

Moved

I am now comfortably located in my new Store Building, Corner of Main and Second Streets. Two car loads of new goods have already arrived, which I now have set up, ready for your inspection. Another car load of new goods to arrive this week. I invite you to visit my new store. You see the nicest store and the finest assortment of house-furnishings to be found in Eastern Oregon. Come, whether you wish to buy or not. You are welcome

Miller, The Rustler

Press Paragraphs

German Dill pickles at Bagley's. New crop.

Fresh bluestone at the Pioneer drug-store.

Mrs. J. A. Henry is home from Riverside, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bell attended the Spokane fair.

Miss Eva McLean will attend Columbia college at Milton.

Miss Edna Rider was home from her school near Helix Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. T. Smith, living below Adams, have a new son.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nelson were up from the farm over Sunday.

Mr. Baldwin, of Walla Walla visited friends in this city over Sunday.

Chas. Betts and Commissioner Walker were over from Helix Wednesday.

Don't forget to attend the grand harvest ball at the opera house tonight.

Mrs. Wm. McBride and daughter Edith visited in Pendleton over Sunday.

Mr. Cushman, a Brownsville farmer, was in town this week, a guest of T. J. Kirk.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bannister have moved into their new home on Fifth street.

G. W. Bradley has returned from a visit to his homestead near Goldendale, Wash.

J. M. Young, a resident of Echo for 14 years, died Tuesday afternoon, aged 78 years.

Miss Freda Baruh, a small lady from Portland, visited at the Manasse home this week.

Miss Agnes Fletcher of Pendleton, was the guest this week of Mrs. J. D. Plamondon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown returned Wednesday from Spokane, where they spent a week.

Dr. Sharp is having a new sidewalk built in front of his residence property on Third street.

New line of stationery at Stone's Pioneer drugstore. Old stock will be closed out at cost.

Miss Jeannette Manasse returned last week from a month's pleasant visit with friends in Portland.

Chas. Gay is moving his stock into the McArthur building, recently vacated by N. A. Miller.

Attorney Peterson, J. N. B. Gerking and W. E. Potts are attending court in Pendleton this week.

Those interested in the organization of an athletic club will meet at Charley Gay's tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gross arrived home Sunday evening from Spokane, where they attended the fair.

Misses Ruby and Gerlie Burden and Clarence Burden have returned from an extended visit with friends in Washington.

The ladies of the M. E. church are busily engaged in work for their bazaar, which comes off in December.

Miss Eva Rider and her Sunday school class conducted a very successful "tea" at the M. E. parsonage last Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Pinkerton, Jr., who last week underwent an operation for appendicitis, is recovering nicely at her home.

Neil Titsworth has purchased the Eva Stafford cottage and two lots in the north part of town. Consideration, $275.

Grandma Waterman has returned from a summer's stay at Spokane and will spend the winter at her home in this city.

John Bell is seeding wheat land at the rate of 65 acres per day. His teams have been working on the place west of town.

Clayton Luna was awarded the cash prize of $5 as being the best dancer at Milton's grand harvest ball last Friday night.

Mrs. L. A. Githens has gone to California where she will spend the winter. She was accompanied by two of her daughters.

Subject at the M. E. church Sunday morning, "God Makes No Difference;" text, Romans, 3-22. Evening subject, "Faith;" text, Mark 9-13.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompkins returned Saturday from a week's stay at Spokane. They report a very enjoyable time in the Falls City.

While playing at school last week, Hugh Lieuallen received an injury about the face which necessitated his remaining at home for a few days.

The fixtures for the McKee saloon were sold at sheriff's sale Saturday afternoon. Jack Tomlinson of Umatilla, was the only bidder, his offer being $400.

Mrs. James Kern, of Helix, visited at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Vaughn, in this city this week. Mrs. Kern had been visiting her mother in Walla Walla.

The Knox-Kantner Concert Co. will appear in the Normal chapel in Weston, Friday evening, October 23, under the auspices of the Eastern Oregon State Normal school.

Fifteen freight cars were piled in the ditch at Huron station Tuesday morning. The wreck was caused by the train breaking in two and then coming together with great force.

On Mayor Taylor's place are three trees that makes one think of old Missouri. They are black walnut, and this year are loaded with nuts. The trees were planted eight years ago.

N. H. Pinkerton this week moved his effects to his homestead in Crook county and will begin the work of making a home there. Mrs. Pinkerton who is in Pendleton, will follow in a few days.

Harvey McDonald, who has been an anxiety to his friends in this city on account of having been so low with typhoid fever, is now on the fair road to recovery at his home in Walla Walla.

Columbia college, Milton, has opened with an enrollment of 100 for the first week. A department of elocution is soon to be added. The pledges of the endowment fund now amount to over $11,000.

Eugene Lorton, editor of the Wash-tuna Enterprise, is rising in the journalistic world. He is a close friend of Senator Ankeny, and will take charge of the senator's personal organ, the Walla Walla Union.

Dr. F. W. Vincent who has been prominently mentioned as a prospective candidate for mayor of the city of Pendleton, has definitely declined to accept the nomination or to be considered as a possibility for the position.

Mrs. E. L. Barnett and Mrs. Austin Foss are this week attending the grand lodge of the Rathbone Sisters, which convenes in Portland. Mrs. Foss goes as a delegate, and Mrs. Barnett as a member of the grand lodge.

Three prisoners have been sentenced this week to the penitentiary by Judge Ellis. They are, Basil Bushman, three and one-half years for horse stealing; Albert Nelson, robbery, three years; William Webb, theft of horse and buggy 18 months.

In the matter of photography, practical experience counts for much, but first class materials adds to tone and life-like effect. Only first-class materials are in use at the Umatilla Art Gallery under its present management. Prices are reasonable.

C. S. Wilks has started in to husk his large corn crop on the Coppock place south of town. Mr. Wilks says his corn will average 30 and 35 bushels per acre. He will have about 4000 bushels of corn and will fatten about 75 head of hogs for market.

The Press acknowledges a pleasant call from President French, of the Eastern Oregon Normal school Tuesday. The president reports the school in a most satisfactory condition, and avers that never in its history have prospects been so bright.

W. S. Buel has added an automatic horseshoeing stock to his shop equipment. It is a novelty in the matter of construction, being so adjusted that

A GOOD HARNESS AT RIGHT PRICES

Elskamp's new Harness Shop is stocked with everything in the Harness and Saddle line. Repairing neatly and promptly executed.

SHOP ON SOUTH SIDE OF MAIN STREET
H. J. ELSKAMP, PROPRIETOR

every working part is automatic. You press the button and the machine holds the horse with a vice-like grip.

Another carload of Wild Horse apples went out over the O. R. & N. from Athena Monday night, billed for Livingston, Mont. The shipment was made by Hopson & Martinson, who will make another shipment this week from Athena to some point on the Union Pacific.

W. P. Temple, a farmer living in the Despain gulch district, north of Pendleton, after spending $5,000 in boring wells, has at last struck a good flow of water at a depth of 75 feet. For 14 years he has hauled water from the Umatilla river, a distance of seven miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenzweig arrived home Monday evening from their homestead in Franklin county. Fred says things are all right up that way. He relates some hair-raising adventures during the trip. They stopped over in Walla Walla and visited numerous friends, over Sunday.

Grandma Fountain has so far recovered from her protracted illness from carbuncles, that she is able this week to visit her daughter, Mrs. John Harris at her home on Wild Horse creek. Mrs. Fountain contemplates a visit to her sons and daughter at Lewiston in the near future.

Christian church services are announced by the Pastor, J. W. Jenkins, as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m., preaching at 11 a. m., Junior meeting at 3 p. m., Christian Endeavor at 6:30, lecture at 7:30, midweek prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30, young peoples' prayer meeting Saturday evening at 7:30.

A. L. Jones, the expressman, is having a fine, light truck made down at Buel's blacksmith shop. The truck is being manufactured from the running gear of the vehicle that formerly was used by the St. Nichols hotel as a bus. It is a full platform spring truck and has been fitted with a crane connection that provides for short and quick turning.

The residents of Weston and the students of the normal school have arranged to entertain all the teachers free of charge during the county teachers' institute, to be held at Weston November 4, 5 and 6. County Superintendent Nowlin has completed the program and it is one of the most elaborate that has been rendered at similar occasions.

N. A. Miller has been doing business in his new building this week. Two carloads of furniture is already installed and a third is scheduled to arrive today or tomorrow. When the stock is complete there will be none larger in Umatilla county. The new store room will accommodate a large amount of goods which will be most effectively displayed.

Weston Leader: Some beautiful apples, large, red-cheeked and free from blemish, were on display at Culley's this week. Five of them were weighed and found to average a little over a pound each. They were raised at Edwin Simpson's place on Wild Horse creek three mile south of town, in which locality Milton packers have found the apples to be of excellent grade for shipment this year.

Austin Foss has returned from a trip to Portland and Crook county. He also stopped at Moro, Sherman county. In that county a company controls a large body of land that was given by the state years ago as a road grant. The company leases this exclusively, and while there Mr. Foss learned that the company preferred leasing land to men having had experience in farming land in Umatilla county, and to such the company was willing to give inducements in the way of selected locations.

Hood River Glacier: Rev. J. W. Jenkins has resigned as pastor of the Valley Christian church to accept a call from Athena, Or., and closed his labors in Hood River Sunday, Sept. 27th. Rev. Jenkins organized the Christian church in Hood River nine years ago September 4, and has been its pastor all that time. He began work at Athena Sunday, October 4. Mr. Jenkins has been one of Hood River's most highly respected citizens, and he has many friends outside of his own church who regret to see him leave. He parts with his work here reluctantly, and says he doesn't expect to find another Hood River. He will keep his home in Hood River, and if not suited elsewhere will know he can return.

School Report.

The following is the report for school district No. 45, for month beginning September 14 and ending October 9:

Whole number of days taught, 20; whole number of pupils enrolled, 20.

The following is a list of those who have neither been absent or tardy and who are especially noted for good scholarship:

Pearl and Harry Mosley, Pearl and Hattie Pinkerton, Lawrence and Floyd Pinkerton, Victor and Roy Burke, Ruth and Louis Stewart, Agnes, Maggie, Hattie and John Brookner, Dora, Zola and Floyd Ferris.

Lillian Downs Dobson, Teacher.

Umatilla Art Gallery

Tone and Life-like effect is What makes A good Photo. We give both.

THE BEST OF MATERIAL PERFECT SATISFACTION.

WE ARE AGENTS FOR PENDLETON WOOLEN xxBLANKETSxx

Ever hear of an Indian Cozy Corner?

Indian decoration is now the fad of the hour.

Indian atmosphere is easy to attain with Pendleton Blankets.

We have just received a varied assortment of these genuine Red Man's Robes and they will soon be on exhibition.

Not mere fanciful ornaments to lend a touch of luxury to the home! For coverlet, or couch cover, slumber robe or wrap, these soft, fleecy blankets are ideal. How their uses multiply! You'll think of a dozen others for yourselves.

The FAIR Store.

ED. MANASSE

CORNER MAIN AND THIRD STS.

Our Fall Stock is Now Complete
In Dress Goods We Show Latest
Styles with Trimmings to Match

UNDERWEAR In Muslin, Outing Flannel, etc
HOSIERY For all, in Wool and Cotton.
SHOES To suit the most fastidious; all sizes.
CURTAINS In Tapestry, Lace and Chenille.

Clothing Overcoats Shirts

Best Quality at Lowest Prices

ED. MANASSE

Agent for Butterick's Patterns.

See C. Sharp Paint, Oil, Glass, Varnish, Brushes, Etc. Plumbing
PENDLETON, OREGON.

.. RACES ..

AND

Live Stock Show

Walla Walla OCTOBER 19-24

Under the auspices of the

WALLA WALLA COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION
$10,000 Purses and Premiums.

NEW TRACK and GROUNDS

Built at a cost of $30,000.

BEST IN THE NORTHWEST

FASTEST HORSES HAVE

BEEN ENTERED.

Gigantic Live Stock Exhibition

Reduced Rates on All Railways.

Don't Fail to Attend.

JUDGE THOS. H. BRENTS, President.
R. B. CASWELL, Secretary.

Painless Dentistry

New York Methods used for performing Painless Operations.

Teeth Without Plates, Gold Crowns and Bridge Work.

The latest of these operations. This is the most satisfactory and permanent of all methods for preserving and replacing the Teeth.

Teeth Extracted Painless by an absolute safe, harmless and painless anesthetic. Don't cause sickness, sore mouth or bad after effects.

PLATES THAT FIT All artificial teeth guaranteed to fit and give perfect satisfaction. Prices reasonable; work warranted.

DR. SPONOGLE, Surgeon-Dentist, New York Dental School, University of Pennsylvania, Department of Dentistry.

Bank Building, - - Athena, Oregon.

THE ST. NICHOLS HOTEL

J. E. FROOME, PROP.

Only First-class Hotel in the City.

THE ST. NICHOLS

is the only one that can accommodate commercial travelers.

Can be recommended for its clean and well ventilated rooms.

COR. MAIN AND THIRD, ATHENA, OR.

The Department Store.

Our fall stock is now complete. We have added over $10,000 worth of new goods, and are confident of our ability to please. We invite you to call and inspect our stock, whether you wish to buy or not. We want you to see what your home town has to offer. We have everything, at prices that testify to buying for cash in large quantities

The Fair
THE PLACE TO SAVE MONEY

Where Whole Families Can Do Their Trading.

