Pendleton Tribune: Last night at 7:30 occurred the funeral of Douglas Glenn, who was found dead at his cabin on the Isaacs ranch on McKay creek yesterday morning, his death being due to heart failure. As he was in town Saturday night he must have died between Sunday and Monday morning. The funeral was conducted under the auspices of Dawson lodge No. 4, Knights of Pythias.

Grover Hays is down from Pasco, and is nursing a hand afflicted with blood poison. One night recently, while sleeping, he was bitten on the hand by an insect with the result that the hand soon became inflamed and swollen. Grover, in company with eleven other firemen on the Northern Pacific, who had been working on light engines, resigned when transferred on the 230-ton freight engines, which consume 40 tons of coal to the trip.

Weston Leader: The other night Marshal Lavender locked up an obstreperous and belligerent son of Erin in the city bastille, which doesn't often have an occupant. A nest of bumble bees was encountered by the officer and his charge and proved superior to the city ordinance or the marshal's billy. The men were driven forth, glad to escape with their lives, and the prisoner was released with an admonition to depart hence. The Irishman described it as a warm reception in a hot town, but said he wasn't accustomed to so much attention and would be glad to leave.

Resolutions.

Whereas, through the wisdom of the supreme Grand Master of the universe, our beloved brother S. A. Maloney has been summoned from our subordinate Lodge to that celestial Lodge on high, now therefore be it

Resolved: That to the will of the supreme Grand Master, we the brothers of Dolph Lodge No. 80, A. F. & A. M., most humbly and reverently bow; buoyed up by the confident hope that our departed brother has been but called from this temporary life of labor to one of refreshment and eternal reward.

Resolved, that the tender sympathy of all of the brothers of this Lodge be and is hereby conveyed to the bereaved son of our deceased brother.

Resolved, that we sincerely regret and mourn his loss, both as a brother Mason and as an upright and honorable citizen.
