Press Paragraphs

Mrs. M. L. Watts is recovering from her recent illness.

H. C. Whiteman was in town yesterday from Walla Walla.

G. W. Bradley, the grain buyer, was in Pendleton Wednesday.

Dan May, the contractor, was up from Pendleton yesterday.

Pleasure awaits you at the Pythian ball in Weston February 17.

Patronize home industry—"American Beauty" flour, $1.30 per sack.

Joe Lewis, an old timer of Weston and vicinity was in town Wednesday.

Wm. Koontz of Walla Walla, is in the city visiting his mother and brothers.

D. H. Preston returned Wednesday from a visit to Hot Lake and Baker City.

Frank K. Welles, county school superintendent, visited the Athena school last Wednesday.

Dr. Eve Hoisington, Osteopath. At Athena Hotel Wednesdays and Saturdays. Consultation invited.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Sanders were in Pendleton Wednesday, having gone down to witness the marriage of their daughter.

John Foss, wife and baby arrived in town last night from Moro, Sherman county. They will visit relatives here for some time.

Mrs. Katie Stump announces that she is agent for the "R. M. Ball Improved Washer." See her and prove merits of this excellent machine.

Mrs. Maxwell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles Garrett for several weeks, left Wednesday evening for her home in the Willamette valley.

"Don't brush by, but stop and buy a brush," are the words on a placard in a show window at the Barrett Hardware store. The card is the centerpiece of a fine display of brushes.

M. L. Watts yesterday moved into the Barnett property. The house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Watts will immediately be occupied by Mr. James Henderson and his sister, Mrs. Howe.

Trueman M. Dennis, who has been here the past several months assisting in the installation of the electric light system, left Wednesday for Reardan, Wash. where a new electric light plant is to be put in.

Perhaps the best window display to be found among the Athena stores this week is at Worthington & Thompson's White House Grocery. Canned goods are tastefully arranged and the artistic effect is very pronounced.

Arnold & Jack will be ready to operate their machine shop the fore part of the coming week. The force of men at the shop has been engaged in putting in the machinery in readiness for some time, and also the blacksmithing department.

Christian church services Sunday as follows: Bible school at 10 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Junior meeting at 8 p. m.; Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Sermon subjects: Morning—"The Holy Spirit"; evening—"The Sevenfold Cord of Sin."

Stevens Lodge No. 49, K. of P., will give an anniversary ball at the Weston opera house, Friday evening, February 17. Music by McMinn's orchestra. The Rathbone Sisters will serve supper in the castle hall. Weston knights will leave nothing undone to insure enjoyment for all who come.

The first one of five carloads of vehicles and farm machinery ordered by C. A. Barrett & Co. for this season's trade arrived this week. The shipment received consists of gang plows and the famous Henny line of buggies and carriages. Some exceptionally high-grade rubber tired buggies are in the lot, also one of the finest carriages ever seen in Athena.

Bruce Wallace's Pioneer drug store has been greatly enhanced in its good appearance by a fresh coat of bright yellow paint. The effect is strikingly handsome on the interior of the store. Yellow is to be the trade mark color of the Pioneer. Hereafter all stationery, and even the wrapping paper, will be of that color.

Ely & Scott, the grocers, have leased the Barrett store room, formerly occupied by the First National Bank, and announce that they will inaugurate a big removal sale Monday morning next. The sale will last through the month of February, and prices will be low enough to insure the cleaning up of the stock now on hand.

The lady members of Excelsior Temple, Rathbone Sisters, took occasion last evening while the Knights were busy at their castle hall, to have a good time "all by themselves." To the number of about 20, they invaded the premises of Mrs. Robert Tharp, to the complete surprise of that lady, and made merry the evening.

On Tuesday night, Feb. 14, there will be a special meeting of the Athena Commercial association. At this meeting an amendment to the constitution will be voted on that will change the meeting night to Tuesday instead of Wednesday. The amendment also provides for two regular meeting nights in each month, the first and third Tuesdays.

The county superintendent of schools, Frank K. Welles, has arranged for a local teachers' institute to be held at Weston, Saturday afternoon. All teachers within easy reach are expected to attend. Subjects of current interest are to be considered, including "The Employment of Teachers," "The School Exhibit for the Lewis and Clark Fair," etc. Athena will be well represented.

Miss Cora Davison was pleasantly and completely surprised Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Colbern, by a number of her young friends who had assembled to celebrate her 15th birthday, at the invitation of Mrs.

Colbern. Some unique features of entertainment had been prepared for the amusement of the young folks, and light refreshments were served.

P. H. Tiedemann came up from Portland this morning and today will dispose of his residence property in this city to Samuel Hutt. The flat in which Mr. and Mrs. Tiedemann reside in Portland was broken into the other day and two little house dogs were stolen.

Wednesday, February 1, 1906, the marriage of Mr. Starr Charlton and Miss Eva Sanders, both of this city, was solemnized at the hour of 5 o'clock in the afternoon, in the parlors of the Hotel Bickers, in Pendleton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. A. Copple, in the presence of the immediate family and friends. The groom is a well known and popular young man of this city, and the bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Sanders, who reside in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Charlton arrived in Athena on the 7 o'clock train, and left immediately for the Sanders farm, where they will make their home.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected grave trouble is ahead unless you take the proper medicine for your disease. Mrs. John A. Young, Clay, N. Y., says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by McBride, at 50c a bottle.

Beautiful eyes and handsome face are eloquent commendations. Bright eyes are windows to a woman's heart. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes bright eyes. 35c, Tea or Tablets. Pioneer drug store.

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of medicines which have been successful curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection to you is our name on the wrapper. Look for it on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada. For sale by McBride.

Are You Restless at Night and harassed by a bad cough? Use Ballard's Horehound Syrup, it will secure you sound sleep and effect a prompt and radical cure. 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by McBride.

Health

means the ability to do a good day's work without undue fatigue and to find life worth living. You cannot have indigestion or constipation without its upsetting the liver and polluting the blood. Such a condition may be best and quickest obtained by Herbine, the best liver regulator that the world has ever known. Mrs. D. W. Smith writes April 3, 1902: "I use Herbine and find it the medicine for constipation and regulating the liver I ever used." Price 50 cents. Sold by McBride.
