

Early Shipments of NEW FALL GOODS Arriving Daily

New Goods

Fall styles in men's clothes in a large variety of fabrics, weaves and patterns; in double and single breasted. All out of the shop of the best clothes makers. These clothes are up to date in every respect, and are offered at prices that are governed by quality. Style and fit are in every garment. The is as correct as the $20 one.

$10.00 SUIT

New Styles MEN'S OVERCOATS

This is the day of the big coat of generous proportions. The "Skimpy" and ill fitting coat has long disappeared; instead we have the great coat with broad shoulders, roomy sleeves and generous skirts. 52x54 inch is not too long for the average man. They are handsome, these coats; comfortable and reasonably priced.

John Armstrong, the father of Mrs. Wm. McBride, arrived in the city last evening from his home at Lookout, Idaho, and will visit his daughter here for an indefinite time.

B. F. Ogle and son, John, came in Wednesday evening from Ridge. They brought their personal effects from the stock ranch recently sold by Mr. Ogle to Robt. Stanfield of Echo.

O. G. Chamberlain has sold the Curtis property on lower Main street, consisting of building and lot and four lots on Current street, to F. S. Le Grow. Consideration $1,200.

The two months old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar McNeil, who reside on the A. B. McEwen place north of town, died Wednesday. Interment took place in the Athena cemetery today.

Mrs. I. M. Kemp left yesterday morning for Portland, where she will visit friends and attend the last few days of the fair. She will be joined by her brother, Mr. Mraz, of Colton, Wash.

Mignonette Lodge, Order of Rebekahs, enjoyed a visit last evening from their grand president, Mrs. Fraser. Two young ladies were initiated into the order, and a banquet was served by the ladies.

The Pendleton team won the prize in the contest at the meeting of K. of P. grand lodge in Portland, Wednesday night. Teams from Astoria, Salem, Cottage Grove and Forest Grove competed for the prize.

Does the label on your can of baking powder say it is the "Pure Cream of Tartar Kind"? Cleveland's is the pure cream of tartar baking powder as stated on each label and vouched for by the U. S. government chemists.

Good advice to women. If you want a beautiful complexion, clean skin, bright eyes, red lips, good health, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. There is nothing like it 35c Tea or Tablets. Pioneer drug store.

The condition of Gus Thompson, who is ill with typhoid fever, is considered critical in the extreme. The patient is very low and this morning the attending physician says there is no change for the better.

Charles Norris is cutting some of the best leather ever brought to the Coast. It is Michigan oak tanned stock and will be used in some select single driving and track harness—the kind for which the Norris workmanship is noted.

Dolph Lodge, A. F. & A. M. has expended about $600 for new furniture for the Masonic hall. The order includes four dozen arm chairs upholstered in leather and three magnificent chairs for officers. The order was given to N. A. Miller, the bustling furniture dealer.

An Indian came to town yesterday and reported having found a saddle on the Umatilla river below Thorn Hollow. It is thought to be the saddle stolen some time ago from Louis Keen by a couple of Indians, of whom one is now a fugitive from officers. Keen and W. J. King went over today to identify the saddle.

East Oregonian: Mrs. G. W. Rigby arrived here yesterday from Claresholm, Alberta, and last night left for Salem accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Cora R. Cook. Rev. G. W. Rigby is expected here from Alberta about November 1, and the two may live here during the coming winter.

Baled timothy hay is being hauled from the mountain ranches to Athena for shipment. John Keen delivered something like 60 tons this week and other mountain farmers are also hauling here. The Preston-Parton Milling company is buying the greater portion of the hay this season for shipment to the Sound.

M. M. Wyrick, one of Umatilla county's leading farmers and stock men, was in town Wednesday. Mr. Wyrick operates the noted Prospect Farm north of Pendleton, and each year harvests a vast amount of grain. His holdings in live stock represent about 500 head of cattle and a large number of horses.

The Preston-Parton Milling Co. is running on the largest flour order that has been received since it commenced operations in this city. Two flour orders for the oriental trade received the other day aggregate 15,000 barrels. The flour will be shipped to San Francisco and Seattle from here, thence by water to the orient.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Dickenson arrived at the home of R. J. Boddy Tuesday evening from Leeds, England. Thirteen days were consumed in the voyage over the Atlantic and across the American continent, and since washing the dust of travel from his eyes, Mr. Dickenson thinks Athena is good enough for him and he will remain here. Mrs. Dickenson is a daughter of Mr. Boddy.

Hugh Walker and wife were in town yesterday from their ranch near Helix. Hugh is an inquisitive genius among other accomplishments acquired when a boy, and successfully wormed out of the Press man the reason we did not go to the Walla Walla fair with Wood. However, Hugh was never known to divulge a secret, so the colonel can rest assured that no one else will know anything about it—at least not before Walker takes a notion to go to Weston, anyway.

Alfred Myers, a young man who resides in this city with his parents, was taken to Pendleton Wednesday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Blakely. Young Myers, who has long been in ill health, has lately developed symptoms of insanity. Lately his actions indicated that something had to be done, and when at his home, he became violent and threatening, it was thought better to turn him over to the authorities. He has been placed in the county hospital where he will receive medical treatment.

It keeps the sporting editor of the Press hopping to keep posted on all the points and pedigrees of the colts and pups that flock to Athena these days. Two new arrivals must be signed up today, a colt and a pup, and we've a good notion to give the best of it to the pup, though they are both good. The colt, owned by "Bill" McBride, is sired by McAlropa, dam, Min, one of the best brood mares in Eastern Oregon, and the dam of Charles Norris' "Nibbs." So much for the colt. Now for the pup. Ed Koontz is expecting him any day now. He hails from Pasco and is bred in the purple. The puppy is an English pointer, liver and white in color, and has a pedigree longer than one of Wood's monologues. Its mother is valued at $750.

The Carpet Season

With the arrival of the house cleaning period the mind of the housewife naturally turns to the matter of Carpets and Rugs, and consequently she is confronted with two problems--the cleaning up process and the coverings for the floors. Now, soap, lye and water can be made to overcome the former, but the mistress of the household looks to the carpet dealer for help before she gets through with the floor.
