W. R. Taylor and wife have gone on another trip to their stock ranch. They will return in time for Mr. Taylor to attend to his harvesting interests here.
L. W. Roberts is owner of 351 cords of wood now being floated down the Walla Walla river. The wood will be taken from the river at the Dorothy place.
The brick for the construction of the new M. E. church at the corner of 3rd and Adams streets is being transported from Weston at the rate of 16,000 per day. The Weston yard is hustling to keep up with orders. A kiln containing 250,000 will be ready to open Monday.

"Liberty" is supposed to be a good Injun now. Indians report that while drunk he was thrown from his horse on the reservation the other day, and killed.

Louis Audette is about the first man to begin threshing in this section. He started his machine yesterday in a barley field south of town on the other side of the Umatilla.

Pendleton papers on good authority, report that Juniper wheat fields will average 18 bushels per acre. The grain is No. 1, in quality and harvest will begin in a few days.

M. Van Tassel, residing on Weston mountain has a brood sow with a promising family of little rooters. A calf is being weaned in the same corral, and invariably joins the piglets at their meals.
Mr. and Mrs. Victor McDonald have returned to their home in Walla Walla, from an Eastern trip. They spent several days last week at the Dudley home in this city.

Mrs. Fred Rosenzweig will leave this evening for Portland, where she goes as a delegate to the grand lodge, from Glover Lodge, No. 35, Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W.

Yellow flags are displayed at either side of the Duncan residence on Water street in Weston, which is under quarantine for smallpox. George Duncan's oldest son, a boy of fourteen is the patient.

Leader: Another trip to the Umatilla river will be made next week by the Weston parties interested in the electric light and power project. They will be accompanied by J. W. Kimbrell, county surveyor.

Evidently, mountain air acts as a great rejuvenator on the average city horse. Old "Nig," E. L. Barnett's family driver, ran away at Bingham springs the other day, smashing things up generally.

After sixteen years of steady work, A. L. Jones, the drayman, left yesterday morning for a few weeks' recreation at Bingham springs. His daughter, Mrs. Jesse Salong, will spend the summer at the springs.

Ransom Lieuallen, the well known Weston blacksmith, was attracted to the Pass office Friday by the whir and noise of our busy printing presses. Mr. Lieuallen has recently recovered from a serious illness.

A marriage epidemic has struck Milton. Last week the Eagle reported the wedding of Albert Buerstette and Marguerette Maestretti; Ralph Edwards and Edith Bussell, and Harry Davidson and Bertha Harris.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church have selected December 11 as the date on which they will hold their annual bazaar. Future announcements relative to progress of the undertaking will appear in the Pass.

The Pass welcomes "Uno's" new contribution to the local columns of the paper. If he continues as correspondent, his "flats" from Gerking Flat will always be read with pleasure, especially by our many readers in that community.

Montezuma, the big sorrel stallion that has been exhibited all over the Northwest, has been sold at sheriff's sale. He is also known as the Oregon Wonder, and is the horse having the long mane and tail so familiar at the fair and other exhibitions in the last few years.

Present indications point to the shipment of an unusually large number of cattle from Umatilla county this season. The scarcity of hay last year has apparently alarmed stock owners, and they are disinclined to risk keeping their cattle on hand for the winter.

George Brucher, a mountain farmer, brought to the Pass office some fine specimens of strawberries. They were of the first crop, from vines set out one year ago. Mr. Brucher is enthusiastic over the mountain berry possibilities and will give attention to its production hereafter.

Horace Stillman, J. M. Spence and other Pendleton sportsmen while returning Sunday in a cab from a shoot, were hurled over a grade and badly shaken up. It is said that Stillman, after being killed outright, recovered and rescued the others. Spence still maintains that his neck and both legs were broken.

Milton Eagle: A dog fight on the Fourth between the animals owned by William Mellor and F. J. Beale was the cause of considerable excitement and came near precipitating a general fight among the bystanders. Quiet was finally secured, however, before matters got beyond control but not until several blows had been struck.

Weston Leader: Hezekiah Key, well known throughout the East End, is reported to be in a very serious condition at his home below town. He has been confined to the house for two months past and is gradually growing weaker. A dozen years ago Mr. Key was one of the most extensive farmers in this locality, but gradually lost his possessions.

A case of disorderly conduct gave Marshal Gholson and several assistants a mess of trouble Wednesday morning. A prisoner working out his fine jumped his job and took refuge in the cellar of the Eagle saloon. When he was captured he put up such a strong fight that a rope and the dray had to be brought into requisition to get him to the city bastille.

C. E. Browne, a Milton member of the Umatilla Sportsmen's association, has just received 4,000 trout sent by the Oregon Fish and Game association to Umatilla county. These will be placed in the Walla Walla river and other local streams. Sixteen thousand more have been taken to Bingham springs and placed in a pond there.

Milton Eagle: A. Miller reports a yield of 15 crates of cherries from one tree on his place at Milton. At $1.25 a crate this tree was worth to its owner as much as the best acre of wheat that will be harvested in Umatilla county this year. A man who owns a hundred such trees can bid defiance to the gaunt wolves of poverty and hunger.

The cost of the new horse and cart amounted to $310. Toward paying for it, the O. R. & N. gave $100; the W. & C. R., $100; Hook & Ladder Co. $50; A. M. Gillis, $10; H. H. Curtis, $10; C. A. Barrett Co., $5; David Taylor, $15, and the balance by the city. The O. R. & N. Co. transported the cart and horse free of charge from Portland to Athena.

Adams Advance: Mrs. J. F. Adams together with her children, Misses Pauline and Helen, left Monday evening for McMinnville. They will visit there a short time and then go to the coast, where they will stay during the hot weather. It is their intention to take up their residence in Walla Walla upon their return, where Mrs. Adams lately purchased one of the neatest homes in that city.

Judge Fitzgerald, of Pendleton, suspended sentence in the case of Officer Armstrong, who was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct in using profane language. The judge said the officer was provoked into wrath and that from the evidence he thought it was an even break between the defendant and complaining witness.

JULY CLEARANCE SALE

continuing the entire month, we make the greatest slaughter of seasonal merchandise ever attempted east of the Cascades. We had made great addition to our stock for an immense Fourth of July trade, and doing away with the celebration left us with some kinds of drygoods and clothing that ought to be and must be sold. This is why. Come and see how.

Notions.—We are headquarters in small wares. Laces and Embroideries.—33 1/2 per cent off on laces and embroideries, and on such laces as we sell by the bolt or dozen yards. Hosiery and Underwear.—These are summer goods, and rather than carry over any part of them, we will cut prices on entire line. Summer Fabrics.—In any imaginable weave, reduced from 10	to 15 per cent, which means that some goods will be sold at one-half price. Muslin and Sheetings.—There is scarcely a time in the year when a housekeeper is not more or less in need of some or one of the above useful articles. So if you are interested in the Almighty Dollar, whether from the standpoint of earning or saving, you will be pleased with our prices.
