

A VERY OLD PAPER

A SOUL WINNING MINISTRY IN FOUR PARTS.

Tacoma Woman Has Old Paper Describing Obsequies of the First President.

By Rev. Israel Putnam.

Mrs. H. F. Moon of Tacoma owns a valuable relic in the shape of a copy of the Ulster County Gazette, of Kingston, N. J., published in January, 1800, a few days after the funeral of President George Washington.

Part Third. In these years there has been at work a subtle influence of evil by which the power of prayer has been sadly discounted.

"Washington Entombed. Georgetown, Va., Dec. 20, 1799.—On Wednesday last the mortal part of Washington the Great—the father of his country and the friend of man—was consigned to the tomb with solemn honors and with funeral pomp.

The first night following the conversion of Father Chiquy he spent in prayer. The next day he preached and a thousand souls were won. A Baptist minister, during a pastorate of 14 years, received some into the church every communion service, through the prayers of a suffering saint.

"A multitude of persons assembled from many miles around at Mount Vernon, the choice abode and last residence of the illustrious chief. There were the groves, the spacious avenues, the beauty and sublime scenes—the noble mansion but, alas, the august inhabitant was no more! The great soul was gone! His mortal part was there, indeed, but, ah! how affecting! How awful the spectacle of such worth and greatness thus fallen! Yes, fallen, indeed!

"Prayer is appointed to convey the blessings God designs to give." With joyful communion it opens the morn's first hour and with trustful repose closes the last at night with the same blessed communion.

"In the long and lofty porticoes where oft the hero walked in all his glory now lay the shrouded corpse, the countenances still composed and serene, still expressing the magnanimity of the spirit which had dwelt in that lifeless form.

If more time was given to prayer and less to dollars, especially in the doubtful methods often used to obtain them, there would be more of dollars and souls to encourage men and please God.

"On the ornament at the head of the coffin was inscribed 'Surge and judicium.' About the middle of the coffin 'Glorio Deo,' and on the silver plate, 'General Washington departed this life on the 14th day of December, 1799. Age 68.'"

Ten hours is usually given to temporal things while one is spent with purpose to win souls. Is this God's way? Or did Jesus say, "Seek first the Kingdom of God and these things shall be added?"

"Between 3 and 4 o'clock the sound of artillery from a vessel in the river firing minute guns awake afresh our solemn sorrow. The corpse was moved. A band of music with mournful melody melted the soul into all the tenderness of woe.

I care not how distant, or humble the field, or difficult the problem, or severe the conflicts, the man who has God's commission to preach the Everlasting Gospel is the King's messenger with the King's message.

Infantry (with arms reversed). Guard. Music. Clergy.

In an important sense a true minister of Christ is a discoverer of immortal souls, one of which is of more value than ten thousand worlds.

General's horse, with his saddle holster and pistols. Colonel Simms, Colonel Ramsey, Colonel Payne (pall-bearers). Colonel Gilpin, Colonel Marteller, Colonel Little (pall-bearers). Mourners. Masonic Brethren. Citizens.

The old remedies are the best. Hickory Bark Cough Remedy has been in use for over one hundred years by the old Dutch Dunkards of Pennsylvania, and is still in use by all the old families of Western Pennsylvania.

"When the party had arrived at the bottom of the elevated land on the banks of the Potomac, where the family vault is placed, the cavalcade halted; the infantry marched toward the Mount and formed their lines; the clergy, the Masonic brothers, and the citizens descended to the vault and the funeral service of the church was performed; the firing was repeated from the vessel in the river, and the sound echoed from the woods and hills around."

COMMON SENSE. The intelligent people to use only the best of known composition, therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the seal of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrappers and seals its correctness under oath, are daily proving in favor.

"The sun was now setting. Alas, the Sun of Glory had set forever! No! The name of Washington, the American president and general, will triumph over death! The unclouded brightness of his glory will illuminate future ages."

Dr. Pierce's medicines are open to every body. Dr. Pierce being desirous of having the search light of investigation turned upon his formula, being convinced that the best of known composition of medicines is known, the more will their great curative merits be recognized.

sacrifice and labors of love, while Wellington is known to the world as a man of selfish aims and a destroyer of his fellow men. Of these two, which, think you, is greater in Heaven's sight today?

The man who has not a high conception of the call and office of the christian ministry cannot speak with authority. Here is the secret of many a man's failure. He is not sure of his commission. He has little confidence and knows not where to cast his reliance.
