

Press Paragraphs

Lowell Rogers was in town Saturday from Adams.

W. D. Chamberlain was in Walla Walla Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton were in Pendleton Tuesday.

Richard Wright has returned to his home in this city.

Valentines from one cent up to $1.50 at the Palace drug store.

Frank Coolidge was a business visitor in Adams, Wednesday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Jackson, January 27, 1908, a son.

See the fine assortment of Valentines at the Palace drug store.

Chas. Brotherton and Gus Schubert had business at the county seat this week.

Frank Coolidge left yesterday for a business trip to Pendleton and other points.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills known. Sold by Palace Drug company.

The sum of $25,000 is to be expended in improvements at Columbia College, Milton, this year.

Irajan Tucker, a prosperous farmer who resides east of Weston was trading in Athena Tuesday.

Leroy Smith, of Wenatchee, Wash., a cousin of C. T. Smith, was in the city the first of the week.

Marion Hansell, who is now a rising young farmer west of town, spent part of last week in Pendleton.

I. M. Kemp will engage in the insurance business. He is also agent for an Alberta land company.

A marriage license has been issued to William McBeau and Miss Caroline Allen, both of this county.

H. C. Richardson, formerly of the Inland Mercantile company, at Adams, may open a store at Weston.

The largest assortment of Valentines ever displayed in Athena are to be found at the Palace drug store.

Fred Kershaw is attending to the business at B. B. Richards' office during the latter's absence in Pendleton.

Clarence La Brasche, while still very weak from his illness, is much better and is on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Elmer Johnson and her twin babies are visiting friends in this city, from their home in Rhyolite, Nevada.

Attorney S. E. Wilson returned Tuesday evening from a professional visit to North Powder and La Grande.

R. Alexander, a prominent Pendleton merchant, has been elected president of the Commercial association of that city.

Tribune: Mrs. Will M. Peterson and little son have returned from a visit of a few days with relatives in Athena.

Mrs. W. J. King went to Pendleton yesterday, accompanying her son, Ed Engleman that far on his way home to Portland.

Mrs. Mattie More is expected soon to arrive on a visit to her mother here from her present home near Cambridge, Idaho.

Wm. Harden, of the Athena hotel, returned Sunday from a visit with his son, Jasper Harden and wife at their farm near Helix.

Ed Engleman, well known in this city, was up from his Portland home this week visiting his mother, Mrs. W. J. King.

Take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They promptly relieve backache and weak back. Sold by Palace Drug company.

There will be a leap year ball at the opera house, this evening, February 7. La Brasche's orchestra has been secured for the occasion.

John Peebler came up from Pendleton Tuesday. Mr. Peebler's Pendleton friends are urging him to accept the nomination for county recorder.

S. F. Le Grow and W. R. Taylor were in the Cold Springs country Wednesday looking after their big band of cattle. Their stock is looking well.

The Preston-Parton Mill is grinding out a big consignment of flour for the Oriental trade. An order for 10,000 barrels of flour was received the other day.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Walker have moved their household effects from the west side of town to the M. E. parsonage, where they will reside in the future.

John Duffy is confined to his bed in Walla Walla. He has been afflicted for some time with an ulcer on one of his limbs, and his ailment is growing decidedly worse.

Mrs. Margaret Howe has been quite ill the past week, and her cousin, Mrs. Elliot, of Milton drove over from that place Monday evening for the purpose of attending upon her.

Two nominating petitions have been filed with the county clerk. The two candidates who have filed notices of their intentions are Recorder Hendley and Treasurer Bradley.

Mrs. M. L. Watts and daughter, Vernita, left today for Walla Walla, where they will take the excursion train for California. Mr. Watts accompanied them to Walla Walla.

C. A. Barrett, president of the Inland Grain Growers' Association, announces that bids for furnishing grain sacks to the association will be received at Pendleton on February 15.

A. B. Cooley, an extensive wheat grower, residing in the Cold Springs district, will retire, and tomorrow will offer $9,000 worth of stock and farm machinery for sale at public auction.

The Athena Truck company has received two carloads of North Powder ice. The shipment, consisting of 90 tons, is packed away in the company's ice house, near the O. R. & N. tracks.

Miss Wava Michael, who came up from Portland and visited at the home of her uncle, J. T. King last week, will enter the Normal school at Weston for the remainder of the school year.

Mr. Rogers, a recent arrival from Idaho, has purchased the A. H. Johnson property on Hunt Avenue, with his family is now occupying the same. The price paid for the cottage was $600.

Miss Mabel Fountain, who visited her aunt, Mrs. Frank Mansfield, in this city some years ago and made many friends here, was married recently in Wallace, Idaho, to Mr. Jack Marksberry.

Many cayuses are reported to be running at large on the Umatilla Indian reservation. The matter has been brought to the attention of Dr. S. W. McClure, of the government bureau of animal industry.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, former residents of Athena, announce the marriage of their daughter, Georgia, to Peter Parley Proctor, at Grants Pass, Sunday, February 2. Athena friends extend congratulations.

Today in Los Angeles, California, the first annual re-union and banquet of the Oregon colony is being held. The names of Hon. T. J. Kirk and other prominent Oregonians are on the program for five minute table talks.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system. It contains no opiates—it is pleasant to take and is highly recommended for children. Sold by Palace Drug company.

Mrs. Henry Wood and Mr. and Mrs. John Stanton went down to Pendleton Tuesday, to attend the funeral of John James, who died at his home on McKay creek. Mr. James was a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wood.

Mrs. Wheeler, sister of Mrs. D. H. Sanders, accompanied her home from North Yakima, and visited here for several days. Mrs. Sanders accompanied Mrs. Wheeler to Pendleton Saturday, from which place she went to Arlington for a short visit before returning to her home in North Yakima.

The "west side" is at it again, hammer and tongs, against the "east side" down in the town of Hermiston. A suit has been filed in the circuit court having for its purpose the dissolution of the municipal incorporation of the town.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Smith went to Spokane the first of the week where they were guests of friends. Mr. Smith intends going to Wenatchee, Wash., before returning home. He may invest in fruit land in that vicinity.

Dupuis & Company, the bustling Weston grocers, announce that they are paying 60 cents for butter and 30 cents for eggs. This firm is enjoying a lucrative business. "Once a patron always a patron" is the motto of this popular Weston store.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Parker left yesterday for a short visit with friends in Weston, before proceeding to their home near St. Johns, Wash. Mr. Parker has been ill during his stay here, and Mrs. Parker thought best to cut their visit short.

Mrs. Newell, state organizer for the Women of Woodcraft, met with Athena Circle No. 10 Tuesday evening and gave a very instructive talk on the work of the order. Refreshments were served and a social hour spent after the business session.

Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Hurd have opened a boarding house at the M. E. church parsonage on Third street, and are prepared to serve first-class board by the week. A few lodgers can also be furnished rooms. Tables are well supplied with the best the market affords.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kirk remembered several of their Athena friends this week by sending them a generous supply of California oranges from Los Angeles. Each winter Mr. and Mrs. Kirk send a consignment of oranges to friends here and the fruit is always appreciated.

Organizer Saunders of the Woodmen of the World met with the local camp Wednesday night. Two candidates were initiated and five applications for membership were received. The Athena Camp will have ten or fifteen candidates for initiation at the big Woodman convention at Pendleton on February 24.

Three pupils out of four in Athena's 8th grade examination were successful in procuring diplomas. They were Ralph Gillis, Katie Hendrickson and Ross Maloney. This is said to have been an especially severe test, only 14 out of 39 having passed the examinations. Miss Zillah Yerxa, of Umatilla secured the highest average, with 93.6-9 per cent.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Finley left for their home in Pullman, Tuesday, after several days' visit with various friends in this city and vicinity. They were guests at the homes of Chas. Betts, O. A. Rhodes, Henry Koepke and others while here. Mr. and Mrs. Finley also visited their daughter, Mrs. Al Carden in Pendleton, last week.

Rev. Ellis during this last cold snap contracted la grippe; he and Mrs. Ellis have gone to their sons to visit and recuperate at Baker City. Mr. Ellis contracted la grippe some years ago, which left him an asthmatic, and this recent attack has brought on a new case of asthma. He will take osteopathic treatment while there.

The 5-year-old daughter of Mrs. Ernest McCoy of Kamela was severely burned Wednesday morning. The accident happened at the home of a neighbor, where the child's clothing caught fire from a stove. The little one was frightfully burned and it was not known at the time the last reports were received whether the burns would prove fatal or not.

Wm. Winship's experience with inflammatory rheumatism during this changeable weather is not the most pleasant. A day or two ago Dr. Heasley had him up, walking around the room. Then there was a change for the worse, in spite of all that could be done. Some years ago he had his share of this disease. He was unable to walk without crutches for two years.

Mrs. Lou Hornaday, of Walla Walla gave a very interesting address on the work of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions at the Christian church last Sunday. A "quiz" on the work in the various fields was conducted by Mrs. Hornaday, and the members of the local auxiliary responded with ready answers, showing they were well informed in the work. While in the city Mrs. Hornaday was entertained by Mrs. Robert Sharp.

Mrs. D. H. Sanders was called Tuesday to the bedside of her brother, Ralph Ashbaugh, who resides at Condon. Mr. Ashbaugh, who formerly lived here and has many friends in this vicinity, is very low with heart disease. About a year ago he underwent an operation for appendicitis, and has been failing since that time. Mr. Sanders awaits news from him, and should his death occur, will join his wife at Condon.

A Stitch in Time will save nine. So will a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup always kept on hand save many a spell of sickness. A sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Whooping Cough. Mrs. S., Hot Springs, Ark. writes: "I keep a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my medicine chest, and thank my forethought many times. It has prevented many severe spells of sickness." Sold by Palace Drug company.

Public Notice. Notice is hereby given that I will apply to the Mayor and common council of the city of Athena, Oregon, at a meeting thereof to be held on the 27th day of Feb. 1908, for a license to sell spirituous, malt and vinous liquors in less quantities than one quart, said liquors to be sold only in a building situated on the west one-half of lot No. 8, in block 3, of said city.

Rev. G. G. G. Applicant Dated Jan. 21, 1908.

WHETHER YOU WISH FOR SOME ONE ELSE TO BE YOUR VALENTINE OR WHETHER YOU WISH TO BE A VALENTINE FOR SOME ONE ELSE, GOOD CLOTHES ARE NECESSARY. EVERYONE WISHES THE BEST, WE KNOW. SOME CANNOT AFFORD THE BEST BUT MUST TAKE THE NEXT BEST. BECAUSE THAT IS THE BEST THEY CAN DO. TO THE MAN WHO HASN'T MUCH MONEY WE CAN GIVE GOOD BARGAINS.

The Place to Save Money
Jarman's Big Fair Store.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

We are taking inventory, and we find we have a great accumulation of Remnants of all kinds and shall sell them from now until February 1st at cost and many of them at less. Now is the time to get bargains for Children's Dresses, Skirts and Shirt Waists.

If you can find the lengths to suit you, you are sure to get more for your money than ever before.

B. & H. Trading Stamps with all cash purchases.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

Athena, Oregon

On Your Next Trip to Walla Walla

We want you to make your headquarters at the Davis-Kaser Store. It's the store that has made the most rapid growth of any store in this section of the country. It's the store that has a special department for handling mail orders. It's the store where you can always find—without any question of a doubt, positively everything that you may need to furnish the home. It's the store where quality is the first consideration—where you cannot buy a trashy article even if you wanted to—and where prices are the proven fairest. Then, it's also the store where your patronage is appreciated, and where satisfaction is guaranteed. Accept our invitation to call when next in Walla Walla, or write us your wants and let us send you pictures and prices. We now have fine catalogs describing and illustrating the best stoves and heaters made. Send for one. Doesn't cost a cent, and we would like a chance to add your name to our big list of out-of-town customers.

The Davis Kaser Company
Complete Home and House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Wash. Pasco, Wash.