Miller, The Rustler

Press Paragraphs

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carden, Nov. 9, 1903, a son.

Mrs. N. A. Miller and son, Roll, visited in Pendleton Saturday.

Louis Bergevin and family have moved to Pendleton, for the winter.

Byron Hawks is ill at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Willis Bush in this city.

Born, Sunday, Nov. 8, 1903, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scott, a daughter.

Mrs. Lillie Miller will take country produce in exchange for millinery goods.

Money to loan on real estate at low interest. Mountain land for sale.

J. M. Hayes, Athena.

Marion Mulkey, a young man who formerly resided here, is in Athena on a visit.

Mrs. Eva Boddy returned Wednesday from a week's visit with her daughter in Pendleton.

Mrs. Will Harden has been seriously ill for the past two weeks with a rising in the head.

Mr. Rihorn, of the real estate firm of Rihorn & Swaggart, Pendleton, was in town Tuesday.

Before buying your harness, saddle, or anything in the harness line, get W. C. Miller's prices.

Mrs. Owen desires all knowing themselves indebted to her for millinery goods to call at once and settle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nichols of Junction, Oregon, visited a couple of days this week at the E. L. Barnett home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Turner were in the city yesterday from Weston, and took dinner with Mrs. H. O. Worthington.

Mrs. Mays arrived this week from Dayton, Wash., and is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Barnett.

Chas. H. Carter, the Pendleton attorney, was thrown from a buggy while driving Sunday and considerably injured.

Mrs. C. Waterman has a few cedar posts to sell cheap, also a dining table, two rocking chairs and half barrel with vinegar.

Mr. Dick Martin and family, of Harney, are in the city and will rent a house and winter here. Mr. Martin is a brother of Mrs. Winship.

The "kids" of Athena were delighted Monday and again Tuesday morning, with the first snow of the season. However it soon melted away.

Lon Williams was over from Milton, near which place he resides, Monday. Mr. Williams did not operate his steam threshing outfit this season.

An agent for Miller & Sons, nurserymen of Milton, was in town Tuesday delivering fruit trees and shrubs on orders given some time ago. About 30 different farmers were recipients of fruit trees. Thus the orchards around Athena multiply in number.

At the meeting of Pythian Lodge No. 29, K. of P. next Thursday night there will be work in the knight and esquire ranks, to be followed by a banquet.

Mrs. Lillie Miller offers a reduction in price in all hats and millinery goods. Special attention given to orders for pattern hats and retrimming of hats.

Mrs. Lizzie Jones offers her fall and winter ready-to-wear hats at cost, from now on through the season. Trimming to order and making over hats a specialty.

Owing to the high price of feed, during the months of December, January, February and March, Caton's Dairy will sell milk at $2.00 per month, per quart.

G. C. Osburn offers his household goods at private sale. Furniture and other articles are in first class condition and will be sold reasonable. Investigate at once.

Mrs. G. C. Osburn arrived Sunday from Portland, and is disposing of her household goods, preparatory to returning to that city, where they will spend the winter.

J. B. Lister, of Eugene, secretary of the Oregon Christian Missionary society will occupy the pulpit in the Christian church Sunday morning. Evening services as usual.

Mrs. F. F. Spaulding, of The Dalles, a lady prominently identified with the interests of the State Federation of clubs, was in the city yesterday, a guest of Mrs. E. R. Cox.

There is nothing more appropriate for a holiday present than giving your photograph to a friend. Orders for holiday trade are now being taken by Miss Stackland of the Umatilla Art gallery.

George Bannister and Maggie Bannister, his wife, have petitioned the court to be permitted to legally adopt Helen Russell, the little daughter of Theodore Russell of Spokane, and Blanche Russell, deceased.

The Press neglected last week to announce the arrival of a son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Marquis. However, it was plainly evident that something unusual had happened, by George's perpetual smile.

Page & Stamper, painters, have leased a room in the Swaggart block on Third street for a paint shop. They are well known in the community as good painters and are prepared to do first class work at reasonable prices.

Next week Attorney Peterson will have carpenters at work on a new office building. Mr. Peterson's new office will be located on Main street, just east of the Fair store. In size it will be 24x15 feet and will contain two rooms.

Another carload of apples from Wild Horse was shipped from Athena this week. The car went out Monday evening over the O. R. & N. and was consigned by the Walla Walla Fruit Co. to a commission firm in Grand Forks, S. D.

A special feature of the Baptist Ladies' fair at the opera house Saturday evening, Nov. 14, will be a "Ladies'

Home Journal" booth. This will be a first class art exhibit, displayed in a booth which in itself will be a thing of beauty.

W. D. Snyder, a practical painter, has leased the Swaggart paint shop formerly occupied by J. W. Chapman. He is prepared to do first class house painting, decorating and paper hanging, and makes a specialty of high-class buggy and carriage painting.

The high wind Wednesday played havoc with fences, sheds etc. in this vicinity. The club house of the Athena gun club was blown several feet and demolished. Numerous windmills are out of kilter, also; but not the one the Press man referred to some time ago.

Angus McDonald is over from his Couese creek ranch and if the importunities of his friends will have any effect, will spend the winter here. He has been in ill health for some months and is under the care of Dr. Best, of Weston. He is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Worthington.

Dr. Anderson and wife of The Dalles, will arrive in the city tomorrow and will be guests of Mrs. E. L. Barnett. Mrs. Anderson is a cousin of Mr. Barnett and a sister of Miss Mae Barnett who recently visited here. Dr. Anderson is a dentist and comes here with the intention of engaging in his profession.

Little Helen the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pittsworth, one day this week got hold of a can of concentrated lye, and with the usual perversity of babyhood, attempted to eat some of the fiery stuff. Her lips and mouth were badly burned, but fortunately none went down her throat. Grease and vinegar were immediately applied and the little one soon recovered.

As a result of the efforts of Principal M. L. Watts, the Athena public school is again on the credit list of the State university at Eugene. Mr. Watts is pushing the Athena school to the front in a manner that is thorough and permanent. He is of the opinion that at least two students in the high school will take advantage of the university credits and attend next year.

The Friday Afternoon club held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Minnie DePeatt, last Friday. Selections from Oregon history were read by Mesdames Watts, Jarman and Cox. Mrs. A. C. McIntyre entertained the ladies by reading "Sagajawes," in a most pleasing manner. Four new members were added to the club, which now enrolls about fifty in membership.

Earl, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. King was taken to Walla Walla by his parents last week to be treated for a case of blood poisoning. An eruption of the skin was noticed on his cheek, which soon spread to the eyes, resulting in a badly swollen face. The little fellow is improving and no danger is now apprehended of injury to the eyesight.

John King had an experience with a runaway team, east of town Monday, while returning from Weston. The neck-yoke strap came off in front of old "Jerry" and of course something was doing. John and the hack seat were dumped together to the ground and the team hiked for the barn. In passing down Main street, Dell Bros. delivery horse became frightened and took a hand in the spin. It ran up Third street and was captured before any damage resulted.

The Ridenour property, formerly known as the McArthur place, in the city of Weston, is now offered for sale. This fine property consists of 325 feet frontage, 200 feet length, with running water which never fails skirting back of lots. A good dwelling and convenient outhouses are upon the place, also one of the finest orchards in the country, as well as invaluable evergreen shade trees. Situated as it is one block from Main street and in the most desirable part of the city, this is considered by all the finest residence property in the city of Weston, an ideal home in a good school town. For price and terms, see JOHN H. RIDENOUR, Weston, Oregon.

Athena Will Be in it.

Manager Edward Shields, of the Shields Circuit Co., who has just established another opera house in Baker City, has made arrangements to add Athena to the list which will now include Portland, Baker City, La Grande, Pendleton, The Dalles, Athena, Walla Walla and Lewiston. Beginning Saturday, Nov. 21, the entire Shields company will be seen in Athena every Saturday night during the winter, with a new company each time. They will open with LaVerne's Big Vaudeville show. Prices of admission will be 25, 35 and 50 cents. Handsome and useful presents will also be given away free. No doubt of a big success.

GERKING FLAT "FLATS."

A. M. Gillis of Athena and Mr. Lewis, of La Grande, had business up the Flat Thursday.

Wilbur Wood, the Waterman pedagogue, was a visitor at the Gerking home Sunday.

Chas. Gerking made a business trip to Walla Walla Monday.

The Dickenson boys have brought their cattle from the mountain range on Canas Prairie, to their ranch at the head of the Flat, where they will winter them.

J. N. B. Gerking attended the irrigation convention at Pendleton Monday and Tuesday.

Athena's Big Department Store.

IF YOU TRADE here you won't want your money back. Barg is not good business, but a modest man may tell the truth. From the first day this store opened for business in Athena it has enjoyed a steady growth. Each month better than the previous. Each year a gain of from 50 to 60 per cent over the year preceding it. And now the beginning of our year's business in your midst we think we can say without fear of contradiction that we have the largest business with the smallest expense of any store in Umatilla County. Predictions that this store was short life amongst you were often heard. Some were kind enough to give us six months. Others not so long. Some said we were way out of town, and various other reasons why we were soon to go. The predictions were usually heard from competitors—not customers, and as you all can see have come to naught. We came here because we had faith in Athena. We came here with a determination to lower prices. We came here to convince you that the Cash Store can and does sell cheaper, and today you never hear our friends say the FAIR IS TOO FAR AWAY. No, no; they never think of that, as they have all learned that it's a profitable walk.

FOR ONE WEEK ONLY

Commencing Saturday, Oct. 24, and ending Saturday, Oct. 31. This will interest you—we will sell the very best grade of 10c Outing Flannels in all colors for 7c per yard. Also our great 20c Heavy Fleece Ladies' Hose 2 pair for 26c. Men's and Boys Clothing and Overcoats—for one week we will give a 10 per cent off on our Clothing.
