VICTORIOUS JAPAN

The latest reports received says the Japanese forces have landed in Manchuria and are marching along the Manchurian railroad. The Japanese blew up the railroad bridge over the Yalu river. The railroad has been destroyed for miles.

The Russian fleet is practically destroyed, four battleships and three big cruisers being sunk. Two Japanese warships were damaged in the engagement Wednesday off Port Arthur. The Japanese got between the Russians and the entrance to the harbor before the fight commenced.

excellent numbers, among which were the following: A violin solo by Mr. Albert Bales; song by High School quartette; reading by Mrs. Florence Alloway; by special request, vocal solo "The Holy City," by Miss Lois Peebles of Weston; bass solo by Mr. Joseph Scott. During the serving of refreshments numerous toasts were responded to in a happy and entertaining manner. The rooms were elaborately decorated in the club colors, pink and green. Altogether, a more enjoyable or successful function has not recently occurred in Athens social circles, and the ladies are to be congratulated upon the happy results of their efforts on this occasion. The evening's pleasures closed with the singing of the club song by the entire company.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The popular Whitman College Glee club will appear at the opera house February 24. The club will give one of its high-class entertainments which always please Athena people. A portion of the proceeds will go for the benefit of the Athena public school base ball team which is making splendid progress under the management of Mr. Marcus.

Miss Cannon is in Pendleton taking teacher's examination. Mrs. M. L. Watts has the fourth and fifth grades during her absence.

Teachers and pupils feel highly elated over the favorable comments made relative to the display sent recently to Superintendent Nowlin to be forwarded to the St. Louis exposition. A much better showing could have been presented had more time been allowed, as in the case of the Pendleton school. The splendid display made by the Athena school was rushed through hurriedly in a week's time.

A large number of pupils have been absent this week on account of sickness and inclement weather.

During the bad weather pupils took advantage of the library room, during recess and the noon hour, and as a rule their time is profitably occupied.

Mrs. Sparrow and Miss Elsa Rosenzweig, teachers, are in Pendleton today.

Resolutions.

We the committee on resolutions of Mignonette Rebekah Lodge No. 88, I. O. O. F., submit the following:

Whereas, it has pleased the Divine Father to remove from their home the beloved brother of Sister Mary Worthington, and

Whereas, the sorrow that prevades the home seems unbearable, therefore be it,

Mr. Haw is giving entire satisfaction to Athena horsemen, everyone of whom speak highly of his qualifications as a horseman.

Athena favors retention of the post at Walla Walla. Yesterday's Union says: "In a letter addressed to the president and the vice-president of the First National bank of Athens, Senator Mitchell says he and Senator Foster have been unable so far to induce the secretary of war to conform with their wishes, and mentions Senator Ankeny's amendment to the appropriation bill. While promising to do all in his power to have the post retained, he says that the war department seems impressed with belief in its amendment."

Pendleton Tribune: Mrs. Rebecca J. Corley died at St. Anthony's hospital Tuesday night with a complication of diseases. The deceased was aged 44 years. About ten days ago Mrs. Corley arrived in the city from Lebanon, Oregon, to attend the bedside of her son. She arrived just a day before his death. The loss of her son prayed heavily on Mrs. Corley, and that, together with her illness, proved too much for her and she gradually grew weaker until death came.

The reception and banquet given by the Saturday Afternoon club last Friday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Anderson, in this city, was a most brilliant success. About 35 guests were present. The program consisted of some follows a cold, but never follows the use of

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

It stops the cough and heals the lungs and prevents a cold from settling on your lungs and resulting in Pneumonia, Pleurisy, or Consumption.

You are in no danger of serious results if FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is taken, as it soothes and heals the inflamed air passages and the cough disappears.

Be sure and get FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, as preparations containing opiates stop the cough temporarily by paralyzing the nerves in the throat and leave the germs of serious lung trouble and you get one cold on another because the first one was not cured perfectly.

Saved Her Life From Pneumonia. "My wife had a severe attack of Pneumonia which followed a severe attack of La Grippe and I believe that FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR saved her life," writes James Coffey, of Raymond, Missouri.

Cured When Very Low With Pneumonia. J. W. Bryan, of Lower, Ill., writes: "My little boy was very low with Pneumonia. Unknown to the doctor we gave him FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. The result was magical and puzzled the doctor, as it immediately stopped the racking cough and he quickly recovered."
