Richard Wright and Ed Foster were Weston visitors Saturday evening.

Henry Schmitt went over to Walla Walla on yesterday morning's train.

Mrs. Will McCollum has been ill at her home on 6th street the past week.

Mrs. Zerba is spending the week in the country at the home of her daughter.

A meeting of the Caledonian society will be held at the city hall Saturday night.

Mrs. John Stanton and Mrs. Alf. Johnson spent Sunday with friends at Pendleton.

Charles Ferguson, the genial territorial artist, will leave for Seattle Sunday night.

Edward Koontz offers his household goods for sale, among them some choice pieces of furniture.

Dr. Eve Hoisington, Osteopath. At Athena Hotel Wednesdays and Saturdays. Consultation invited.

Those wishing optical work done, should remember that this is Dr. and Mrs. Roberts' last week here.

Don't forget tomorrow Mrs. Lillie Miller will open a fine line of street hats, trimmings, ribbons, novelties, etc.

The Umatilla Lumber Yard has just received the 1905 samples of Alfred Peat's Wall paper. Call and inspect them.

Harry Rosenzweig came down Friday from Franklin county. He will drive back a number of horses to pasture on his farm there.

Mrs. Chas. Booher and family have gone out to the farm of Otha Reeder to take charge of the cooking department during seeding, plowing, etc.

Mrs. P. E. Colbern has received intelligence of the death of her father, at his home in Missouri. He died at the ripe age of 85 years, lacking one month.

A game of ball was played Sunday between a couple of pick-up nines from Weston and Athena. The game resulted in a victory for Weston by a score of 9 to 6.

Ed Koontz has gone to Crook county to investigate a land proposition, and from there expects to go to Portland, where he will later be joined by Mrs. Koontz.

Saturday afternoon, weather permitting, the Athena and Pendleton high school teams will cross bats on the home grounds. Both are good teams and are capable of putting up a good game of ball.

Mrs. O. C. Beck Sr., who has been for some weeks sojourning on her homestead near Eltopis, Wash., is expected home. Mrs. Beck has been afflicted with the mumps during her stay on the farm.

Fred Rosenzweig is taking an enforced vacation from his duties in the Athena Mercantile Co.'s grocery department. While lifting Saturday he suffered a wrench of the back which has laid him up for a day or two.

A new sign decorates D. B. Jarman's new store. "Jarman's Department Store" is the announcement made in large white letters on a black background with yellow border. The letters are prominent and attract attention at a long distance.

Mrs. A. A. Foss has received a letter from Misses Carrie and Dolly Bloch in Spokane, stating that the health of the latter is slowly improving and that as soon as her condition will permit she will be brought down to Hot Lake in Union county, for treatment.

Normal correspondent in Weston Leader: Frozen nearly to death and handed a bunch of goose eggs, was about the only reward the Normals got out of the base ball game with Athena last Saturday. We hope to do better when a return game is played on the Normal grounds.

Jerry Swart, who has been operator and assistant agent at the O. R. & N. station in this city for a long time has been promoted and is now agent for the company at Adams. C. C. Walters, who has been stationed at Burke, Idaho, will be given the position vacated by Mr. Swart here.

The third annual ball given by the Athena Fire department last Friday evening was a great success, as have been the former functions given under the auspices of the organization. Sixty-two tickets were sold and a large number of young people were in attendance at the ball.

Mr. L. K. Kerbaugh, business manager for the Pendleton Tribune, was in the city yesterday on a short business visit. Mr. Kerbaugh reports the Tribune as flourishing. The mechanical plant is being greatly improved, three presses and a paper cutter being now on the way from the factory.

John P. McManus, the Irish editor of the Pilot Rock Record, celebrated St. Patrick's Day in the morning by taking unto himself a partner for life. In Salem, Friday, Mr. McManus and Ida McAllister were united in marriage. The Press extends its best wishes. We have no regrets to offer. It serves Wood right to be left alone out of the fold.

WE ARE READY!

Our new Blacksmith and Machine Shop is now in full operation and we are prepared to do all kinds of blacksmithing and repair work. This is the

and we are giving special attention to sharpening Plow Shares. We have an expert who does the work by the trip-hammer process, which is a great improvement over the old hand system, the work being more uniform and even. Give us a trial.

Our Big Machine Shop

is equipped with machines capable of doing jobs from the very smallest to the kind that heretofore has been going to Walla Walla and Portland; and these are the jobs we are after. No piece of work too difficult for us to handle. Bring you job to us.
