mrs. Mosier has but recently recovered from a protracted spell of sickness.

J. J. Kauffman, chief of the Walla Walla police force, was in town Saturday. Mr. Kauffman, who is interested in one of Walla Walla's leading meat markets, purchased a number of fine beef cattle from Louis Bergevin.

Mrs. Jack Mackay, of Walla Walla, died in that city Saturday and was buried Sunday. The lady has many friends in this and Weston vicinity, who will mourn with the bereaved husband and relatives.

Weston's city council has appointed a committee to investigate the feasibility of generating electric power at some point on the Umatilla river. Weston's charter has been amended to permit the issuance of $30,000 bonds.

Dr. C. J. Smith, of Pendleton, has received his commission from Governor Chamberlain, making him one of the five members of the state board of health. Dr. Smith is the only Eastern Oregon member of the board.

The sheriff's office in Pendleton is said to very much resemble the proverbial Oklahoma land office. Taxpayers stand in a long line, awaiting their turn to take advantage of the rebate allowed by law on all taxes paid prior to March 15.

East Oregonian: B. F. Ogle, of Athena, came to town Monday evening en route to his ranch on Willow Springs ridge, expecting to leave town Tuesday morning. He was taken ill however before leaving town and returned home to Athena on the morning train, feeling very badly.

Adams Advance: Chas. Brotherton, of Athena, was in town Friday. He has just returned from an extended trip with his family through the eastern states. He said it seemed good to get back to "Old Oregon" after his experience with the winter as he found it in those localities.

C. E. Troutman, the architect, has submitted his plans for the new Methodist church in this city, and work will begin on the new building as soon as the contract is let. It will be of brick and stone, 65x85 feet, with a basement 6 feet out of the ground and the full size of the building above it.

Indian policemen say that all trouble on the reservation is caused by the Indians who go to nearby towns on Saturdays and return to the reservation drunk. Five Indian police have about all they can do Saturday nights rustling drunk to the "skookum house."

Rev. L. W. Gowen will conduct morning and evening services at the Baptist church in this city Sunday. The morning theme will be "The Revelation of Jesus Christ." A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

To the ladies of Athena and vicinity: Mrs. N. E. Lee, of Spokane, will be at the residence of Mrs. A. L. Jones on Jefferson street about April 1 with a full and complete line of up-to-date millinery. Old hats retouched, cleaned and made as good as new. She will come to stay. Call and examine her stock before buying elsewhere.

Monroe Hicks, of Weston, suffered quite a severe illness from pneumonia the past two months and has now gone to California for the benefit of his health. Should the climate prove beneficial it is said Mr. Hicks contemplates disposing of his interests near Weston and will take up his residence there in the near future.

Enos P. Tucker, aged 81 years, died at the residence of R. J. Boddy in this city Wednesday morning. The deceased came from Union county and had made his home with Mr. Boddy for some months. Mr. Tucker was an amiable old gentleman and readily made warm friends of all who came within the radius of his acquaintance. He had been critically ill for several weeks previous to his death. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment being in the Athena cemetery.

Pendleton Tribune: What might have been a serious accident happened at Adams Monday. Several men were cleaning a well on one of J. T. Lienallen's farms near town, when his son, Lawrence, in climbing out of the well, slipped and fell back into the well, which is 40 feet deep. It took about an hour to get him out and down to the drugstore, where Dr. Stone attended him, and then he was taken to his home. It seems a miracle that he escaped with only a few cuts and bruises and a sprained ankle. At last reports he was doing nicely.

The O. R. & N. Co. will run a special train Sunday from Walla Walla to Pendleton. The train will be run expressly for the purpose of accommodating those who wish to attend the dedication of the new Christian church in Pendleton, and will stop at all stations between the two points named. The rate is one fare for round trip and a large attendance of church people is desired. The train will leave Walla Walla at 8:30 a. m., and arrive in Pendleton at 10:30 a. m.

It troubled with rheumatism give Chamberlain's Pain-Balm a trial. One application will relieve the pain. It also cures sprains and bruises in one-third the time required by any other treatment. Cuts, burns, frostbites, quinsy, pains in the side and chest, glandular and other swellings are quickly cured by applying it. Every bottle warranted. Price, 25 and 50 cts. Pioneer Drug Store.

An aerie of the order of Eagles was organized in Pendleton Monday, with a membership of 117. Prominent members of the order in Oregon and Washington were present.

In Old Missouri.

A remarkable incident is reported from Mary's Home near Jefferson City, where Mrs. Henry Smith gave birth to five baby boys at one time. They are reported to be well and weigh a total of 30 pounds. Smith has been married less than seven years and is the father of 16 children. Only one time has there been a single baby. The others are two pairs of twins, two pairs of triplets and the quintette.

West Bound Rates.

West bound second-class settlers' rates via the O. R. & N. and connections from all points east are marked way down for the period between February 15 and April 30. From Chicago the rate is $30.50; from St. Louis, $27.50; from Kansas City, $22.50. Stopover not to exceed ten days, allowed at Pocatello, Idaho, Havre, Mont., and all points west. For rates and further particulars, apply to any O. R. & N. agent.

ACKER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS

cure dyspepsia and all disorders arising from indigestion. Endorsed by physicians everywhere. Sold by all druggists. No cure, no pay, 25 cents. Trial package free by writing to W. H. Hooker & Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Foley's Honey and Tar for children, safe, sure. No opiates.

BON MARCHE MILLINERY

MRS. JOHNSON, MANAGER.

A GRAND OPENING

of fine Trimmed Hats next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The largest Stock to select from.

SOUTH SIDE MAIN, ATHENA.

MONEY TO LOAN

ON FARM LANDS

No Commission. No Charge for Making out Papers. Low Rates and Easy Terms. Address,

BAKER & BAKER,

WALLA WALLA. - - - WASH.

Mrs. Jack Mackay, of Walla Walla, died in that city Saturday and was buried Sunday. The lady has many friends in this and Weston vicinity, who will mourn with the bereaved husband and relatives.

Weston's city council has appointed a committee to investigate the feasibility of generating electric power at some point on the Umatilla river. Weston's charter has been amended to permit the issuance of $30,000 bonds.

Dr. C. J. Smith, of Pendleton, has received his commission from Governor Chamberlain, making him one of the five members of the state board of health. Dr. Smith is the only Eastern Oregon member of the board.

The sheriff's office in Pendleton is said to very much resemble the proverbial Oklahoma land office. Taxpayers stand in a long line, awaiting their turn to take advantage of the rebate allowed by law on all taxes paid prior to March 15.

East Oregonian: B. F. Ogle, of Athena, came to town Monday evening en route to his ranch on Willow Springs ridge, expecting to leave town Tuesday morning. He was taken ill however before leaving town and returned home to Athena on the morning train, feeling very badly.

Adams Advance: Chas. Brotherton, of Athena, was in town Friday. He has just returned from an extended trip with his family through the eastern states. He said it seemed good to get back to "Old Oregon" after his experience with the winter as he found it in those localities.

C. E. Troutman, the architect, has submitted his plans for the new Methodist church in this city, and work will begin on the new building as soon as the contract is let. It will be of brick and stone, 65x85 feet, with a basement 6 feet out of the ground and the full size of the building above it.

Indian policemen say that all trouble on the reservation is caused by the Indians who go to nearby towns on Saturdays and return to the reservation drunk. Five Indian police have about all they can do Saturday nights rustling drunk to the "skookum house."

Rev. L. W. Gowen will conduct morning and evening services at the Baptist church in this city Sunday. The morning theme will be "The Revelation of Jesus Christ." A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

To the ladies of Athena and vicinity: Mrs. N. E. Lee, of Spokane, will be at the residence of Mrs. A. L. Jones on Jefferson street about April 1 with a full and complete line of up-to-date millinery. Old hats retouched, cleaned and made as good as new. She will come to stay. Call and examine her stock before buying elsewhere.

Monroe Hicks, of Weston, suffered quite a severe illness from pneumonia the past two months and has now gone to California for the benefit of his health. Should the climate prove beneficial it is said Mr. Hicks contemplates disposing of his interests near Weston and will take up his residence there in the near future.

Enos P. Tucker, aged 81 years, died at the residence of R. J. Boddy in this city Wednesday morning. The deceased came from Union county and had made his home with Mr. Boddy for some months. Mr. Tucker was an amiable old gentleman and readily made warm friends of all who came within the radius of his acquaintance. He had been critically ill for several weeks previous to his death. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment being in the Athena cemetery.

Pendleton Tribune: What might have been a serious accident happened at Adams Monday. Several men were cleaning a well on one of J. T. Lienallen's farms near town, when his son, Lawrence, in climbing out of the well, slipped and fell back into the well, which is 40 feet deep. It took about an hour to get him out and down to the drugstore, where Dr. Stone attended him, and then he was taken to his home. It seems a miracle that he escaped with only a few cuts and bruises and a sprained ankle. At last reports he was doing nicely.

The O. R. & N. Co. will run a special train Sunday from Walla Walla to Pendleton. The train will be run expressly for the purpose of accommodating those who wish to attend the dedication of the new Christian church in Pendleton, and will stop at all stations between the two points named. The rate is one fare for round trip and a large attendance of church people is desired. The train will leave Walla Walla at 8:30 a. m., and arrive in Pendleton at 10:30 a. m.

It troubled with rheumatism give Chamberlain's Pain-Balm a trial. One application will relieve the pain. It also cures sprains and bruises in one-third the time required by any other treatment. Cuts, burns, frostbites, quinsy, pains in the side and chest, glandular and other swellings are quickly cured by applying it. Every bottle warranted. Price, 25 and 50 cts. Pioneer Drug Store.

An aerie of the order of Eagles was organized in Pendleton Monday, with a membership of 117. Prominent members of the order in Oregon and Washington were present.

In Old Missouri.

A remarkable incident is reported from Mary's Home near Jefferson City, where Mrs. Henry Smith gave birth to five baby boys at one time. They are reported to be well and weigh a total of 30 pounds. Smith has been married less than seven years and is the father of 16 children. Only one time has there been a single baby. The others are two pairs of twins, two pairs of triplets and the quintette.

West Bound Rates.

West bound second-class settlers' rates via the O. R. & N. and connections from all points east are marked way down for the period between February 15 and April 30. From Chicago the rate is $30.50; from St. Louis, $27.50; from Kansas City, $22.50. Stopover not to exceed ten days, allowed at Pocatello, Idaho, Havre, Mont., and all points west. For rates and further particulars, apply to any O. R. & N. agent.

ACKER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS

cure dyspepsia and all disorders arising from indigestion. Endorsed by physicians everywhere. Sold by all druggists. No cure, no pay, 25 cents. Trial package free by writing to W. H. Hooker & Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Foley's Honey and Tar for children, safe, sure. No opiates.

BON MARCHE MILLINERY

MRS. JOHNSON, MANAGER.

A GRAND OPENING

of fine Trimmed Hats next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The largest Stock to select from.

SOUTH SIDE MAIN, ATHENA.

MONEY TO LOAN

ON FARM LANDS

No Commission. No Charge for Making out Papers. Low Rates and Easy Terms. Address,

BAKER & BAKER,

WALLA WALLA. - - - WASH.

which is 40 feet deep. It took about an hour to get him out and down to the drugstore, where Dr. Stone attended him, and then he was taken to his home. It seems a miracle that he escaped with only a few cuts and bruises and a sprained ankle. At last reports he was doing nicely.

The O. R. & N. Co. will run a special train Sunday from Walla Walla to Pendleton. The train will be run expressly for the purpose of accommodating those who wish to attend the dedication of the new Christian church in Pendleton, and will stop at all stations between the two points named. The rate is one fare for round trip and a large attendance of church people is desired. The train will leave Walla Walla at 8:30 a. m., and arrive in Pendleton at 10:30 a. m.

It troubled with rheumatism give Chamberlain's Pain-Balm a trial. One application will relieve the pain. It also cures sprains and bruises in one-third the time required by any other treatment. Cuts, burns, frostbites, quinsy, pains in the side and chest, glandular and other swellings are quickly cured by applying it. Every bottle warranted. Price, 25 and 50 cts. Pioneer Drug Store.

An aerie of the order of Eagles was organized in Pendleton Monday, with a membership of 117. Prominent members of the order in Oregon and Washington were present.

In Old Missouri.

A remarkable incident is reported from Mary's Home near Jefferson City, where Mrs. Henry Smith gave birth to five baby boys at one time. They are reported to be well and weigh a total of 30 pounds. Smith has been married less than seven years and is the father of 16 children. Only one time has there been a single baby. The others are two pairs of twins, two pairs of triplets and the quintette.

<