

Press Paragraphs

Mrs. Jones went down to Pendleton Tuesday.

Bert Cartano was a Pendleton visitor Tuesday.

Mr. Neri Ackles of La Grande was in the city Monday.

D. C. McIntyre transacted business in Pendleton Monday.

Arnold Wood returned from a visit to Pendleton, Tuesday.

C. H. Sherman transacted business in Pendleton Tuesday.

Born, February 27, to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hodgson, a son.

Mrs. J. H. Eitman is recovering from a three weeks' illness.

G. De Graw, the well known Weston farmer, was in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Weir were down from their home near Washtucna this week.

Arthur Scott was among the Pendleton-bound passengers Tuesday morning.

Noah Remillard came over from Walla Walla Monday, and spent the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coolidge were in Adams Wednesday on a short business trip.

Miss Edna Hopper came over from Milton and spent the week with her parents here.

The family of H. C. Caton have moved to the farm near town to begin spring work.

Sheriff T. D. Taylor was up from Pendleton to visit his parents the first of the week.

Mrs. Belle Miller, of Weston, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Miller Sunday.

Mrs. Shelly Jones, of Pendleton, is a guest of her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones.

Mrs. Melinda Ellis of Weston died in that city Tuesday afternoon, after a lingering illness.

Charles Estes came up from Pendleton Sunday and spent the day with relatives in Athena.

Warren Raymond came over from Walla Walla Wednesday, and spent the day in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bell are up from their farm near Myrick station, visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Coffey of Adams, visited with their daughter Mrs. Barker, in this city, Saturday.

Mayor and Mrs. Plamondon went down to Pendleton Friday evening, returning Saturday noon.

Miss Lula Duncan, of Weston, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Venard Bell, near town.

N. A. Miller went down to Portland Sunday, where he will purchase furniture from the wholesalers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wagner went over to Walla Walla yesterday morning, and will return tomorrow.

Mrs. Wm. Pinkerton, Sr., is ill and bedfast at her home near town. The trouble is of a dyspeptic nature.

Mr. and Mrs. Olcott, of Pilot Rock, were in the city Monday and attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank Beale.

Mr. Ed Massam, an old pioneer of Walla Walla county, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones Sunday.

Miss Grace Blake and Fred Blake, of Adams, were in the city Wednesday returning home Thursday morning.

P. D. Mann came up from Adams Wednesday evening and superintended the management of the skating rink.

E. A. Dudley has purchased 40 acres of land from Paul Bushman, on the reservation. The price was $70 per acre.

A big crop of squirrels is reported on the hillsides north of town and many a "22" is being put in proper shape this week. The warfare begins Sunday.

The famous Sunny South minstrels will give an entertainment at Weston opera house tomorrow night, at 8 o'clock.

Coroner Ralph Folsom, who was in town Wednesday, announced that he would again be a candidate for the office.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Pichel have returned to their home in Alberta, after a protracted visit with friends in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Conniok returned Tuesday from Waitsburg, where they visited relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Matheny, of Walla Walla, were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Douglas, in this city.

Rev. B. F. Harper, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Milton, was in the city Monday, and called at the Press office.

John Stanton left yesterday for Shaniko, from which place he starts on his annual sheep-shearing tour with Jesse Lieualten's crew.

J. N. B. Gerking arrived in town last week and is attending his aged mother, who is ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor.

First opening of spring hats will take place the last of next week at the Jones & Jackson millinery store. Street styles will be on display.

William Killgore of Weston, is reported dangerously ill with typhoid fever at Kirksville, Mo. Weston relatives have gone to his bedside.

Mrs. J. J. Gross of Walla Walla, spent a couple of days in Athena this week, coming over Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. F. J. Beale.

The family of Mr. Oleson, who is employed in the Preston-Parton mill, have arrived and taken up their residence in the Arthur Shick cottage.

Albert Bales and his mother, Mrs. Jane Walker, will move from Pendleton back to their home in Athena as soon as the lease to the present occupants has expired.

Rev. and Mrs. Geo. T. Ellis arrived home from Baker City yesterday. Mr. Ellis is somewhat improved in health. Rev. Ellis will preach in the Baptist church Sunday morning.

W. P. Leach, who has been spending the winter in Portland, came up from the metropolis Monday for the purpose of beginning spring work on his ranch, east of Weston.

Harvey Caton returned yesterday from a week's visit with his father, Hon. N. T. Caton, at his home in Davenport, Wash. Judge Caton is recovering from a protracted illness.

Mrs. Samuel Gholson, wife of a brother of W. J. Gholson of this city, died at her home at Dayton, Washington, yesterday forenoon. Funeral services will be held at Dayton, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Preston came in from their farm near Waitsburg Wednesday by motor car, and spent a few hours with Athena friends. They returned to Walla Walla in the evening.

Miss Anna Baker gave a party last Saturday to the little girls of the Sunday school class, of which she is a member, and all enjoyed a happy afternoon at her home on High street.

J. I. Froome, well known in Athena, was in the city Monday from Waitsburg. Mr. Froome is not engaged in farming at present, but has a town residence in the thriving little Washington town.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Le Grow went over to Walla Walla Wednesday evening in company with Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Preston, where they witnessed the production of the popular comic opera, "Red Feather."

D. B. Jarman, of Jarman's Department store, made a business trip to Walla Walla Wednesday. He has been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism the past week, but manages to keep on the move.

Miss Stella Jackson, who was employed in the millinery establishment of Mrs. Lizzie Jones last season, has formed a partnership in the business, and the firm name will now be known as Jones & Jackson. Miss Jackson, with her mother, has taken up residence in the rooms in the the Carden building where they will be at home to their friends.

Walter Preston went to Walla Walla Friday evening, and spent the time until Monday with relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gerberding and Miss Stella O'Harra of Weston are guests today of Mr. and Mrs. Lester O'Harra.

At a special meeting of the city council last evening, Bert Cartano was granted a saloon license for the period of one year.

Charles Russell, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Russell, has suffered a relapse in a serious illness from pneumonia, and has been in a bad condition for several days.

A wallet, containing letters and papers, showing it to be the property of Mr. Sidney Geering, was found and left at the Press office. Same can be had by calling and paying for this notice.

Wm Potts, who has been farming land in the Cold Springs region, has moved his family to Sand Hollow, where they will live in the future. Mrs. Potts was trading with Athena merchants this week.

Mrs. Lena Gerking, of Pilot Rock was in the city Friday evening having come to visit the bedside of her mother-in-law, Grandma Gerking. The condition of the sufferer is thought to be slightly improved at present.

Glen Saling and family, who have spent the past winter at the Turner farm near Weston, have moved to Pendleton, where Mr. Saling will take up his old calling, that of a printer. He will be employed on the Tribune.

Mrs. J. F. Kershaw went down to Portland this week, where she will be the guest of her sister and mother, Mrs. O. A. Castleman and Mrs. Barbara Willaby for some time. Their home is at 126, Killingworth Avenue.

Mrs. Swaney of Pasco is a guest at the Danner home this week. Mr. Swaney, who was formerly electrician for the Preston-Parton Milling company in this city, is now firing a locomotive on the Northern Pacific, out of Pasco.

Little Nina Tharp has been very ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tharp, the past couple of weeks, with a swelling of the glands of the neck. It is hoped the little one will recover without recourse to an incision.

The Annual Sunday School Convention will be held in the Congregational church at Freewater on March 4th and 5th. Rev. C. A. Phipps, State Field Worker, will be present during the entire session. An interesting program is being prepared.

Stevens Lodge K. of P. of Weston held an interesting meeting Wednesday evening. Initiatory work was on the program in the three ranks, after which supper was served. Seven members of Pythian lodge braved the inclement weather and attended the meeting.

H. L. Wilhelm, editor and publisher of the popular Coast Magazine, accompanied by his wife, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Wilhelm was engaged in securing data for a Umatilla county number of his magazine. The February number was devoted to Lincoln county, Wash.

Weiser Signal: Born, to Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Henry, at Thousand Springs Valley, Tuesday morning, February 18th, a girl. Mother and babe doing nicely, but for a time it was feared C. O. would suffer a relapse. He now hums that dear old tune, "Papa's Baby Girl," and then some.

Mrs. D. H. Sanders has returned from Condon, where she went some weeks ago to visit her brother, Ralph Ashbaugh, who is very low with heart trouble. He was recently taken to a hospital in The Dalles for treatment, although the physicians held out little hope for his recovery.

The High school girls of Athena gave a leap year skating party at the rink Wednesday evening, inviting their young men friends, and all spent a pleasant evening in the merry whirl. Mrs. A. A. Foss was chaperon for the party, and was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Fred Johnson.

Miss Mabel Jenkins is in the city from her home near Salem, and will visit her sister, Mrs. O. A. Rhodes for some weeks. Miss Mabel is greeted by many old schoolmates with whom happy days were spent during the time her father, J. W. Jenkins, was pastor of the Christian church in this city.

The annual meeting of the Inland Grain Growers' Association will be held at Pendleton, Saturday, March 7. At this meeting officers will be elected, and it is expected that the O. R. & N. company will have a representative present to take up the matter of the proposed connection of O. R. & N. and N. P. tracks.

D. B. Jarman, who is opening a new store in Weston, spent Sunday at his home in this city. Mr. Jarman is elated over the prospects at present indicated in the success of his latest business venture in Weston. Having conducted a mercantile business in Weston before he sees many old faces among his customers.

W. A. Saunders, well known to Athena people, with his wife and children, is visiting relatives in this vicinity. Leaving Athena some years ago, Mr. Saunders engaged in railroad work and soon climbed from the position of locomotive fireman to the engineer's side of the cab. He now runs an engine out of La Grande and is enjoying his annual vacation.

RESOLVED THAT THE MARCH WINDS
BLOW THE WINTER AWAY
AND MAKE IT NECESSARY TO GET READY FOR SPRING ARE YOU READY FOR SPRING?

BUSTER BROWN

THE MARCH WINDS ARE CHILLY; DO YOU NOT WISH TO KEEP THE CHILL OFF AND PUT THE APPEARANCE ON? SOME PEOPLE SAY THAT THINGS ARE NOT AS THEY SEEM. DO YOU BELIEVE THAT A MAN WHO HASN'T A SWELL SPRING OVER-COAT GETS ALONG AS WELL AS A MAN WHO HAS? YOU WEAR YOUR OVER-COAT ON TOP. WE CAN GIVE YOU TIP TOP TOP-COATS AT REASONABLE PRICES.

The Place to Save Money

Jarman's Big Fair Store.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

We are now showing the finest and most up to date line of wool Dress Goods in all the new fabrics and coloring. Also in stripes and many other new effects. Our stock has never been so extensive and varied as it has proved to be this Season.

Silk and Wool waistings

Ladies' Muslin Underwear

Lace and Embroidery trimmed. A new line just received. All the newest designs. We shall be pleased to have you give us a call and look through this new and up to date Merchandise, whether you wish to buy or not. No trouble to show goods. The celebrated B. & H. trading stamps with every cash purchase.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

Athena, Oregon

On Your Next Trip to Walla Walla

We want you to make your headquarters at the Davis-Kaser Store. It's the store that has made the most rapid growth of any store in this section of the country. It's the store that has a special department for handling mail orders. It's the store where you can always find—without any question of a doubt, positively everything that you may need to furnish the home. It's the store where quality is the first consideration—where you cannot buy a crummy article even if you wanted to—and where prices are the proven fairest. Then, it's also the store where your patronage is appreciated, and where satisfaction is guaranteed. Accept our invitation to call when next in Walla Walla, or write us your wants and let us send you pictures and prices. We now have fine catalogs describing and illustrating the best stoves and heaters made. Send for one. Doesn't cost a cent, and we would like a chance to add your name to our big list of out-of-town customers.

The Davis Kaser Company

Complete Home and House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Waah. Pasco, Wash.