

Press Paragraphs

Henry Adams went down to Portland Saturday.

George Peebler came up from Pendleton this morning.

Frank Tharp was in Pendleton Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Kilgore were in town yesterday from Weston.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Turner of Weston were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Manasse are in Walla Walla for a few days.

Matt Mosgrove, the Milton merchant, was in town this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. LeGrow returned today from a visit in Walla Walla.

Mrs. Fred Boyd and daughter, Cecile, spent Saturday with friends in Pendleton.

Lost—A ladies' brown fur with Chenille fringe. Finder will please leave it at the Press office. Reward.

Millard Kelly has gone to Meacham where he has secured a winter's job in the wood camps at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dudley returned Saturday evening from a visit to friends in Tacoma and Seattle.

The recent rains have brought up fall sown wheat nicely. A carpet of green now meets the eye in all directions.

I will sell for cash at absolute cost my entire stock of saddles. I am going to close them out. Charles Norris.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kershaw returned Saturday evening from a pleasant visit with relatives and friends at Dixie, Wash.

Mrs. R. Dobie and Mrs. Ford, of Grangeville, Idaho, mother and sister of Mr. J. S. Dobie, arrived in the city last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John McIntyre are down from their home in Alberta. They will spend a few weeks with relatives in this vicinity.

Levi Trowbridge came down from Garfield, Wash., Saturday evening and will visit friends in Athena for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Rogers were up from their home near Adams yesterday trading with Athena merchants.

One of the hardest rains of the season fell in this vicinity last night. The rain fall continues today, but it is not so heavy as the fall of last night.

A skating rink is furnishing pleasure for the young people at Milton. The rink is located in the Milton opera house, and every night the attendance is large.

In every clime its colors are unfurled Its fame has spread from sea to sea; Be not surprised if in the other world You hear of Rocky Mountain Tea. Pioneer Drug store.

For sale—One half section of good wheat land, summer fallowed, located five miles from railway station. For information call on Peebler & Chamberlain, Athena, Oregon.

All members of Mignonette Rebekah Lodge are requested to be present at the next meeting, Tuesday evening, Nov. 13. Bring refreshments. Mary E. Sharp, Noble Grand.

James Feeler, well known to Athena people, came down from Milton, Wash., Saturday evening. Mr. Feeler has gone out of the saloon business and has purchased a ranch.

"Joe," the fine driving horse owned by Dr. J. D. Flamondon, has been very sick. The services of a veterinary, however, have resulted in bringing the horse through all right.

Weston's bridges are once more spanning Pius creek, and the Leader expresses faith in their permanency, predicting that the present structures will withstand the spring floods.

Dean Dudley left last evening for Portland, where he will enter a business college. A number of the young man's friends congregated at the depot last evening to see him off.

"Bob" McGraw, Weston's ex-druggist, was in town Saturday. Mr. McGraw is making a success of farming. He owns the Jacob Clark farm, one of the best places in the Weston neighborhood.

County Judge Gilliland and the two county commissioners came up from Pendleton this morning and inspected the material for the new steel bridges to be erected on Wild Horse creek near this city.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sim J. Culley died Friday morning shortly after its birth. The funeral was held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of the parents in Weston.

C. W. Ray, wife and son, of Hatton, Wash., are in the city, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Peterson. Mr. Ray is an old time friend of Mr. Peterson's and the two spent the day in recounting school day escapades of the past, down in old South Carolina. Mr. and Mrs. Ray are on their way to California where they will remain for the winter.

Laurence Lienallen of Adams and Miss Alice Christian, of Milton, were married Sunday. The groom is a son of T. J. Lienallen of Adams and is well known in Athena, where he has a host of friends. The Press extends congratulations.

A large number of friends spent last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kirk. The evening was spent in a happy social way. Mr. and Mrs. Kirk leave tonight for California, where they have purchased a home and will hereafter spend the winter months.

At Milton Friday afternoon Professor Penneck, of the public school, attempted to punish one of his pupils, when nearly the entire school room of boys threatened to do him bodily injury if he attempted to carry out his plans.

The fuel famine is being relieved to some extent by the O. R. & N. company, which is now furnishing cars for transportation of wood from Meacham and Kamela. The Tamalum Lumber company of this city, has now on hand quite a supply of cord wood. Up to the present time no coal has been received by the dealers here.

Henry Barrett is visiting friends in the Willamette valley. This is Henry's second trip to the valley and there is one lady in town who did not hesitate to inform the editor that she was sure there was an extraordinary attraction for Henry "down below." Now the Press man is not venturing any guess in the matter. He considerably leaves that for the young lady to figure out.

The Senator, the Knights of Pythias paper for Oregon, Washington and Idaho, will hereafter be issued from the press of the East Oregonian at Pendleton. Mr. E. B. Aldrich, city editor of the East Oregonian, will be the publisher. The Senator has fallen into capable hands and the Athena readers may depend on this popular lodge paper being improved.

An epidemic of chicken thievery seems to have broken out at Weston. Boys of 15 or 16 are accused of stealing chickens from different yards, about town and selling them for what they will bring. The names of the culprits are known, and it would be well for them to avoid arrest and punishment by respecting the property rights of other people. If Judge Lindsay of Denver were here to talk with them, he might be able to impress a useful lesson.

Helix Herald: C. S. Ferguson, who has been the representative of Uncle Sam in the postoffice at Adams for the past 17 years, has tendered his resignation and expects to leave in a few days for his new home in Helix. J. H. Kirby, who lately returned from Gilliam county, but who was for years a resident of Adams, has sent in an application for the appointment, and will no doubt be soon the only legal postmaster of Adams. He has also been asked to accept the appointment as justice of the peace as Mr. Gregoire, who was elected, failed to qualify.

Made Happy for Life

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weakness, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by Wm. McBride, Palace drug store. Price, 50c

The large stocks that are to be seen in Pendleton show that a firm feeling exists that the coming fall trade will be an unprecedented one for business. The window display, the employing of extra help and the general hustle that is to be noticed everywhere points to it.

My stock is three times larger than it was at the beginning of the present year. Come in and see the pretty things when in Pendleton.

Two Kinds of Money IDLE and INDUSTRIOUS

Ready money is idle if carried in the pocket, house or in a bank where it does not draw interest.

Ready money is industrious when it earns a fair rate of interest all the time and yet available at any time. Our special

DEMAND CERTIFICATES solve this problem as they draw THREE per cent, a fair rate of interest, and may be cashed at any time without notice.
