WILL HUNT FOR GOLD

Hidden Wealth On Watson Ranch In Washington Will Be Sought After Soon.

That there is a large amount of hidden treasure buried somewhere on the Isaac Watson ranch near Alto, in Columbia county, is evidenced by a statement of E. F. Barker this afternoon, when he stated that Isaac Watson had been seen to dig up a canful of gold there, says the Walla Walla Bulletin.

Isaac Watson was for many years a rancher at Alto, owning about 600 acres of land. He died suddenly last June. The deepest mystery has surrounded the past life of the man, before he became known in this part of the country. He had no known relatives, and it was practically impossible to verify positively just where the man came from. He had lived for many years on his ranch at Alto.

Among other mysterious phases of the life of Watson was the manner in which he kept his money. Although he has been very successful as a farmer, he had very little money, and, although he was comfortably settled on his ranch, he was not living in a manner that would necessitate the spending of his vast income.

It is the general belief of the neighbors in that section of the country that there is more gold buried somewhere on the Watson ranch, and it is more than probable that a search will be instituted in the near future in an effort to locate the hidden money.

The Wisdom of Women

Intelligence makes them shirk from the unwholesome, the anxious excitements, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the agonies and chafe for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It is always cures. It is a strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no acetars or habit-forming drugs, and every medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 33 stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.
