New Styles MEN'S OVERCOATS

This is the day of the big coat of generous proportions. The "Skimpy" and ill fitting coat has long disappeared; instead we have the great coat with broad shoulders, roomy sleeves and generous skirts. 52x54 inch is not too long for the average man. They are handsome, these coats; comfortable and reasonably priced.

of black silk tating over purple silk, was throughout the work of this lady's own hands and represented three years work. Had the robe been draped upon a figure, it is said it would undoubtedly have received the gold medal. It is valued at $1500.

Mrs. P. E. Colbern and her sister, Mrs. Banker, who is visiting her from Missouri, returned Friday evening from Portland. Mrs. Colbern was taken violently ill Saturday night and has since been confined to her bed. She is slowly improving at present.

Mrs. W. J. King was called to the bedside of her son, Ralph Hymer, at Ione Friday evening. Mr. Hymer was taken sick with a violent cramping, such as has been reported in a few cases in this vicinity recently, but his mother writes that he is now rapidly recovering and she will soon return home.

An error was made in the local columns of last Friday's Press, in regard to Miss Mary Kern, of Chilhowee, Mo., visiting her aunt, Mrs. Vaughn of this city. Miss Kern is a cousin of Mrs. Vaughn. She was accompanied from Spokane by Mr. Clint Kern, youngest brother of Mrs. Vaughn, and who is visiting relatives in this county.

William Willaby, senior, informs the Press that he will leave tomorrow for a visit with Spokane friends and relatives, of whom he has a score, after which he will go to Newport, Wash., where he will spend an indefinite time with his daughter, Mrs. Frank Knowlton. Uncle Will will stay at least until the cold weather drives him south again.

Yesterday Milt Swaggart brought in a drove of 40 head of hogs which he disposed of to Seattle buyers. They were a fine lot of porkers, averaging 180 pounds in weight and brought 5 1-2 cents on foot. Milt says people have learned to believe that Link is the only hog raiser in the state, and desires to inform readers of the Press that he is only a side issue in comparison with his own vast interests.

Thomas Terhune has sold out his interests in this city and will soon depart for Prosser, Wash., where he may locate. His residence property on Hunt Avenue was purchased by P. E. Colbern, the price paid being $1800. Ed Barrett, the well known lumber man, purchased his Hunt Avenue lumber yard, and will continue the business in connection with his own popular Umatilla Lumber yard. Mr. Barrett is here to stay, and solicits the patronage of all intending builders.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church will hold a fair in the near future, possibly before Thanksgiving. Each sister of the church is requested to contribute one or more articles for sale at the fair, and if any other friends wish to do so, it will be very much appreciated. Those having or intending to have articles for this purpose may communicate with Mrs. David Taylor, the president. A dinner will be given in connection with the fair. Further particulars will be announced later. By order of the president.

There is but one laundry in Pendleton known as the "Pendleton Steam Laundry," and Charles Gay is its exclusive Athena agent.

Are You Engaged? Engaged people should remember that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digressions in good order with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." McBride, druggist, sells and guarantees them, at 50c a bottle.

The Carpet Season

With the arrival of the house cleaning period the mind of the housewife naturally turns to the matter of Carpets and Rugs, and consequently she is confronted with two problems--the cleaning up process and the coverings for the floors. Now, soap, lye and water can be made to overcome the former, but the mistress of the household looks to the carpet dealer for help before she gets through with the floor.
