

Press Paragraphs

Mrs. Hurd went down to Pendleton yesterday.

P. D. Mann has opened a blacksmith shop in Adams.

Ad Pinkerton has been tussling with the gripp this week.

Theo Danner was a Pendleton visitor Tuesday night.

H. H. Hill is having his residence wired for electric lights.

Chester Walker visited in Walla Walla the first of the week.

The family of Amiel Schubert has been afflicted with the gripp.

Geo. Gross has returned from his visit to the Willamette valley.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Bern Banister, January 20, 1908, a son.

S. F. Wilson attended a portion of the circuit court term at Pendleton.

Harry Turner, the well known Weston farmer, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Lizzie Jones is visiting her daughter at Pilot Rock for a few days.

Mrs. Wright and daughter, Miss Eva, were visitors in Pendleton yesterday.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills known. Sold by Palace Drug company.

Miss Elsie Myrick will leave tomorrow for Walla Walla, where she will enter the High school.

Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Peterson, of Pendleton will visit at the Dudley home Saturday and Sunday.

John Bell has returned from a couple of weeks stay at Hot Lake, where he went for relief for rheumatism.

Mrs. J. M. Swaggart, who has been ill the past week with gripp, at her home north of town, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tompkins write from Los Angeles that they are having a pleasant time and glorious weather.

Messrs. Henry Barrett and Walter Judy will entertain the members of the skating club at the rink tonight.

DeWitt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve is especially recommended for piles. Sold by Pioneer Drug company.

Win Burden was in town Tuesday. He has recently been at Kahlolus Wash., and was on his way to Baker City.

The display in Dell Bros. show windows is appetizing. While passing, inspect the good things to eat shown there.

Mrs. Orvie Castleman leaves today for her home in Portland, accompanied by her mother and sister, Miss Golda.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerberding were over from Weston Monday, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester O'Harra.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Parker are down from St. Johns, Wash. on a visit to relatives and friends. Mr. Parker recently recovered from an attack of gripp.

The Preson-Parton mill has been shut down part of the week on account of repairs being made in the machinery.

J. P. O'Connor, formerly engaged in the life insurance business, is in the city, selling stock in a wireless telegraph company.

Two Franklin cars were in the city yesterday from Walla Walla. Demonstrations were made in the presence of prospective purchasers.

Ernest Bostwick, who left Athena some time ago and is now in Spokane, has rented 800 acres of land near Riville, which he will farm.

Chas. Gay and family left Wednesday for their new home in Waitsburg, Wash., where Mr. Gay will engage in the confectionery business.

Miss Sylvia Beathe has returned to her duties as saleslady in the Mosgrove Mercantile store, after a few days absence on account of sickness.

Mr. G. A. Hurley of Vale, Oregon, was a guest Sunday at the Plamondon home. Mr. Hurley is a lawyer at Vale and is also editor of a newspaper.

Mr. Henry Adams was a business visitor to Weston Tuesday. Mr. Adams is financially interested in the Weston Store, recently closed by the sheriff.

Miss Norma Smith, who has been ill for two weeks, is now convalescing. The young lady's sickness was a complication of measles and la gripp.

Rev. and Mrs. V. E. Hoven went down to Pendleton yesterday, where they will attend the meetings now in progress there under Evangelist Wilson.

J. H. Stone has taken over the R. J. Boddy Meat Market. He invites all his old customers and new ones, too, to call on him when desiring good meat.

Elmer Connick has returned from a business visit at Waitsburg, Wash. Mrs. Connick will leave soon for a visit of several weeks with her mother there.

Wanted—by man and wife, job on farm, woman a good cook and man not afraid of work. Address D. C. Bowman, sr. Pendleton, 902 West Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCorkell, of Briggson, were in town the first of the week, and visited their daughters, Mrs. John Rothrock and Mrs. Joseph Sheard.

Byrl Kidwell, buyer for the Meat and Cold storage Co. of Walla Walla, shipped a carload of hogs from Athena to that city Tuesday. While here Mr. Kidwell was a guest at the A. A. Foss home.

B. B. Richards of this city, will conduct the Pendleton office of the Puget Sound Warehouse company during the absence of Agent Montgomery in California.

Henry Dell is learning the art of making his own taffy, under the direction of Dr. Heisley, and soon at Dell Bros.' establishment will be on sale these famed confections.

Wednesday evening a number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Worthington and spent the evening very pleasantly with games and music. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Conley, Mr. and Mrs. Lester O'Harra, Miss Sylvia Beathe, and Mr. Cunningham.

C. A. Barrett president of the Inland Grain Grower's association has issued a call for a meeting of the association to take place in Pendleton tomorrow afternoon at 1:30.

Postmaster Gibbens has improved the interior of the post office to some extent. Wire lattice work has been put around the top of the office inclosure, extending up to the ceiling.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Whiteman visited in Weston the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Whiteman, who have been visiting there have returned to their home in Connell, Wash.

Rev. C. M. Norris of Waterman station, pastor of the Free Methodist church, will preach next Sunday in Weston at the home of Mrs. A. C. Staggs, no public building being available in that city.

A pleasant party was enjoyed by the young people at the home of Mr. Charley Booher Wednesday evening. Games were played, and refreshments were served by the young hostess, Miss Anna Booher.

A. L. Swaggart's thoroughbred Poland Chins stock continues to be in demand throughout the Northwest for breeding purposes. This week he shipped two fine specimens to Pine Valley, Baker county and one to Eltopia, Wash.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system. It contains no opiates—it is pleasant to take and is highly recommended for children. Sold by Palace Drug company.

Miss Ettabell Swaggart has been named school librarian of District No. 30. The library books for the different schools of this vicinity are now at the Press office, where they may be had by librarians calling and receipting for them.

Mrs. Smith, of Hilgard, arrived in the city Wednesday and with her son, Mr. Gilliland, O. R. & N. telegraph operator, will occupy the Spencer cottage on High street. Her household goods arrived the same day and they will immediately set up housekeeping.

Many of the young friends of Clifford Stone gathered at the home of his parents last Friday evening for the purpose of giving him a farewell party. The young man left the next day to matriculate with Columbia College at Milton, making his home with his uncle, J. M. Stone.

Mrs. Fred Gross sr. suffered a very severe scald on the right arm, extending from wrist to elbow, last Friday. She was lifting a boiler of scalding hot water, when in some manner it slipped, throwing the water over her arm. The skin came off in strips, causing a very sore arm.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stone arrived in the city Saturday from their wedding trip. They visited relatives and friends at Hood River and in Crook county. They will reside in the residence recently vacated by Charles Gay, and Mr. Stone will conduct a meat market in Athena.

In from eight to 12 school districts throughout the county, the semi-annual eighth grade examinations were started yesterday. Between 50 and 60 applicants for advancement will endeavor to answer the questions prepared by the state superintendent. The papers will be graded by the county board of examiners.

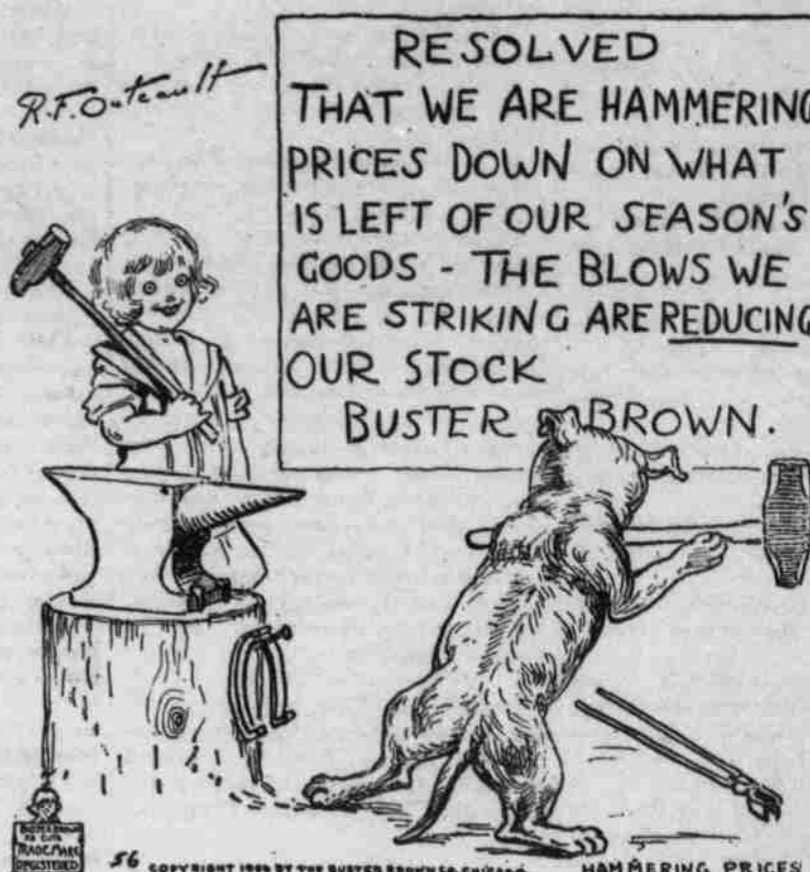

A most interesting session of Pythian Lodge No. 29, K. of P. took place last evening in Castle Hall. The third rank was conferred on J. H. Stone. The local degree team was materially assisted in the work by members of Stevens lodge of Weston. A splendid lunch was served after the regular lodge session.

Oliver Dickenson went over to Walla Walla Wednesday to consult an eye specialist regarding a serious affection of the eyes, with which he is afflicted. Some time ago he had the misfortune to get something in the eye, which he neglected to have extracted. Both eyes became badly inflamed, and bloodpoisoning was feared.

Geo. Surbeck, father of F. B. Surbeck of this city, died at Baker City yesterday, after a short illness. Mr. Surbeck had arrived but a few days ago from Ohio, and came to Oregon with the intention of making his home with his sons, one of whom resides in Baker City, one at Walla Walla and one here. The remains will be interred at Walla Walla tomorrow.

Gizzoner, Justice of the Peace Richards, was called upon to perform a marriage ceremony Saturday evening, shortly after the arrival of the Pendleton-Walla Walla mixed train. The happy couple were made one in short order by the obliging Justice, and proceeded on at once, their destination being North Yakima. The contracting parties were Theo. Potts and Miss Mary Fuller of Echo.

Drs. Heisley entertained their patients and friends at their hospitable home last evening to the number of 30 or more. A genuine "candy pull" was the feature of the evening. The doctor is an expert candy maker and many of his friends from time to time enjoy his dainty confections. These entertainments are a permanent feature with Dr. and Mrs. Heisley, and in the near future they expect to have in their home a number of other friends to enjoy their hospitality.

OUR WINTER STOCK IS FAST REDUCING BECAUSE THE PEOPLE OF THIS COMMUNITY KNOW THAT WHEN WE SAY HAMMER PRICES, WE DO HAMMER PRICES DOWN ON LEGITIMATE, REGULAR MERCHANDISE, AND NOT ON SHIPPED IN "JOB LOTS." WE WISH TO LET OUR PRICES TALK.

The Place to Save Money
Jarman's Big Fair Store.

Only One More Week Left

February 1st will be the last day of our great 11th annual January Clearance Sale. After this date all goods will again be sold at regular prices only. The Yellow Tags will then be a thing of the past. Hundreds of our friends have already availed themselves of this opportunity, but we wish to impress on them that there never has been such rare bargains offered, and the chances are, never will be again, so that if you need any home furnishings, now is the right time to make your purchases.

Remember, practically everything in our $150,000 stock has been included in this Sale, and even at these exceptionally low prices we will prepay the freight on orders amounting to $10 or over that sum.

Sale Ends February 1st

The Dais Kaser Company
Complete Home and House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Wash. Pasco, Wash.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

We are taking inventory, and we find we have a great accumulation of Remnants of all kinds and shall sell them from now until February 1st at cost and many of them at less. Now is the time to get bargains for Children's Dresses, Skirts and Shirt Waists.

If you can find the lengths to suit you, you are sure to get more for your money than ever before.

B. & H. Trading Stamps with all cash purchases.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

Athena, Oregon