Bad luck in a big chunk fell to the lot of W. J. King Wednesday. While hauling wheat from the Willaby place below town, the best horse in his team of four, dropped dead. The animal gave no evidence of being sick, and while Mr. King was opening a gate, leading from the field, fell over, and after a few struggles was dead.

Next Sunday Rev. Isreal Putnam will preach his last sermon for the year to his congregation here. Next week he will take a vacation which will last until conference meets in September, when it will be decided whether the reverend gentleman will be returned to this pastorate or sent to some other place to preach.

Last Sunday evening witnessed a phenomena in Athena which has not been seen here for many years. Not a chroch bell in the city was rung for evening service, and the church goes to a decided lack in the evening's program. The cause for this unusual occurrence was that two churches are without pastors, and the remaining minister was preaching out of town.

Thomas William Brotherton, brother of Chas. Brotherton, died at Salem yesterday, aged 49 years. The deceased was sent to Salem from here two years ago. He was a victim of St. Vitus dance in the worst form. N. A. Miller went to Salem last night to take charge of the remains. The body will be brought to this city and the funeral will take place from the Brotherton residence Sunday.

Dan P. Smythe of Pendleton, shipped several carloads of sheep from Athena to Tacoma, Wednesday. The shipment was made over the Northern Pacific. The stock was in fine condition, and came from the mountain range, direct, where forage this year is said to be unexcelled. R. J. Boddy purchased a hundred head of choice mutton sheep out of the band for the block in the local Athena meat market.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Barrett, Mrs. J. D. Plamondon and Miss Marguerite Rankin yesterday were witnesses of the ceremonies attending the grand potato following the death and funeral some days ago of the aged widow of Chief Homily. The potato was held at the home of Chief Eat-Me-Meat, whose wife was the only daughter of Homily. The place is about seven miles southwest of Athena and the party made the trip by auto.

B. B. Richards will join a party of Weston friends on a trip to Wenaha Springs Sunday, and the judge looks forward to a good time. However, inasmuch as it is understood that Wolf is included in the bunch, the Press suggests that this choice hunk of fish bait be tossed into the river, as a matter of guarantee to the party that the trip may be one of congeniality and pleasure, and further, that Weston may be relieved of an oppressive weight which bids fair to swamp it in the slough of hyia cultus egotism. Here is the chance of a life time to rid the metropolis of its human beer fountain, and at the same time materially assist the state fish hatcheries in an enterprise dear to the heart of all true sportsmen.

Home Furnishers

We are proud of our furniture stock as we have by far the best assortment in the Walla Walla Valley. If you are thinking of fitting up a home or even getting a few odd pieces for your home, an inspection of our stock will fully demonstrate the fact that rare discrimination has been exercised in the selection of our stock. We have assembled a collection of fine furniture and interior decorations unequalled in beauty, elegance and distinctiveness—a collection from which the most elaborate schemes of home decorations may be evolved.

If you can not conveniently visit either our store at Walla Walla or Pasco write us for descriptions and prices of any articles needed. Did you get one of our "1908 Summer Goods" Catalogue? If not write for one today.
