Mrs. Chas. Booher, who has been seriously ill for several weeks past, is reported better.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Robinson have moved into the Henry Keen cottage on Jefferson street.

I have used Cleveland's Baking Powder and think it is the best made. Mrs. Letha King, Athena, Ore.

Mr. G. D. Peebler of Pendleton, father of John Q. Peebler, was in the city a couple of days this week.

The young ladies of Weston have organized a baseball team and are diligently practicing on the diamond.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bannister are moving to their farm adjoining town, where they will remain for a few months.

Judge Lowell of Pendleton, has decided to enter the race for the republican nomination for United States Senator.

L. Thout is prepared to do concrete work and well digging. Orders left at Ed. Manasse's store will receive prompt attention.

I have used Cleveland's Baking Powder for some time, and it has always proved satisfactory. Mrs. Watt, Athena, Ore.

Mrs. Lillie Miller announces the arrival of a large stock of street hats. Her millinery opening will be next Friday and Saturday.

Remember that during the months of March and April you can get a cabinet photo of your baby free of charge at Danner's photo gallery, Athena.

The Bridges Concert company is meeting with success during their weeks engagement here. A class has been organized for instruction in voice culture.

Willis Bush has returned from a trip to Adams county, where he went with the intention of purchasing land. He contemplates going back in the near future.

Tonight the Rathbone Sisters will give a grand revival in their lodge hall. A number of new members will be admitted and more are to follow at the next meeting.

Mrs. A. J. Willaby was a Pendleton visitor yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Willaby are preparing to move to their farm near town next Monday to attend to the spring work.

The Preston-Parton company's mill which has been closed down for several days, resumed operation last evening. The mill is now working on a large flour order for the oriental trade.

Mrs. P. E. Colbera is ill at her home on Fifth street. Mrs. Colbera has been in delicate health for several months past, and this week has been afflicted with a slight congestion of the lungs.

that city. Miss Minnie Taylor will have charge of the store, and Mrs. Miller will make weekly trips to Weston, spending Wednesday of each week there.

Through the generosity of Hon. T. J. Kirk, the committee on grounds for base ball use has been fortunate in securing a much better location than the place heretofore used for the purpose. An effort was made to secure grounds from Ben Ogle, but he refused. Mr. Kirk has kindly consented to allow the use of a portion of his pasture land in the north part of town to be used for ball grounds. Not only the business men who have contributed liberally to the support of the team, but the entire community, appreciate Mr. Kirk's action in the matter, particularly so when it is said that Ogle refused an offer of $100 for use of the ground wanted of him for the purpose.

H. T. Booth, the insurance man is in town today. Mr. Booth came up from Pendleton this morning. He is one of the many who are vigorously kicking at the inconvenience, annoyance and disappointment that confronts passengers leaving Pendleton on the Spokane train. When the main line train is late the time for the Spokane train leaving Pendleton as placarded in the Pendleton hotels is misleading, according to Mr. Booth's statements. The result is that people intending to leave on the Spokane train must either camp at the depot, or run the risk of being left.

"Uncle Jack" Crigler was over from his home near Milton Wednesday. Mr. Crigler is enjoying excellent health and is quite hale and hearty for a man of his age. He has been having trouble with a colony of beavers, which jammed up the stream running through his farm to such an extent that a portion of the land was overflowed and badly damaged. Apple and other fruit trees have been cut down and destroyed by busy beavers and used by them in their dam making operations.

Dan Prendergast sent his teams, wagons and farming implements to his Ritzville farm this week in charge of Frank O'Hara and Ralph Kinner, and with his family will depart for their new home next Monday morning. He is in partnership with Mrs. Anna O'Hara, has invested in several hundreds of acres in the Ritzville country. Mrs. O'Hara will reside in Walla Walla, where she has purchased property.
