

Press Paragraphs

Wm. McBride was a Pendleton visitor Tuesday.

Attorney S. F. Wilson was in Pendleton Tuesday.

Walter Preston visited in Walla Walla over Sunday.

Luke Head is in the city from Arlington, visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Stone visited friends at Milton Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Saling of Pendleton, were in the city this week.

Rev. Putnam, pastor of the M. E. church, was in Pendleton Tuesday.

Lester Swaggart of Pendleton, transacted business in this city Wednesday.

Louis, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stewart, is ill at their home west of town with lagrip.

Casper Woodward was in town yesterday purchasing supplies for his big ranch west of town.

A. J. Willaby is having his home on Jefferson street improved by the addition of paint and paper.

A young son of W. A. Saunders is sick at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bell on Jefferson street.

Chester Walker left yesterday for Freewater, where he will be employed in the Eagle flouring mills.

Mrs. E. A. Boyd returned Wednesday from San Francisco, where she spent the winter with her son.

Miss Ada and Harry Bannister, children of Bern Bannister, have both been sick this week with lagrip.

A. L. Swaggart shipped one of his registered Poland China hogs to John Albert of Walla Walla, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank King of Weston, passed through Athena yesterday, on their way to their ranch in Juniper.

Mrs. Mraz, of Colton, Wash., came down Saturday and is a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. I. M. Kemp.

Hamp Boober of Weston delivered hogs in Athena Saturday to a local buyer. He received 5 1-4 cents per pound.

D. B. Jatman returned yesterday from a short stay at Hot Lake, somewhat improved in regard to his rheumatism.

Miss Mattie Birch, of St. Anthony, Idaho, is expected to arrive today, on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Chester Walker.

The entire force of the Mosgrove Mercantile Co., is engaged in unpacking and marking the big stock of new spring goods.

Chester Connick and wife, new arrivals in the city, have leased the Alf Johnson cottage of Mr. Rogers, the present owner.

Mrs. Eva Boddy came over from her home in La Grande yesterday and will visit her many friends in Athena for a short time.

Miss Hazel Crossen, the Pendleton elocutionist was in the city Wednesday, accompanied by Miss Lorenz of the East Oregonian.

Mr. Austin Gilliland, operator at the O. R. & N. station, with his mother, has moved into the Smith cottage in the west part of town.

Mrs. Jake Creighton, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity for several weeks, has returned to her home at Albion, Wash.

Mrs. David Taylor has been confined to her home with illness the past week. Her mother, Grandma Garking, is improving from her long illness.

An exceptionally large and well selected stock of new spring and summer goods has been received by the Mosgrove Mercantile Co. this week.

New goods are arriving daily at the Jarman Department store. A good trade is reported from this enterprising store both in Athena and Weston.

Fred Kershaw is in Portland this week. He will be accompanied home by his wife and daughter, who have been visiting relatives in Portland.

The Rosenzweig cottage on Jefferson street, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry McBride, is undergoing a thorough renovation and other improvements.

C. T. Smith and family left last Saturday for their new home in Wenatchee, Wash. Mr. Smith will be engaged in the fruit growing business on a large scale.

Mrs. T. J. Irwin, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wagner, left for Portland Saturday. She was accompanied to Pendleton by Mr. and Mrs. Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Winslip went over to Walla Walla Sunday, expecting to return next day, but owing to the railroad washout, were unable to get home until Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom DeFrees have moved their family to the residence of Miss Mattie Coppock, in the south part of town. Mr. DeFrees formerly occupied the Bradley cottage.

Last Saturday Chas. Rodine put a $200 draft in a registered letter at Nantou, Alberta, and mailed it to Adams. Mr. Rodine followed the next day but the registered letter has not shown up yet. He now believes the clever mail robber got away with it between Bonner's Ferry and Spokane.

Mrs. Frank Mansfield is about again, after a two weeks' illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. D. N. McDonald and Miss Mabel, who spent the winter months in California, left for their homes Tuesday of this week.

Postmaster Githens has been ill and unable to attend his duties at the post-office for several days this week. The work has been ably looked after by Cleve Myers and Harold Githens.

Al. Swaney was down from Pasco this week, visiting friends. Mr. Swaney was formerly electrician for the Preston-Parton Co. in this city, but is at present engaged in railroading.

Dean Gerking is recovering from a serious illness, occasioned by overwork during the illness of his twin babies, one of which died last Friday. The other baby is expected now to recover.

The Press was misinformed in regard to Mrs. J. T. King entering a sanitarium in Portland. Mrs. King merely goes on a visit with relatives there, and her indisposition is nothing serious.

An order for 1,000 loaves of bread is easy for the Athena Bakery, and if all reports are true, we may expect to see our friend Jones sporting an auto soon.

The Press is informed that Ira Luna, who with his wife has spent the past winter in Spokane, has leased a house in Athena and will soon move here to reside. Mrs. Luna is already here.

H. C. Caton is having his town residence remodeled, for the occupancy of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Koutz, who will move as soon as convenient. The Caton family are in their farm home near town.

F. B. Surbeck, who has been under the care of Dr. Heisely for inflammatory rheumatism is able to be up, and will soon return to the store, which in his absence has been conducted by his sister-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeph Lockwood left Friday for their home in Portland, where Mr. Lockwood is employed as street car conductor. They enjoyed a pleasant visit of two weeks with relatives here.

Mrs. Cox returned Wednesday evening from Portland, where she has been for the past two weeks trimming and selecting stock for her new millinery store, which she has opened in her residence on Main street.

H. L. Wilhelm of the Coast Magazine, completed his work in Athena Monday, and left here for his home in Seattle. The April edition of the Coast will be devoted to a writeup of Umatilla county, exclusively.

W. F. Matlock of Pendleton has purchased two carloads of Missouri mules. A number of the mules will be sent to Alaska to be used in the Matlock mines and the others will be sold to Umatilla county farmers.

The hardware firm of A. B. McEwen & Sons has leased one of the Betz buildings on Main street and will handle a full line of agricultural implements. A line of the famous John Deere plows is now on exhibition.

R. J. Boddy who has been ill for a good portion of the last two years, will go to Walla Walla Saturday where he will enter a hospital. A surgical operation will be performed in the hopes that he will be benefited in health.

Seven members of the local Artisan lodge drove over to Weston Monday night and visited the lodge at that place. They were royally entertained. A principal feature of the evening was the serving of a delicious collation.

St. Patrick's day was appropriately observed at Mrs. Miller's millinery store. One of the show windows was artistically decorated in green. Hats galore and the trimmings thereto, were arranged in attractive display.

Alex McRea came down from Spokane Wednesday. He is superintending the construction of his combined harvesters, which are being manufactured in that city. He has taken orders for several machines to be delivered this season.

J. Roy Raley, a prominent young attorney of Pendleton has been stated for city attorney, and indications point to his being the successor of John McCourt, who vacates the office to fill the appointment of United States District Attorney at Portland.

The Whitman College Glee Club, twenty voices strong, sang its way into the appreciation of a fair sized audience at the Athena Opera house last evening. The Club has appeared here in past years, but never before did it give such universal satisfaction as it did last night.

About twenty-two young people surprised the family of Mr. and Mrs. Cass Cannon Tuesday evening after they had retired for the night, and arousing them from their slumbers, proceeded to enjoy themselves. A jolly old fashioned candy pull was the main feature of the festivities.

Ardin Ernest, one of the infant twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gerking, died Friday, of pneumonia. The little one had been ill for several days. Funeral services were held at the Christian church Saturday afternoon. The other child, which was also ill, has recovered and is doing well.

The Cash Store

Recently Arrived

We are pleased to announce that we are now displaying the magnificent assortment of newest high grade Spring and Summer 1908 wools of

Strauss Brothers

Master Tailors Chicago

The finest workmanship, correct style and perfect fit are yours by having Strauss Brothers make your clothes. We have the exclusive local agency. Call and see us.

Kahn Coat Shirts
Corliss Coon Collars
Patterson Hats
Helmet Cuffs
Kady Suspenders
Bowman's All Wool
Trousers

T. M. TAGGART & CO.
Gent's Furnishers

On Your Next Trip to Walla Walla

We want you to make your headquarters at the Davis-Kaser Store. It's the store that has made the most rapid growth of any store in this section of the country. It's the store that has a special department for handling mail orders. It's the store where you can always find—without any question of a doubt, positively everything that you may need to furnish the home. It's the store where quality is the first consideration—where you cannot buy a trashy article even if you wanted to—and where prices are the proven fairest. Then, it's also the store where your patronage is appreciated, and where satisfaction is guaranteed. Accept our invitation to call when next in Walla Walla, or write us your wants and let us send you pictures and prices. We now have fine catalogs describing and illustrating the best stoves and heaters made. Send for one. Doesn't cost a cent, and we would like a chance to add your name to our big list of out-of-town customers.

The Davis-Kaser Company
Complete Home & House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Wash. - - - Pasco, Wash.

67X COPYRIGHT 1916, BY THE BUSTER BROWN CO., CHICAGO.

RESOLVED THAT IF YOU WISH TO MARCH ALONG YOU MUST BE GLAD IN THE LATEST. THE BETTER YOUR APPAREL THE SWIFTER WILL BE YOUR PROGRESS. BUSTER BROWN

THE MAN WHO HAS THE RIGHT SORT OF BRAINS ON THE INSIDE WILL HAVE THE RIGHT SORT OF A HAT ON THE OUTSIDE OF HIS SKULL. OTHERS WILL THINK MORE OF YOUR FACE IF YOU WEAR A GOOD HAT ABOVE IT. WE ARE THE SOLE AGENTS IN THIS CITY FOR THE KINGSBERRY HAT, WHICH WILL COST YOU $3.00. YOU CANNOT GET THE BEST FOR NOTHING. YET IF YOU WISH A HAT LOWER IN PRICE WE CAN SUPPLY YOU. YOU KNOW THAT WE HAVE A GOOD REPUTATION FOR CARRYING HATS THAT ARE RIGHT IN STYLE, AND OF COURSE YOU WISH THE STYLISH HAT.

The Place to Save Money
Jarman's Big Fair Store.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

We are now showing the finest and most up to date line of wool Dress Goods in all the new fabrics and coloring. Also in stripes and many other new effects. Our stock has never been so extensive and varied as it has proved to be this Season.

Silk and Wool waistings

Ladies' Muslin Underwear

Lace and Embroidery trimmed. A new line just received. All the newest designs. We shall be pleased to have you give us a call and look through this new and up to date Merchandise, whether you wish to buy or not. No trouble to show goods. The celebrated B. & H. trading stamps with every cash purchase.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

Athena, Oregon