A number of Athena friends went over today to Weston to attend the funeral of the late T. J. Price.

The Misses Ethel and Lois Kern of Holis, visited in this city yesterday with their aunt, Mrs. Vaughn.

Weston's city charter will be amended so that a greater bonded indebtedness may be carried.

Many families are contemplating going soon to the mountains to spend the dry, dusty harvest weeks now at hand.

There will be no services at the Baptist church Sunday, owing to the absence of Rev. Ellis, who is at The Dalles.

East Oregonian: O. M. Castleman has returned from Bingham Springs, where his family is camping during the warm weather.

Prof. J. S. Henry returned this morning from Portland where he represented Athena Lodge, A. O. U. W. at the grand lodge sessions.

John Bannister says that a portion of his wheat has been damaged seriously by the hot weather. Mr. Bannister will begin harvesting next week.

The following subjects at the Church of Christ next Lord's day: In the morning, "A Poor and Suffering Church;" evening, "Yet There Is Room." Come.

Mrs. P. A. Worthington and children of Portland, are at the home of H. O. Worthington in this city. They will soon leave for Saling's camp in the Blue mountains.

Joe Scott will commence harvesting a half section field of wheat one mile south of Mission station, Monday. In this field Mr. Scott estimates his loss to be at least 1000 sacks.

Walters, the Weston saloon keeper who was going out of business, will continue to manage the Lobby saloon at that place. Licenses will be taken out in the name of his wife, Cora M. Walters.

There is a considerable amount of water being used now for irrigation and street sprinkling purposes. The pumping plant was used during the forenoon Sunday and the difference in quality of the water was noticed.

The fact that there has not been a case of typhoid fever in Athena for several months may be attributed to the excellent sanitary conditions of the town and the pure spring water used for domestic purposes.

C. L. Swain, assistant state engineer, who has had charge of the hypographical survey at Milton, has completed the work there and has taken his apparatus to Echo, where he will take up similar work.

Andrew Goodell has been given the position of engineer at the city pumping station during the irrigating season. An excessive amount of water is being used during the dry weather and the pumping plant will be operated temporarily.

The chances are favorable that "Jinks" Taylor, will have a law suit on his hands. He so forgot himself that he let his team run away, and as Brotherton has a copyright on "all sich," the matter is liable to come up for settlement in the courts.

C. A. Wender, special agent for the Royal and Queen insurance companies was in the city recently. Both of these companies are represented in Athena by I. M. Kemp and F. S. LeGrow. They are listed at the top of the "dollar" companies and do a good business wherever represented.

Weston Leader: Harry Turner visited his leased land south of Athena Sunday, accompanied by Albert Probstel. He has 200 acres of remarkably fine Jones' five wheat that looks as though it ought to be good for 50 bushels per acre, so heavy and uniform is the stand. The visitors threshed ten heads selected at random and found an average of 73 plump kernels to the head. One of them contained 84 kernels.

Chas. Brotherton has placed an order with the Gilbert Hunt Co. of Walla Walla, for a 25 inch Pride of Washington separator, and the machine will be unloaded from the car today. Mr. Brotherton has 400 acres of wheat which he will begin harvesting next week. He confidently expects an average yield of 40 bushels per acre.

H. G. Walker is getting along nicely in Dr. Williamson's sanatorium at Portland says the Leader. Reports as to his condition say that he has already shown marked improvements and that his permanent recovery is expected. Mr. Walker will remain at the sanatorium until fully restored in health.

Circuit Judge Bean will hold court at Milton on December 3, for hearing the water cases brought by the Peacock Milling Co. The reason that Milton was selected as the place for holding a session of the circuit court, is that nearly 300 persons are made defendants to the suit, and all reside at and near Milton.

Thomas J. Price, one of the best known pioneers of Umatilla county, died yesterday at his home north of Weston. Mr. Price had been failing in health for several months. He was aged 77 years, and settled on the home place adjoining the town of Weston in 1871. He is survived by his wife and several children, who are prominent in the county. William and Harry McBride of this city are nephews of the deceased. The funeral takes place this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Loss By Flood $47,000

At the last session of the county court over $25,000 in bills was presented for the signatures of the commissioners, over $12,000 of bills being for repairing roads and bridges in the county damaged by the recent floods that swept this section of the country. Even with this amount expended at least $5000 more will be required to put the roads in shape, thus making a total of $17,000 spent in the repairing of roads alone. For the repairing and reconstruction of the bridges that were damaged the county court thinks that an additional sum of $30,000 will be needed, making a total of $47,000, all of which is directly traceable to the flood.—Pendleton Tribune.

A Picnic Party.

Wednesday, Mrs. Anstett Foss chaperoned the members of her embroidery class to the grove south of town where the day was spent in a good old fashioned picnic.
