

Press Paragraphs

T. J. Kirk was in Pendleton Monday on business.

Mrs. T. J. Kirk is reported ill at her home on Fifth street.

Miss Ruth Dickenson visited friends in Freewater Wednesday.

Miss Carlstrom, of Adams, was shopping in the city Wednesday.

Mrs. Victor McDonald is over from Walla Walla visiting relatives.

Miss Elna Kimberk of Adams was a guest of the Misses Tharp Sunday.

Born recently in Boise, to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wallace, a 9-pound daughter.

Mrs. Lester O'Harra and Miss Lula Tharp drove over to Pea Ridge yesterday.

Miss Greta McIntyre left yesterday for a visit with friends in Washington state.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cartano were Pendleton visitors the first of the week.

Mrs. Lazier of Weston and her mother were trading with Athena merchants yesterday.

Miss Lela Garfield, of Walla Walla, is visited her grandmother, Mrs. J. Nelson this week.

Miss Cecile Boyd visited Miss Leta Edington at her home in Helix the first of the week.

Mrs. Charles Keen was over from Walla Walla the first of the week visiting relatives in this city.

Tom Taggart, the groceryman, was a Pendleton visitor yesterday, where he went to meet his brother.

The infant of Mrs. John King has been quite severely ill this week, with an ailment peculiar to children.

Any one wishing a good wall map can secure one without cost by applying to the office of the O. R. & N.

Mrs. O. C. Turner, of Weston, was a guest over Sunday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Douglas in this city.

Arthur Douglas, is laid up with sickness at the home of his parents on Fourth street. Fever is the trouble.

Mrs. Theo. Danner, Miss Danner and Mrs. Wall were visitors to the Freewater peach festival Wednesday.

Mrs. Jackson Nelson returned Saturday from a week's visit with her daughters at Dixie and Walla Walla.

Born, on August 20, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Willaty, at the Owens home near the state line, a daughter.

Received today by express, at Manasse's Up-to-Date store, an elegant line of silk waists. Come in and see them.

D. M. Taggart, of the Empire Lumber company, at Nyssa, Ore., is in the city visiting his brother, T. M. Taggart.

Mrs. Wm. McBride and her company drove to Weston Wednesday, where they visited at the parental home.

Until further notice, the Sunday evening service at the Baptist church will commence promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Harry Leedy, who has been clerking at Manasse's Up to-Date store for several weeks, left Monday for Walla Walla.

Mrs. Masters and her daughter, Mrs. ...

homa. Mr. Muskat's experience as a salesman of drygoods and clothing extends over a long period of years, and he comes into the employ of Mr. Jarman with high recommendations.

Dades Little Liver Pills keep the system clean, the stomach sweet. Prompt relief for headache and biliousness. Good for all the family. Pioneer Drug Store.

Miss Ruby Douglas, who has spent the past month with her sister, Mrs. Turner, in Weston, was at home Sunday. Miss Ruby will come home soon to be ready for school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. O'Harra were over from their home east of Weston Wednesday, buying furniture and carpets for their fine new house recently erected on Pea Ridge.

Mrs. William Dobson returned Saturday from a summer's visit with her parents at St. John, near Portland. Mrs. Dobson was very ill during her stay there with tonsillitis.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Geiss, on August 25, James R. Nuna-maker of Hood River and Miss Martha L. Liesallen of Adams, were married, Rev. P. S. Rogers officiating.

Mrs. Lillie Miller has a fine line of fall street hats on display and more arriving direct from New York and Chicago. Mrs. Miller will announce her grand opening of fall styles a little later.

Walter S. Ely, a former Athena business man, arrived in the city from Boise, Sunday. Mr. Ely is employed in a creamery in the Idaho capital, and is pleased with Boise as a business center.

The ladies of the Christian church will hold their annual fair and sale this fall as usual. The exact date will be given soon, so that all who are interested may begin preparations for the event.

While in the country last week on official business, Constable John Smith met with an accident through the running of his team, whereby he was thrown to the ground and considerably bruised.

The series of Sunday evening union services of the Methodist Episcopal and Baptist churches closed with last Sunday night's meeting at the Baptist church. These meetings were well attended.

The bites and stings of insects, sunburn, cuts, burns and bruises relieved at once with Pinealve Carbolyzed. Acts like a poultice. Draws out inflammation. Try it. Price 25c. Pioneer Drug Store.

Mrs. Sewell and baby will leave Sunday for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stone, at Thornton, Wash. She will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Lois Stone who has been visiting her here.

Charles Norris is reported to have refused an offer of $500 for his driving horse, "Carl." The offer was made by J. Jenson, agent for the National Livestock Association, who was on the lookout for a horse for a Portland friend.

The Press learns from Director Watts that should the weather continue cool, the Athena public school will open one week from next Monday, September 9th. Otherwise, the opening of school may be deferred a week or two later.

Mrs. M. A. Lawrence, sister of William Tompkins, who left for her home in Calgary, B. C., last week, intends, so the Press is informed, to return to Athena for the purpose of residing here, after disposing of her property in the Alberta city.

Over 250,000 bushels of wheat was sold to Athena buyers Saturday. The bulk of the grain brought 50c per bushel, though several lots changed at 71 cents. The market this week has been varying from 68 to 69 cents, and the Preston-Parton company yesterday paid 70 cents.

Mrs. J. W. Smith was in town Tuesday and Wednesday from Helix, renovating her residence property on Fifth street preparatory to the occupancy of Dr. Heisley and wife, the new osteopathic physicians. The Heisleys will assume the practice of Dr. Van Halteren, who goes east.

M. M. Johns left Saturday morning for Portland and Vancouver, where he joined his family, who have been visiting there for several weeks. From Portland Mr. Johns and family leave soon for southern California, where they expect to remain for some years, placing their sons in school.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Barrett left last evening for Sacramento, where Mr. Barrett will attend the National Irrigation congress as a delegate from this county. At Walla Walla Mr. and Mrs. Barrett took the Garden city special car which will be attached to the Sacramento special train at Portland this evening.

A member of the hobo fraternity was caught by Bert Cartano in the act of relieving an inebriated individual of a $20 gold piece. The light-fingered gent was made to disgorge by Mr. Cartano, who reported the matter to Officer Ghosson. The yegg spent the night in jail and the district attorney has been notified.

"Jap" Marquis is having a peek of trouble. He announces that this week he espoused a widow in Walla Walla, and that on the return "rip, having business in Pendleton, his newly wedded wife passed on through, promising to return on the next train. He has met all trains, but still she comes not. "Jap" is very much puzzled over her non appearance.

Rev. Geo. T. Ellis is better than ever prepared to tie the marriage knot. The venerable clergyman has received a choice lot of blank marriage certificates beautifully set in embossed leather binding. In the upper country Rev. Ellis held the record for the number of marriages performed, and next week goes to Baker City, where his services are required at two weddings.

The girls of the Baptist Sunday school will give a sale of useful articles, and also a food sale—everything in the line of eatables, Saturday, September 7, in R. J. Boddy's building, north side of Main street, beginning at 2 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to inspect their wares, whether you purchase or not—but, don't fail to patronize the girls, who have worked hard all summer with this fair in view. Anything contributed for the sale will be thankfully received.

Freewater's Peach day, which was held Wednesday of this week, was an event of considerable importance to the progressive little fruit town. The day's exercises were attended by large and well pleased crowds from other places. Weston, Athena and Pendleton people were greatly disappointed with the railroad company's inability to run a special train, the result being that but few citizens from these towns had an opportunity to eat free peaches at Freewater.

Estray Notice.
Holstein cow, brand V on right hip—about 12 years old. Has been at my place since December, 1906.
S. S. Parris.

T. M. TAGGART & CO.
(SUCCESSORS TO ELY & SCOTT)

Coffee You Drink Should Be the Best

Seal Blend 1 lb Cans, 45 cents	Chase & Sanborn's	Circle Blend 1 lb Bags, 25 cents
--	------------------------------	--

Package Coffee is the best to buy and the best to drink. We have the agency. Sold only by Up-to-date Grocers.

T. M. TAGGART & COMPANY, South Side Main Street

On Savings

We Pay 4%

On the Quarterly Balance or 3% On the Monthly Balance

J. L. ELAM'S BANK
CAPITAL PAID IN $100,000

ESTABLISHED 1865
Preston-Parton Milling Company

AMERICAN BEAUTY

Flour is made in Athena, by Athena labor, in the latest and best equipped mill in the west, of the best selected Bluestem-wheat grown anywhere. Patronize home industry. Your grocer sells American Beauty for $1.20 Per Sack.

Merchant Millers and Grain Buyers
Athena, Oregon. — — — Waitsburg, Wash.

A. J. PARKER'S BARBER SHOP
Everything First Class - Modern and Up-to-date
SOUTH SIDE MAIN STREET ATHENA

BLACKSMITH AND REPAIRING SHOP
A. H. LUNA, Proprietor.
Shop West of King's Barn, Athena

TROY LAUNDRY
For GOOD WORK
HENRY KEENE, Agent,
Athena. Oregon

16 Pounds for $1	SUGAR	8 Pounds for 50c
--------------------------	--------------	-------------------------

Our first importation of French and German fine dress goods has arrived. Come early and make your selection before the assortment is broken. In the fine novelty goods we have only one dress pattern of a kind, so no lady need be afraid of their becoming a livery.

Wool taffetas in black, reds, browns, greens and London smoke. Panama in all the new colorings. Prunella cloths in all the popular fall colors. Fancy neutral shaded checks, stripes and plaids in great variety. Silk poplins, the latest fad for waists and evening wear, all colors, also cream and black.

Crepe de Paree, Mohairs, Sicillians and Albatross in creams and evening shades.

We still give B. & H. Trading Stamps with all Cash Purchases.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co.
SOUTH SIDE MAIN ST., ATHENA, OREGON

Pineules A dose at bed time usually relieves the most severe case before morning.

30 days' treatment for $1.00. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

BACK-ACHE
SOLD IN ATHENA AT HAWK'S PIONEER DRUG STORE.