Press Paragraphs

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Lucas, July 4, 1905, a son.

G. M. Brotherton made a trip to Walla Walla yesterday.

Wm. Whitlock celebrated July 4 by selling four horses in Wallula at good prices.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Taylor, Miss Edna and Irene Dudley, spent the 4th at Bingham Springs.

Mrs. Emma Joice, Mrs. Brant and Mrs. Chas. Standfield, of Weston, were in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Minnie DePeatt is in Walla Walla, where she is receiving medical treatment for throat trouble.

Misses Leta Edington and Georgia Hansell are visiting at the home of Mrs. Frank King east of town.

Athena boys, en masse, bled them away to the Umatilla river and spent the 4th in true Bohemian style.

Mrs. James Feeler is down from her home in Washington on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Boeber.

Mr. and Mrs. Starr Charlton have returned from a lengthy sojourn at their timber claim near Meacham.

Mrs. Stafford left this week for the valley, where she will spend the summer with friends and visit the fair.

Mrs. Claude Reeder has returned from an extended visit with relatives and friends at McMinnville and Portland.

The city will purchase three more fire hydraulics which are to be lo-cated on the water mains by the fire and water committee.

Mrs. G. C. Osburn writes Athena friends that she will meet them "on the Trail," having left her home in La Grande last Monday.

Master Emory Worthington Athena's juvenile sprinter easily captured the laurels in the boy's foot race at the Adams celebration.

Claude Reeder recently made a trip to Walla Walla with his automobile. The roads were in good condition and the trip was made in record time.

The usual services at the Methodist church next Sabbath. Preaching at 11 a. m., and 8 p. m.; Sabbath school at 10 a. m. and Epworth League at 7 p. m.

Anyone wishing information con-cerning a young cow between 2 and 3 years old, brand W and perhaps D on left hip, can receive information by calling at the Press office.

Mrs. Hutchinson, of Utica, New York, is the guest of her brother, C. A. Barrett. Mrs. Hutchinson has been touring in Mexico and California and is on her return home, where her hus-band is identified with Cornell Uni-versity, holding the chair of mathe-matics.

David Ashbaugh, an old resident of this county, but now living at Arling-ton, is in the city, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Sanders. Mrs. Ash-paugh also accompanies him.

While returning from the celebra-tion at Adams Tuesday evening, the fine driving horse owned by J. W. Davis scoured at the train and jumped into a barb wire fence, receiving severe cuts.

Athena did herself proud in her at-tendance at the celebration of the 4th by our little sister town, Adams. Many took advantage of the mixed train and went down at noon, return-ing in the evening.

Will M. Peterson, Athena's young attorney, has won his first case in the supreme court. The Taylor divorce case appealed from the circuit court has been decided in favor of Mr. Peterson's client, Moses Taylor.

Mrs. Wm. McBride, her daughters Edyth and Farrell, and Miss Eva Rider, leave this evening for Port-land, here they will visit the fair, and next week will go to Seaside for an outing on Clatsop beach, before re-turning home.

C. O. Henry and Will McCollum have purchased a half section of farm land near Weiser, Idaho. They made their second trip to that locality last week. Mr. Henry returned home Wednesday and Mr. McCollum pro-ceeded on to Portland.

Daniel Prendergast of Weston has leased the brick store room owned by J. E. Froome and will conduct a first class bakery here. The city council has given Mr. Prendergast permission to construct an oven with-in the precincts of the established fire limits.

Mrs. Willis Bush, who is at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fanny Wright, in Walla Walla, is reported as not so well as heretofore, and Mr. Bush and Miss Gladys are in at-tendance upon her. Mrs. Hardy Mansfield returned from Walla Walla Wednes-day and reports Mrs. Bush somewhat improved since the first of the week.

The first automobile that ever went down the Ryan grade was driven by A. Kunkel, of Pendleton. A couple of weeks ago with his wife and child-ren he safely descended the grade in a Cadillac machine. It is considered quite a feat, though in this instance the machine glided safely down the long, rocky road.

Joseph Rainville and family have returned from a three week's visit with relatives at Nez Perce and Lew-iston. Mr. Rainville is well pleased with the country up there, and the family making the journey overland enjoyed the trip very much. The Rainville boys, who left here some years ago, are doing well at Nez Perce and the health of Grandma Rainville has considerably improved of late.

The Junior and Epworth Leagues of the Methodist church will give a lawn social at the home of Mr. Wm. Tomp-kins Tuesday evening, July 11th. Home-made and factory ice cream and cake will be served. Ice cream and cake 10 cents. The proceeds will be applied on church indebtedness. Every one is invited.

Last Saturday witnessed a general dogra of Athena people to the Port-land fair. Among those who went were Mrs. Willaby and daughter Golda, Misses Mae and Lula Gross, Mrs. J. W. Jenkins and son Wilfred and John Davison and daughter Cora. Mr. Davison expects to make his home in the valley.

Ira Kemp lost his fine pointer pup, "Pat," last evening by the poison route. Poison scattered promiscu-ously for the purpose of killing cats is said to be the source from which the dog got the killing dose. The pup was a valuable one, bred from the purple blood lines of the famous Eng-lish pointer strains.

Miss Dolly Bloch of Spokane, who for months has been an invalid, passed through Athena on last evening's train for Hot Lake, Union county. The young lady was accompanied by her sister Miss Carrie, and her uncle, Julius Levy, of Walla Walla. Many Athena friends gathered at the station to greet Miss Bloch.

J. W. Jenkins, who has been at-tending the convention of the Oregon Christian Missionary Society at Turner, will return today and hold serv-ices Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Jenkins had the honor of being elected president of the society for the coming year. The churches in the state had a net gain of 1000 members during the past year and the conven-tion of the society was the best in its history.

Grandfather's time has come, when he can have his day; When he can get one cabinet photo for 25 cents to pay. All through the month of July this proposition will last. So to Danner's photo gallery you had better hike pretty fast.

Resolutions.

Hall of Mignonette Rebekah Lodge, No. 88.

Whereas, Our sister, Mary Foster, has been called upon to suffer the loss of a dear brother who has departed this life in the prime of manhood, therefore be it

Resolved, That although our sym-athy is deep and heartfelt, yet for true consolation we would recommend our sister to look to the never failing source of comfort, that higher Power from whence cometh our help in every time of need.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the local paper for publication, a copy be ten-dered our sister as a token of our sym-athy, and a copy be spread on the records of the lodge.

Mary Gross,
Sadie Buel,
Jennie Watts,

Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney dis-ease as that of C. F. Collier, of Chero-kee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair with-out a cushion; and suffered from dreadful headache, backache and de-pression. In Electric Bitters, how-ever, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recom-mend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by McBride, druggist. Price 50c.
