Mrs. E. R. Cox was a guest at the most brilliant function of the season which occurred in Eagle Hall at Pendleton Tuesday afternoon. Three hundred invitations were issued, and the guests were entertained at "500."

During the afternoon music was discoursed by Johnson's orchestra, and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Lillie Miller has received a fine line of new flowers and foliage for hat trimmings. Beautiful varieties. Ladies call and see them.

Pendleton base ball enthusiasts have chartered an excursion train which will be run to Walla Walla Sunday for the Pendleton-Walla Walla game. The train will leave Pendleton at 9 a. m. and returning will leave Walla Walla at 7 p. m.

Eiler's piano house puzzle picture has been solved by Eddie Jarman and George Waship. Eddie receives an $85 certificate and George one for $75. The face value of these certificates will be received by the Eilers people as part payment on a piano.

George Staggs of Weston, recently made a trip from Heppner to Pendleton in his Maxwell auto, in four hours. In performing the feat, the front axle of the auto was sprung and Mr. Staggs was at Tharp's shop Tuesday, engaged in taking out the kink.

Mrs. J. R. King, a pioneer woman, well known in this vicinity, died at the family home in Weston, Wednesday afternoon after a lingering illness aged 69 years, 10 months and 23 days. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at the United Brethren church in Weston.

Another in the series of parties in country homes near Athena was enjoyed Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ad Pinkerton. About 35 young people were present, and games were played until near midnight, when a dainty collation of cake and coffee was served.

The Carradine meetings which commenced at the M. E. church in this city Wednesday evening, are being well attended. Evangelist Carradine is an able man and his audiences give close attention to his discourses. The meetings will continue indefinitely. The hour for the evening services is 7:30.

Miss Etta Muirhead died on the 13 inst. at the home of her parents in Dayton, Wash. after three days illness, from scarlet fever. She was born in Wallula, Wash. December 29, 1889, and resided in this city for a period of three years. She was a member of the Sophomore class in the Dayton high school at the time of her death.

After persistent effort, N. A. Miller has been successful in locating a sister of Dan Avery, the man who committed suicide in the Athena city jail. Her name is Mrs. Nina Wentz, and she resides at 3401 thirty-sixth street, Tacoma. The sister was traced by letter from Minnesota and she writes Mr. Miller, for information relative to her brother's death.

Mrs. Carnahan, a trained nurse of experience, who is a sister of T. W. Jones, Athena's progressive baker, was called from Walla Walla last week to attend Leo Judy, who has been very ill with pneumonia. The boy is better and Mrs. Carnahan has this week taken turns nursing in the families of Mrs. Payne and Mrs. Baker.

Physicians all over the northwest have been combating a peculiar form of pneumonia. In nearly every instance the right lung of the patient becomes congested and slight hemorrhages with high fever occur. In Athena there have been several cases. At present Dr. Sharp is attending cases in the families of Mrs. Fry, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Payne and Mr. Brother-ton.

Bert Richards, after due and deliberate consideration has decided that he has earned a rest, and he will seek recreation among the scenes of his boyhood in the Willamette Valley. He will leave about May 10 and will be away from Athena about three weeks. The Press man gives no credence whatever to the whispering rumor that the "General" has matrimonial intentions and that his recreation trip is to be merged into a wedding tour.

The Press man has been farming a little some this week. By actual count, he planted 37 hills of potatoes, and he'll wager old "Joe" against Wood's new merchandise pipe, that he digs a larger crop of spuds in return for his labor than the colonel ever harvested from his Gardena ranch. Early Rose is the variety of seed he selected for the best returns in the scientific art of potato-raising. Utter failure results when ostrich eggs and gourds are used for seed.

Ira Kemp and a traveling man named Foster, had a strenuous time on the Umatilla river Sunday. The anglers crossed the Umatilla at Thompson's place early Sunday morning and fished in Ryan creek during the day. When they came to the river to re-cross, the waters were high enough to be uncomfortably dangerous. One report has it that Kemp, after carrying Foster and the team over the river went back to carry himself over, but the straight end of it is that Foster paid John Thompson $5 to cross in a wagon and ferry the fishermen and their 107 fish over to the opposite shore.

He Got What He Needed.
"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at Paines Drug Company's store, 50c.
