New and Stylish Shoes
For Ladies and Gentlemen. Just what you have been looking for. They fit and do not hurt your feet.

ED. MANASSE
Agent for Bosterick’s Patterns,
Corner Main and Third Sts.

THE DELL BROTHERS Groceries, Crockery, Gents’ Furnishings
All of which we will be pleased to show you
South Side Main Street, Athena, Oregon

ED. MANASSE
CORNER MAIN AND THIRD STS.

ATHENA PRES.
VOLUME XVI.
ATHENA, UMATILLA COUNTY, OREGON, TUESDAY, APRIL 5, 1904.
NUMBER 20

ED. MANASSE

ATHENA, UMATILLA COUNTY, OREGON

ATHENA PRESS.

TWICE-A-WEEK
PUBLISHED EVERY SUNDAY AND FRIDAY

TWIN WHISKEY KETTLE WITH A BALE PATE

Wagon Captured By Current—News in Current—Struggling Milledon Reel

Eve H. McDonald was drowned in Multnomah river Wednesday afternoon in a five minute fight with her twin sister near Multnomah and Five Points. She was being able to make a sail on the city, but was struggling against the river. She was wearing a silk skirt, a suit, and a large apple. Her twin sister was near her and was able to save her. The twins were known as Milledon.

A Boy Falls to His Death

Thursday, April 4—A Neighborhood child, who has been infatuated with the idea of swimming, was drowned while playing in the river on Tuesday evening. The child was identified as John Smith, aged seven years. The funeral was held at the Church of the Good Shepherd, the services taking place at 10 o’clock, after which the body was removed to the city cemetery. The body was accompanied by the family and friends, who were drawn by a horse-drawn carriage.

SOME OUTSTANDING EVENTS OF THE WEEK

The business community of Athena is feeling the effects of the current depression, which has been experienced throughout the nation. Many businesses have been forced to close their doors,
resulting in the loss of many jobs. The situation is expected to improve in the near future.

SOME OF THE NEWS

A. Thompson

Jonesville, Oregon

The funeral of A. Thompson, who passed away recently, was held at the Church of the Good Shepherd. The service was conducted by Rev. E. R. Smith, and the body was removed to the city cemetery. The family and friends were accompanied by the horse-drawn carriage.

SOME OF THE NEWS

The business community of Athena is feeling the effects
of the current depression, which has been experienced throughout the nation. Many businesses have been forced to close their doors,
resulting in the loss of many jobs. The
situation is expected to improve in the near future.

SOME OUTSTANDING EVENTS OF THE WEEK

The business community of Athena is feeling the effects
of the current depression, which has been experienced throughout the nation. Many businesses have been forced to close their doors,
resulting in the loss of many jobs. The situation is expected to improve in the near future.

SOME OF THE NEWS

A. Thompson

Jonesville, Oregon

The funeral of A. Thompson, who passed away recently, was held at the Church of the Good Shepherd. The service was conducted by Rev. E. R. Smith, and the body was removed to the city cemetery. The family and friends were accompanied by the horse-drawn carriage.

SOME OF THE NEWS

The business community of Athena is feeling the effects
of the current depression, which has been experienced throughout the nation. Many businesses have been forced to close their doors,
resulting in the loss of many jobs. The
situation is expected to improve in the near future.

SOME OUTSTANDING EVENTS OF THE WEEK

The business community of Athena is feeling the effects
of the current depression, which has been experienced throughout the nation. Many businesses have been forced to close their doors,
resulting in the loss of many jobs. The situation is expected to improve in the near future.

SOME OF THE NEWS

A. Thompson

Jonesville, Oregon

The funeral of A. Thompson, who passed away recently, was held at the Church of the Good Shepherd. The service was conducted by Rev. E. R. Smith, and the body was removed to the city cemetery. The family and friends were accompanied by the horse-drawn carriage.