

Early Shipments of NEW FALL GOODS Arriving Daily

New Goods

Fall styles in men's clothes in a large variety of fabrics, weaves and patterns; in double and single breasted. All out of the shop of the best clothes makers. These clothes are up to date in every respect, and are offered at prices that are governed by quality. Style and fit are in every garment. The is as correct as the $20 one.

New Styles MEN'S OVERCOATS

This is the day of the big coat of generous proportions. The "Skimpy" and ill fitting coat has long disappeared; instead we have the great coat with broad shoulders, roomy sleeves and generous skirts. 52x54 inch is not too long for the average man. They are handsome, these coats; comfortable and reasonably priced.

Mrs. Henry Lloyd, of Moscow, Wash., was the guest of friends in Athena last week. Mrs. Lloyd, who was in ill health for several months previous to leaving this county, has recovered her health.

Fred Rosenzweig has received word of the death recently of his eldest brother, Carl Rosenzweig, which occurred at his old home, Albertsdorf, Germany. He was the father of Mrs. Carl Weisert, of Pendleton.

L. J. Robinson, the painter, and W. R. Coon have returned from their trip through northern Idaho. Mr. Robinson is very much impressed with the Nez Percé country. He took dinner while there with Mrs. Vorhies, a former resident of Athena, who is now prosperously located in that locality.

G. W. Bradley has purchased the residence property known as the Waterman place, of Will McCollum, and will immediately take possession. It is at present occupied by Mrs. McDaniel, a teacher in the school.

Already the effect of the fall rains is noticeably on the increase in the water supply from Gallaher Springs. Since last Friday the reservoir has been overflowing, and the pumping plant has remained idle for some time.

Does the label on your can of baking powder say it is the "Pure Cream of Tartar Kind"? Cleveland's is the pure cream of tartar baking powder as stated on each label and vouches for by the U. S. government chemists.

Good advice to women. If you want a beautiful complexion, clean skin, bright eyes, red lips, good health, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. There is nothing like it. 35c Tea or Tablets. Pioneer drug store.

E. J. Taylor, Chas. Lemery, John McIntyre, A. C. McIntyre, and Will McCollum yesterday loaded their household goods, horses and farming implements for shipment to Nanton, Alberta. Their families will leave in about two weeks.

Mr. Willey Turner, a prominent farmer of Helix, and Miss Clara Fickel, a teacher in the Helix school, were married recently at Walla Walla. Both are well and favorably known to Athena people, the bride having made her home in this city for several years.

Craghead & Hays have on display at their real estate office some fine samples of red clover and bromegrass. The clover and grass comes from Al Booher's mountain ranch and gives practical evidence that in the future the mountain ranch will supply the cattle range and dairy products for this portion of the Inland Empire.

The Weston public school board of directors have found it necessary to employ an additional teacher. Miss Sweeney, a young lady recently arrived from Minnesota, has accepted the position and will have charge of a portion of the third and fifth grades, thus relieving Misses Barnes and Craigan.

Frank Mraz, of Colton, who accompanied his sister, Mrs. L. M. Kemp of this city to the Portland fair recently, was held up by footpads on the night he was leaving Colton. Three men attacked him and after a sharp struggle in which Mr. Mraz knocked one man down with his suit case and broke his umbrella over the head of another, he was overpowered and robbed of $38 in cash and a $50 watch.

Mrs. Ed. Davis, whom some of the Press readers will remember as having visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis, who formerly resided here, died recently at her home in Starbuck, Wash., of what is known as black diphtheria. Her death was followed the next day by that of her little son, Dell. She leaves an infant daughter. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis, the parents-in-law, now reside at North Yakima.

Sunday morning smoke was noticed issuing from the roof of the small building near the Clemons chopmill, occupied by Charley, the Chinaman. Marshal Gholson and several others rushed to the scene and investigation revealed an unjointed stovepipe, a room full of smoke and the maddest Chinaman that ever rolled a noodle. The old mongolian seemed utterly indifferent as to his house burning, but his extreme anger was caused from getting his eyes full of smoke. The pipe was soon joined together and no damage resulted.

Are You Engaged?
Engaged people should remember that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good order with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." McBride, druggist, sells and guarantees them, at 50c a bottle.

Like Finding Money.
Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat, or chest irritation, better act promptly like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine in the world. At McBride's drug store; 50c and $1; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.
