

Press Paragraphs

Frank Coolidge visited Pendleton Tuesday.

Lester Swaggart came up from Pendleton yesterday.

J. M. Hayes was up from Pendleton Wednesday on business.

Walter Preston spent Saturday and Sunday in Walla Walla.

Mrs. Howe goes to Pendleton this afternoon for a short visit.

Mrs. Laura Alexander came over from Walla Walla yesterday.

Miss Alta Sharp went to Walla Walla Wednesday, for a visit.

Mrs. E. A. Dudley was a Pendleton visitor last week, coming home Saturday.

Hugh McLean has returned from Hot Lake, where he spent a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Charles Norris, who has been seriously ill with the gripe, is recovering.

Rev. Putnam closed a series of successful meetings at Adams Sunday night.

Angus Gillis came down from his home in Adams county, Wash, Wednesday.

Mr. Castello, a popular student of the Normal at Weston, was in the city Sunday.

Dr. Keelor of Walla Walla was in the city Wednesday on professional business.

J. E. Froome, the hotel man, had business at the county seat the first of the week.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills known. Sold by Palace Drug company.

Mr. Gilliland, the O. R. & N. operator, was ill this week and incapacitated for work.

Mrs. Wilkinson is spending the week at the home of Mrs. W. R. Taylor near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Whiteman were guests of Walla Walla friends the first of the week.

A. L. Swaggart shipped a thoroughbred Poland China sow to E. Gill, of Dufur, Wasco county.

Miss Della Danner goes down to Pendleton on this afternoon's train to spend a couple of days.

J. H. Ridenour left Tuesday for his home in Portland, after some weeks' visit here and at Weston.

W. H. Reeder has returned to his home in Tacoma, after a visit of a couple of weeks with his children here.

Attorney S. F. Wilson will leave Saturday evening for North Powder, where he goes on professional business.

The East Oregonian estimates there are 1500 cases of La Grippe in Umatilla county of which Pendleton claims 500.

Miss Smith, a trained nurse of experience, has charge of the case of John Gillis, who is ill with appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bell were up from their home near Myrick station, and attended the skating party Friday night.

Mrs. M. L. Watts is now able to attend to her household duties and the prospects are bright for a pleasant California trip.

Rev. Isreal Putnam, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, attended the Union revival meetings in Pendleton this week.

Main street business lots in Hermiston sell for $100 per foot frontage. Robt. Forrester recently sold 15 feet at this price.

Grandma Mansfield, the mother of Mrs. A. L. Jones, has been ill the past week with la grippe, but at present is recovering.

The Sunday school class of young ladies, conducted by Mrs. Theo. Danner, will give a tea and social soon at the Christian church.

Miss Rose Fletcher, a trained nurse from Walla Walla, came over yesterday to attend the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Jarman.

Trains for passenger and freight traffic are being operated on the North Bank road between Pasco and Lyle, Wash, a distance of 145 miles.

The Farmers' Telephone line is improving its service and extending its lines so that the whole mountain district will be in touch with the towns.

Wm. Winship is having a hard tussle with rheumatism in his feet, after a prolonged attack of the gripe. He has been ill for about three weeks.

Mrs. A. B. McEwen leaves today for Pendleton, where she will visit her children in the academy, and attend the great Haudenschild meetings.

Mrs. A. L. Jones came home from Pilot Rock Wednesday, where she has been visiting her daughter Mrs. Frank Boynton, who recently gave birth to a baby boy.

Attorney Will M. Peterson, accompanied by his brother, C. C. Peterson, who recently arrived from North Carolina, were in the city for a few hours Wednesday.

The ladies Aid society of the M. E. church are preparing to give a Washington tea on February 23, in the Epworth League rooms. Further announcements will be made later.

The Milton gun club has been reorganized, with Mr. Cookburn as president. About 30 new members were received into the club at a meeting held there Tuesday evening.

A Freewater report says the price of stove wood in that city is $6 per cord delivered, and those who bought wood at $8 not delivered, early in the season, are now kicking themselves.

Henry Koepke arrived home from Columbus, Ohio, Wednesday. Mr. Koepke went east some time ago with the remains of his mother-in-law, which were shipped there for burial.

Kodol is the best remedy known today for dyspepsia, indigestion and all troubles arising from a disordered stomach. It is pleasant, prompt and thorough. Sold by Palace Drug company.

Last night the mercury hovered tentatively in the vicinity of the zero mark. At the Barrett residence one thermometer registered two degrees below zero and another registered six degrees below.

Mrs. Lou M. Hornaday of Walla Walla, will give the annual C. W. B. M. day address at the Church of Christ, next Lord's day at 11 a. m. Ladies of the church are requested to meet Mrs. Hornaday at the church parlor, Saturday afternoon at 3:30.

While soliciting orders in Athena Tuesday, Mr. L. C. Martin of Pendleton, agent for the Grand Union Tea company had his right leg severely injured by a gate striking him. He returned to his home in Pendleton.

Mrs. James Mitchell left for her home in Moro, Wednesday, after a visit of several weeks with her parents here. Miss Nellie Foss accompanied Mrs. Mitchell as far as Pendleton, where she will visit the balance of the week.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system. It contains no opiates—it is pleasant to take and is highly recommended for children. Sold by Palace Drug company.

W. H. H. Scott left last week for a visit with relatives at Clovis, California. His aged mother is at that place with her other sons, James and A. E. D. Mr. Scott will stay until spring, and will probably be accompanied home by Joseph Scott and bride.

Two suits for the recovery of money were filed today in Justice Richards' court by Attorney Wilson. Fred Shoemaker sues Henry Bergevin on a promissory note for $18, and Robert Genovay brings suit against Peter Pamborn to recover the sum of $47.80.

John Gillis who has been critically ill with appendicitis at his home in this city is reported better by Dr. Sharp, the attending physician. Every indication now points to the recovery of Mr. Gillis without resorting to an operation. Dr. Keelor was called in consultation with Dr. Sharp on Tuesday and it was decided that it was unnecessary to send the patient to the hospital at Walla Walla.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Jarman is under quarantine restrictions, where their little daughter, Elouise is dangerously ill with scarlet fever. The little one suffered an attack from this disease last winter in a mild form. Her condition at the present time is at the lowest ebb, the attending physician pronouncing the crisis at hand. A trained nurse arrived yesterday from Walla Walla, and everything possible is being done for the little sufferer.

Grandma Gerking was taken violently sick yesterday morning and small hopes for her recovery were entertained for some time. At present there is little change in her condition, and owing to her advanced age, grave fears are felt by her friends as to her ultimate recovery.

The date on which the revival meetings at the M. E. church will begin is to be announced soon. Evangelist Corradine of St. Louis has sent word that he can come for the purpose of holding a series of meetings and the money for the expense of the meeting has been raised.

John McQuary, the Philippine war veteran, was in town Wednesday and Thursday shaking hands and visiting with old friends. John is now a prosperous farmer in the Washtucna country, Adams county Wash., and values his land holdings at seven or eight thousand dollars.

Clarence LaBrasche has been seriously ill the past week at his home south of Athena with a complication of liver and kidney trouble. The young man was taken sick about two weeks ago and gradually became worse until Wednesday, when a slight change for the better took place.

A rumor was in circulation this morning to the effect that Nelson Stamper had died yesterday at Potlatch, Wash. The cause of the rumor was a telegram, announcing the death of John McBride, a grandson of Mr. Stamper's. The telegram was to Henry Stamper of Weston, announcing the boy's death.

In the Turner will case A. F. Turner et al., appellants, vs. O. C. Turner et al., respondents, the decision of Judge Bean was affirmed by the Supreme Court. In this case the appellant sought to have the courts set aside the will of the late Mrs. C. A. Turner by which her property was left to O. C. Turner.

This evening at the City Hall, the citizens' mass meeting for the purpose of nominating municipal officers will be held, and doubtless the meeting will be well attended. Dr. Plamondon is being urged by his friends to again accept the office of Mayor and David Taylor is also being talked of as a possible candidate.

Miss Emma Luedtke has been suffering from a very severe attack of tonsillitis. It was feared at first that it was diphtheria, as there was a gray membrane formed over the tonsils. All precautions were taken and the house was quarantined for a day, but it soon developed that it was tonsillitis and the quarantine was removed.

Nearly three inches of snow fell Wednesday afternoon and evening in this vicinity and insures moisture that was badly needed for growing grain. The snow storm was general and extended north as far as Pasco. In the mountains considerable snow fell. At Kamela there is two feet of new snow. At that place there was about eight inches of old snow on the ground.

Mrs. H. B. Nelson, formerly of Weston, but now a resident of Franklin county, Wash., is in a Walla Walla hospital and her condition is reported to be extremely critical. Her daughter, Mrs. Victor Chastain, of Lewiston, Idaho, who has been wintering in California, had been summoned to her bedside and her son Mr. Clark Nelson, of Pendleton, is with her most of the time.

John Cummings, the Weston merchant, has taken advantage of the bankruptcy law and the matter is now in the hands of Judge Thomas Fitz Gerald, referee in bankruptcy. According to the statement made by Cummings his total assets amount to $3770, while his liabilities are $3953.58. Of the latter the sum of $483 is due the Saling estate for rent, $3,200 is due Henry Adams, while $194.40 is owed M. Born & Co., of Chicago.

The skating party given at the rink last Friday evening by H. A. Barrett and Walter Judy was replete with new features for entertainment. A rose contest was held, all the skaters participating, and Miss Cecile Boyd was the successful contestant. Instrumental numbers by Misses Kittie Gholson, Lucile Kemp and Mary Booher and a vocal solo by Mrs. J. D. Plamondon, were highly appreciated. Cake and fruit punch was served by Mrs. Harry McBride and Mrs. I. M. Kemp.

Lamar Union No. 6, of the Farmer's Co-operative Educational Association of America, is in a flourishing condition. Twenty new members have recently been added to the roll. A. L. Swaggart is president and Cass Cannon vice president of Lamar Union, which meets on the first and third Monday nights in each month. Many social features are enjoyed by the members. An interesting paper edited by Mrs. Carmichael and an able corps of assistants is read each evening. The pleasures of the next meeting will be marked by a splendid supper.

RESOLVED THAT WE ARE STILL HAMMERING AWAY AT REDUCING OUR STOCK.
WE ARE STILL MAKING THE SPARKS FLY OUT OF OUR PRICES
BUSTER BROWN.

THE TIME HAS ARRIVED WHEN WE WISH TO CLEAN HOUSE QUICKLY OF ALL REMAINING WINTER GOODS. THE VERY LOW PRICES ON ALL OF OUR REGULAR LINES OF CLOTHING, POSSESSING STYLE AND QUALITY, WILL NOW SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES.

The Place to Save Money
Jarman's Big Fair Store.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

We are taking inventory, and we find we have a great accumulation of Remnants of all kinds and shall sell them from now until February 1st at cost and many of them at less. Now is the time to get bargains for Children's Dresses, Skirts and Shirt Waists.

If you can find the lengths to suit you, you are sure to get more for your money than ever before.

B. & H. Trading Stamps with all cash purchases.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

Athena, Oregon

On Your Next Trip to Walla Walla

We want you to make your headquarters at the Davis-Kaser Store. It's the store that has made the most rapid growth of any store in this section of the country. It's the store that has a special department for handling mail orders. It's the store where you can always find—without any question of a doubt, positively everything that you may need to furnish the home. It's the store where quality is the first consideration—where you cannot buy a trashy article even if you wanted to—and where prices are the proven fairest. Then, it's also the store where your patronage is appreciated, and where satisfaction is guaranteed. Accept our invitation to call when next in Walla Walla, or write us your wants and let us send you pictures and prices. We now have fine catalogs describing and illustrating the best stoves and heaters made. Send for one. Doesn't cost a cent, and we would like a chance to add your name to our big list of out-of-town customers.

The Davis Kaser Company
Complete Home and House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Waah. Pasco, Wash.