

Press Paragraphs

J. W. Smith came over from Helix yesterday.

Monroe Hicks was in town from Weston Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Harris were over yesterday from Weston.

Mrs. Otis Whiteman visited friends at Walla Walla Saturday.

Frank Martin transacted business at Walla Walla yesterday.

Latest fads in ladies' fancy neck wear. Mosgrove Mercantile Co.

Athens fishermen who went to the river Sunday, report poor success.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kershaw spent Sunday with friends in Walla Walla.

David Taylor went to Portland Sunday to attend the democratic convention.

Mrs. Agnes Ferguson of Walla Walla, was the guest of Mrs. McBride Sunday.

Just arrived, ladies' long gloves in browns and tans. Mosgrove Mercantile Company.

I. M. Kemp, cashier of the Farmer's Bank of Weston, made a business trip to Pendleton Tuesday.

Will Dobson and Art Shick spent Sunday on the Walla Walla river. They report fishing bum.

Miss Frankie Stephens, of Colfax, is a guest this week of her friend, Mrs. Fred Johnson in this city.

Mrs. Wicks, of Colfax, Wash., is the guest this week of her niece, Mrs. A. J. Willaby in this city.

Al Johnson and J. C. Stamper will leave Monday for a recreation trip into the Camas Prairie country.

Charles Preston was in town yesterday from Walla Walla. He came over in his big Winton touring car.

Mrs. Wm. McBride and daughter, Ferol, visited friends in Walla Walla and Weston the first of the week.

Grandma Swaggart passed through Tuesday on her way to Walla Walla, where she is now visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. LeGrow attended the New York Symphony orchestra concert in Walla Walla this week.

John Bannister accompanied Alex McRea to Spokane Wednesday of last week. He returned home Tuesday.

A gold watch fob has been found and left at this office. Owner can have same by paying for this notice.

Ben Dupuis, the Weston grocery man has gone into bankruptcy. His petition was filed Monday, at Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kirk will leave today for the Umatilla river, where they will spend several days, camping.

Little Velma Wilson has returned home after a month spent with her sister, Mrs. Frank Swaggart on Birch creek.

Dr. Clise, the eye specialist, who is still at the St. Nichols hotel, is meeting with splendid success in his practice here.

Mrs. J. D. Plamondon attended the concert given at Walla Walla Tuesday night, by the New York Symphony Orchestra.

Miss Minnie Naylor was one of the graduates from Pearson's Academy recently, and will begin the college course next year.

Just received by express the latest styles in back combs, side combs, bouretts and collar pins. Mosgrove Mercantile Company.

Mrs. Garfield, of Walla Walla, with her two daughters, were guests this week of her mother, Mrs. Jackson Nelson, near town.

Will Dobson and York Dell are delegates from Pythian Lodge No. 29, K. of P. to the Grand Lodge which convenes at Portland, next week.

The Preston-Parton mill is grinding away on export orders. Many of the mills of Eastern Oregon and Washington are idle for want of orders.

Mrs. Dell is the proud owner of 20 Rhode Island Red chicks hatched from eggs, purchased from a Tacoma breeder of thoroughbred fowls.

T. W. Jones has sold the Athens Bakery to Carl Dittli, a recent arrival in Athens. Mr. Jones and family have moved to College Place, Wash.

Miss Sylva McDonald, who is visiting here from her home near Pullman, spent part of the week with her uncle, Frank Rogers and wife, in Pendleton.

Miss Reta Rothrock had the misfortune to fall from a horse yesterday, and dislocate her shoulder. Dr. Heisley was called and attended the case.

Helix will celebrate on July 4th. Committees have been named, funds raised and the little town up the flat invites everyone to participate in the celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Will O. Reed have moved from Adams and are occupying their residence on Third street in this city. They are heartily welcomed by Athens friends.

Miss Ida Hendrickson who has been attending Whitman college, came over this week and is visiting her sister, Miss Katie, at the Pinkerton, Sr., home near town.

Five or six pupils of the eighth grade are taking the examinations at the school house today, in the hope of passing those studies in which they failed in the May exams.

Henry Barrett has men at work putting up the first cutting of alfalfa, on his Pine creek ranch. An average crop of hay is being put up and it is of exceptionally good quality.

Dr. Plamondon is having his Buick runabout converted into a touring car. The McBride Carriage Company of Walla Walla has the contract for making a new body for the car.

Rev. Geo. T. Ellis, who has been seriously ill at his home in this city, will be removed to Baker City this evening by his son, William, in the hope that the change will be beneficial.

Agripina and Brushup two fleet racers, owned by Fay Le Grow have been entered in the Butte races and were shipped to the Butte track Wednesday. The race meeting at Butte opens June 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Swart are down from Dayton, Wash., on a visit to relatives and friends in this vicinity. Jerry has quit railroad work, temporarily at least, and is touring the country in his Reo automobile.

Mrs. G. C. Osburn arrived in Athens this morning after a seven weeks' trip to New York, Baltimore and various other Eastern cities. Mrs. Osburn will visit a few days with friends here before proceeding to her home in La Grande.

News has been received here of the death of Will Stumpf, which occurred May 18, at McCloud, Alberta. The young man died from the effects of rheumatism. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Stumpf former residents of Athens.

The freight on wood from Meacham to Athens has been increased 25 cents per cord. The rate will go into effect June 20. The rate heretofore has been $1.25 per cord and the new rate of $1.50 per cord is the same from Kamela and Hilgard.

By a score of 13 to 5 the Shamrooks again outclassed the Pendleton amateur bunch of ball players, Sunday, on the home grounds. After a seven inning farce, everybody had enough of it, and the game was called to enable the Pendleton team to catch the train.

The Walla Walla Union reports the marriage of Robert Watt and Mrs. Orna Langford, of that city, which took place at the home of the bride, 629 Juniper street, Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock. Only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony.

Cherries and other fruit in this vicinity give every indication of producing a good crop this season. Strawberries also, are doing well. Charles Norris plucked a splendid specimen from his garden and placed it on display at the Palace drug store, where it attracted considerable attention.

The members of the G. W. B. M. were entertained Wednesday afternoon after the business session, at the home of Mrs. Theo. Danner, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Wall. Strawberries with cream and cake, were the refreshments. The July meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. P. E. Colbern.

Mr. A. B. McEwen is critically ill at his home in this city with pneumonia. Mr. McEwen has been afflicted with la gripa a couple of times lately, and the last attack resulted in pneumonia of the worst form. Dr. Smith of Pendleton has been in consultation with Dr. Sharp and a trained nurse is assisting in the case.

The young friends of Miss Kitty Gholson to the number of about forty enjoyed the hospitality of her home last evening in honor of her 16th birthday. Games and music furnished entertainment until near midnight and a dainty lunch of cake and punch was served. Miss Kitty was presented with a handsome birthday ring, set with a garnet and two pearls.

Montie B. Gwinn, the Pendleton banker accompanied by Mr. Stevens, was in town Sunday. The gentlemen came up in an auto, and the machine, doubtless unaccustomed to good roads, refused for a time to travel Athens's macadamized thoroughfares, and the mechanical genius of Dick Wright had to be employed to straighten matters out.

Ralph Asbaugh and little daughter came up from Condon, Gilliam county, Tuesday, and are guests at the D. H. Sanders farm west of town. Mr. Asbaugh is the brother of Mrs. Sanders, whom that lady was called to see last winter with the news that he was on his deathbed. However, he seems to have fully recovered his good health and was greeted by many old friends in Athens.

Weston Normal Commencement exercises closed Tuesday evening when Regent Hofer presented diplomas to the 29 graduates before a large audience in Normal chapel. The orations were good, the music inspiring the sweet girl graduates and many young men fit to compare with any graduating class in the state. Judge Lovell and Regent Hofer both made speeches complimenting faculty and student body in high terms.

Last Saturday the Baptist Sunday schools of Athens, Adams and Helix combined in a grand picnic in Krebs' grove near Adams, and spent the day in a most joyous manner. A splendid literary and musical program was first enjoyed by all, then the grand feature of the day, lunch, was spread, after which games of all kinds including baseball, were played. Many of the older people were present to assist in entertaining the young folks.

RESOLVED
THAT ITS A MIGHTY COMFORTABLE FEELING
TO KNOW YOU HAVE ON THE PROPER CLOTHES.
IF WE GO TO THE PROPER PLACE WE CAN FEEL SURE WE ARE ALL RIGHT. WE OWE
IT TO OURSELVES TO DRESS WELL

OF COURSE YOU WISH TO GO TO THE PROPER PLACE TO BUY THE THINGS YOU WISH TO WEAR. WE WISH YOU WOULD INQUIRE WHETHER OR NOT OUR STORE IS THE PLACE TO DEAL. IF YOU KNOW OF ANYONE WHO DEALS AT OUR STORE, ASK THEM HOW WE TREAT THEM. OR BETTER STILL, COME IN AND LET US SHOW YOU THE GOODS WE SELL, THE PRICES WE OFFER, AND JUDGE YOURSELF

The Place to Save Money
Jarman's Big Fair Store.

Cut it Out

10^C GLOVE COUPON
Good Only at
TAGGART & CO'S. 10^C

It's Good for 10c
on a Pair
of
M. W.
Hodkins
Gloves

The Cash Store
T. M. TAGGART & CO.
Gent's Furnishers

Home Furnishers

We are proud of our furniture stock as we have by far the best assortment in the Walla Walla Valley. If you are thinking of fitting up a home or even getting a few odd pieces for your home, an inspection of our stock will fully demonstrate the fact that rare discrimination has been exercised in the selection of our stock. We have assembled a collection of fine furniture and interior decorations unequalled in beauty, elegance and distinctiveness—a collection from which the most elaborate schemes of home decorations may be evolved.

If you can not conveniently visit either our store at Walla Walla or Pasco write us for descriptions and prices of any articles needed. Did you get one of our "1908 Summer Goods" Catalogue? If not write for one today.

The Davis-Kaser Company
Complete Home & House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Wash. Pasco, Wash.

Read This Special Notice

Owing to the backward Season, we find ourselves overstocked with Men's 2-piece Outing Suits, double or single breasted, latest style cuff bottom, peg top pants. Shall offer them at less than actual cost until July 4th, which means you buy a

- $15.00 Outing Suit, for $10.25
- 13.50 Outing Suit, for 9.25
- 8.75 Outing Suit for 5.95
- 6.50 Outing Suit for 4.50

Do You See?

This is your opportunity to purchase a first-class, comfortable hot weather suit at a very low price

Mosgrove Mercantile Co. Athena, Or