

Press Paragraphs

John R. Adams was an Athena visitor Thursday.

Frank Coolidge was a Pendleton visitor Sunday.

Mrs. Agnes Ferguson visited friends in Adams Sunday.

Charley Smith was at the county seat the first of the week.

Mrs. Alice Kirkpatrick of Weston, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Lester O'Hara visited friends in Weston Tuesday night.

Miss Maud Sherman will be a student at the Normal this year.

Mrs. Lillie Miller was a business visitor to Pendleton Tuesday.

Miss Ferol McBride is visiting her grandparents at Weston this week.

See Dr. Curry about your eyes at Hotel St. Nichols, Tuesday Sept. 24.

Eber Luna was over from Milton Sunday and spent the day with friends.

W. J. Healey of Spokane was in the city Wednesday and Thursday morning.

Ottomar Cannon has returned from a summer's visit to his parents in Kansas.

Mrs. M. L. Watts and daughter, Verula, were Pendleton visitors yesterday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pamperen, September 10, 1906, twin daughters.

Latest styles in ladies, Misses and infants shoes, just received at Manasse's Up-to-Date store.

Orlando Hodgen pulled in his harvesting machine Sunday having finished for this season.

Miss Flora Booth will matriculate with the E. O. S. N. S., taking a commercial course.

Walter Armfield, son of Rev. W. E. Armfield, is ill in a Spokane hospital with typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Barrett are in San Francisco this week, visiting Mr. Barrett's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gerberding, of Weston, were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Lester O'Hara Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gross of Walla Walla, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmitt.

All knowing themselves indebted to W. S. Buel, the blacksmith are requested to call at once and settle.

Mrs. Charles Brotherton and children have returned from a visit to her mother in Franklin county, Wash.

Dr. S. F. Sharp takes this means of notifying all who are indebted to him to come forward at once and settle.

Miss Leota Cannon will teach the coming term of school at the Rawhide school house southwest of town.

Miss Jackson has arrived from Portland and is assisting as head milliner in the Jones millinery establishment.

Miss Helen Anderson, who resides north of town, is assisting in the trimming department of Mrs. Miller's store.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Dobson drove to the Umatilla river Sunday, and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gay.

Mrs. Marion Jack and children visited relatives in this city the first of the week, from the farm near Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kirk will leave about the first of the month for California where they will spend the winter.

H. C. Adams has been at Tollgate for the past ten days, where he went to deliver some sheep which he had sold.

Mrs. J. D. Plamondon had the misfortune to severely burn her hand Wednesday, while engaged in culinary work.

Misses Lula Tharp and Kittie Gholson were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gerking west of town this week.

If you are going east call on O. R. & N. and learn all about special excursions, August 8-9-10, September 11-12-13.

Attorney C. T. Godwin of Freewater and Miss Ivez Phelps of Milton, were united in marriage at Portland, last Wednesday.

Tom Taggart, one of the proprietors of Athens's Cash grocery store returned yesterday from a business visit to Walla Walla.

Ladies, please remember the grand opening of fall and winter millinery at Mrs. Jones' millinery store Monday and Tuesday of next week.

Geo. Mulkey, the veteran buckaroo came down from Meacham yesterday. He brought down a bunch of 78 head of Hugh Robie's beef cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baker and Mrs. Frank Baker and family will leave Adams next week for their new home in Prospect Park, California.

Reserved seats are now selling at Dall brothers store for the Josephine Defry engagement at the Opera House Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Miss Genevieve Dickson, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity, left Saturday for Walla Walla, to take up her studies in Whitman College.

Mrs. Star Charlton came down from her home near Kamela Tuesday and with her mother, Mrs. D. H. Sanders, went to the Milton peach orchards for fruit, which will be put up for winter use.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet next Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 18. All members are requested to be present.

Miss Josephine Defry and her excellent company will open a three night engagement at the Athena Opera House commencing Thursday, Sept. 19.

An infant of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph La Roque, residents of the reservation, died after a short illness, and was buried in the Athena cemetery yesterday.

Subjects at the Church of Christ next Lord's day. Morning: "Jesus and the Law of Moses." Evening: "Better Than Sacrifice." A welcome to all.

Little Ruth Rothrock suffered the fracture of her arm yesterday while performing on roller skates. This is the second time the limb has been set by Dr. Sharp.

Mr. Emery LaHue exhibits some fine potatoes grown in his garden on the west side that would rank well with any agricultural display. They can't be beaten.

A fine line of the latest thing in ribbons, plaids, children's hair ribbons, neck ribbons etc., also the notby new veillings at Mrs. Lillie Miller's millinery store.

Miss Edna Strahl, of Moro, formerly head milliner at Mrs. Miller's millinery establishment in this city, is expected to visit friends in Athena Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Lucas drove up to their mountain ranch Sunday. Mr. Lucas intends to move his family to the ranch as soon as he can build a house to reside in.

Dades Little Liver Pills keep the system clean, the stomach sweet. Prompt relief for headache and biliousness. Good for all the family. Pioneer Drug Store.

J. W. Hopper was up from Pine Creek ranch Wednesday with a load of fine pears which were handled by Taggart. Mr. Hopper says the Freewater packing houses are buying heavily on apples.

Freewater Times: Mrs. Wall and Mrs. Theodore Danner were visitors with their brother, J. W. Muir, last week. These ladies are from Athena, and while here bought their yearly supply of peaches.

Mrs. Mary Plamondon, who has been visiting at the home of her son, Dr. J. D. Plamondon, returned to her home in Salem Tuesday. She was accompanied as far as Pendleton, by the doctor and his wife.

Dr. H. C. Curry eye sight specialist of Walla Walla who has made regular visits to Athena during the past five years will make his next professional visit on Tuesday, Sept. 24 for one day only at Hotel St. Nichols.

Mrs. Chas. Gay and family will return to Athena this week and take up residence for the winter. Mr. Gay will remain at Cayuse and Thorn Hollow wheat stations a while longer to receive wheat at those points.

Mayor McCorkell of Briggson P. O. accompanied by Mrs. McCorkell, came to town Wednesday bringing a load of rosy, red mountain apples. He found, as all mountain ranchers do, a ready market for his product in Athena.

Mrs. Rookwell Carey, who is visiting her mother and sister here, was a guest at the John Gross home in Walla Walla this week. She will return to her home in Portland tomorrow, after a pleasant visit of a month in Athena.

In honor of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmitt, a party of friends congregated at their fine home west of town Sunday, and enjoyed a pleasant day. A sumptuous dinner was served by Mrs. Schmitt.

Mrs. David Taylor has received the sad news of the critical illness of her brother, William Gerking, at his home near Tekoa, Wash. His death was hourly expected at last reports. Mr. Gerking was a visitor to relatives here some months ago.

At a meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church, held Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. H. O. Worthington was elected president; Mrs. S. F. Sharp vice-president; Mrs. Wm. Tompkins, treasurer and Mrs. Al Bocher, secretary.

Miss Ruth McKelroy is reported ill at her home near Cambridge, Idaho. Miss McKelroy has long been a sufferer from rheumatism, and it is presumed that the old trouble has again assailed her. She has a host of friends here who regret her sickness.

Weston Leader: Mrs. H. B. Nelson has left her Franklin county home-stand for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. V. H. Chastain, at Lewiston, Idaho. She is recovering from the effects of a runaway accident in which she sustained a broken arm.

Mrs. A. J. Willaby was taken very ill Saturday night at her home on Jefferson street, and the services of Dr. Sharp were required. After several hours severe suffering, the lady was relieved and is now able to be about her household duties again.

The Press is indebted to Dean Gerking for a fine basket of Bartlett pears that for flavor and quality outclass any thing in the fruit line seen during this tanner year of luscious fruits. Dean has many trees that are literally loaded with this delectable crop.

Miss Dolly Bloch, who has been ill for several years from the effects of ptomaine poisoning at her home in Spokane, recently underwent a most heroic operation, in which the three joints in each arm were broken, thus releasing the ligaments to perform their proper functions. The young lady is doing as well as could be expected and hopes are now entertained that she may finally regain the use of her limbs.

Dick Nye and Niel Tittsworth left yesterday morning for Cambridge, Idaho. Mr. Nye has a claim near Cambridge, and has been working in the Puget Sound warehouse here. Neil earned a tidy little sum in the harvest field. The boys will travel overland.

Mrs. Lillie Miller announces her grand opening for fall and winter dress hats, street hats and fancy millinery to occur on Wednesday and Thursday, September 18 and 19. All her old patrons and the ladies of Athena and vicinity in general are invited to call.

Mrs. A. M. Gillis and Mrs. R. A. Stewart arrived home Tuesday from Spokane, where they attended the Methodist Episcopal conference for the Columbia district. The ladies were very much pleased with their visit, and saw many former Athenaites now residing there.

Chas. Brotherton took a new departure this week, having tired of the monotony of the ordinary runaway. While engaged in fighting a windmill, a la Don Quixote, he got the worst of it, in which his face was severely gashed. Moral: Stick to the runaway, Charley and you wont get hurt.

Rev. Isreal Patnam, the new pastor appointed by the Methodist Episcopal Conference, to the pastorate of the M. E. church of this city, will preach next Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Curry, the retiring pastor, will move to Weston to reside temporarily. He has filed on timber land in Baker county.

Two cases of scarlet fever are reported in the family of Mr. McAlexander, recent arrivals in the city. Customary quarantine precautions were taken and no other cases have developed. A number of cases are reported in the vicinity of Weston, one case, that of Miss Lee, a school teacher, being very severe.

Out in the Helix and Jusiper neighborhoods, where there yet remains considerable grain to harvest, many ranchers find themselves short of sacks. The reason for the shortage is that the crop is larger than anticipated. The Preston-Parton Milling company of this city is supplying sacks to Helix farmers.

T. J. Mansfield after spending several weeks visiting his brothers, B. F. and F. M. Mansfield of this city, left Monday for his home in Galesburg, Illinois. The old gentleman was well pleased with Oregon, but as he has lived in his home county for 70 years and is the possessor of a large fortune, the Beaver State with all its matchless advantages appeals not to him.

Chas. Dunn of Tekoa, Wash., spent a few days with Athena friends this week. Charles has been in the employ of the O. R. & N. Co., for the past two years. He recently graduated from clerical work in the company's offices and now ranks well up on the list of brakemen who will soon be eligible to wear the brass buttons of a conductor.

Mr. F. B. Surbeck, an experienced cigar dealer, will tomorrow open a cigar store and club rooms in the Boddy building, north side Main street. Mr. Surbeck is an experienced cigar maker and if the trade justifies, he may conduct a cigar factory in this city. Mr. Surbeck and family are recent arrivals from Weiser Idaho. He is well known in Walla Walla, where he conducted a cigar factory.

Dr. O. F. Heisley Dr. S. Etta Heisley Graduates Am. School of Osteopathy, of Kirksville, Mo., Dr. A. T. Still, President, Founder.

MOSGROVE MERCANTILE COMPANY

GRAND OPENING OF
NEW FALL
AND WINTER
STOCK
SATURDAY, SEPT. 14

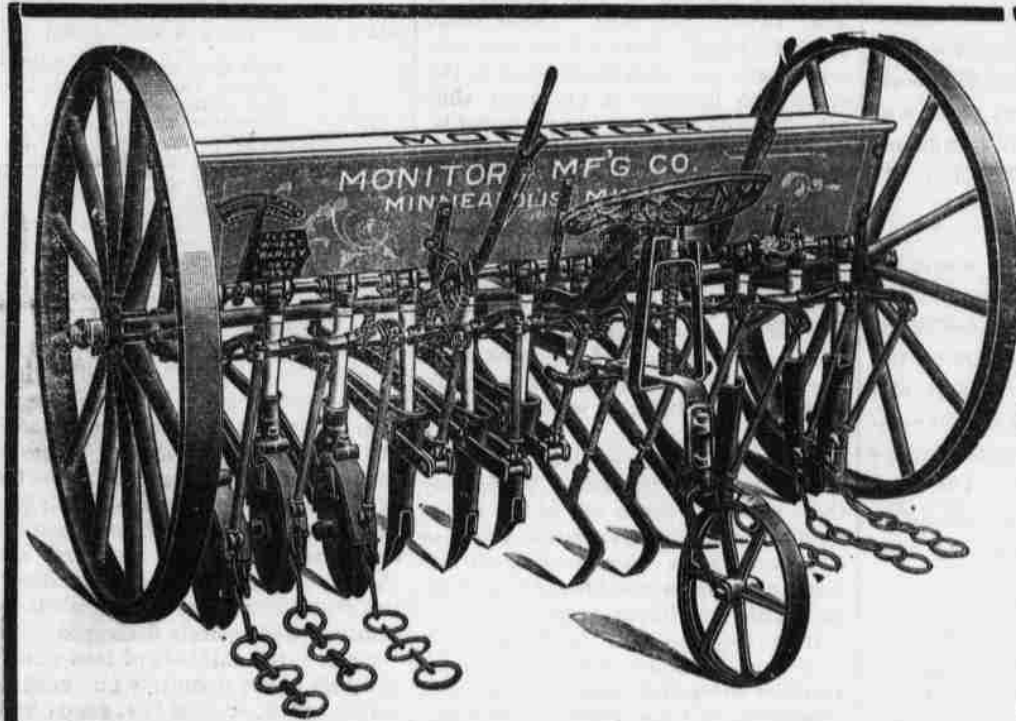

You are all invited to attend. We are showing the largest and most carefully selected line of up to date Merchandise ever displayed in this city. The latest productions from the Foreign and Domestic Markets in Every Department.

We are making this a special display day and shall take great pleasure in showing you through the different lines. Come and examine for Yourself.

No matter whether you wish to purchase or not. We have the best and most reliable goods in all lines that Money can purchase.

B. & H. TRADING STAMPS
Given With Cash Purchases.

MOSGROVE MERCANTILE COM'Y

MONITOR DRILLS

The most Substantial Drill on the market. With the Saucer Feed, there is no cracked seed Planted.

C. A. Barrett
&
Company
Athena, - - Oregon

On Savings

We Pay
4%

On the Quarterly Balance or

3%

On the Monthly Balance

J. L. ELAM'S BANK
WALLA WALLA, WASH.
CAPITAL PAID IN $100,000
J. L. ELAM, PRES. H. B. MARSHALL, CASH. W. S. STEIN, V. PRES.

BLACKSMITH AND REPAIRING SHOP

A. H. LUNA, Proprietor.

Shop West of King's Barn, Athena

TROY LAUNDRY

For GOOD WORK
HENRY KEENE, Agent,
Athena, - - Oregon.

ESTABLISHED 1865 Preston-Parton Milling Company

AMERICAN BEAUTY

Flour is made in Athena, by Athena labor, in the latest and best equipped mill in the west, of the best selected Bluestem wheat grown anywhere. Patronize home industry. Your grocer sells American Beauty for $1.20 Per Sack.

Merchant Millers and Grain Buyers
Athena, Oregon. - - - - - Waitsburg, Wash.

R. J. BODDY WHOLESALE BUTCHER

Makes a Specialty of furnishing Meat in Large Quantities.
First-class stock, Reasonable price

Pineules

30 days' treatment for $1.00. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

A dose at bed time usually relieves the most severe case before morning.

BACK-ACHE

SOLD IN ATHENA AT HAWK'S PIONEER DRUG STORE.