A total number of votes cast, 66,252. The voters are supposed to have paid one cent for each vote, and on this basis, the merry-go-round people did very well in Athena—$662.52 worth. As a money-making proposition, it skins the Press.

BUT FEW ERRORS ARE FOUND

Report of Expert Accountant Made on County Records.

That the errors of the different Umatilla county officers have been exceptionally small is the fact brought out after a thorough investigation of the books by E. A. Johnson, an expert accountant, says the Tribune. In several cases at least it is certain that part if not all of the apparent discrepancies can be accounted for and that in some instances owing to accumulated overcharges the county received actually more money than it was entitled to receive.

Mistakes have been found, and probably will never be entirely eliminated. In view of the immense volume of business transacted by the county, amounting as it does to hundreds of thousands of dollars yearly, they are, however, small.

In the light of a thorough knowledge of the conditions leading up to the transactions appearing in the report, a total absence of anything of a criminal nature in the errors is very apparent, and most of the mistakes easily understood.

Under the administration of Recorder Fred W. Hendley, from July 1, 1906, to July 1, 1908, shortages in collecting fees from filings amounting in full to $39.65 were found. But Mr. Hendley has filed with the county court statement showing that the expert had overcharged him with $6.60 for undercharging fees which should not have been, leaving the real shortage as per expert's shortage $33.05. He also filed a report showing that the sum of $44.80 had been collected and turned over to the county which sum was made up of overcharges on instruments, leaving the amount of $11.75 that Mr. Hendley has turned over to the county as fees in excess of those which actually belong to it.

The recorder's office has handled in the neighborhood of 10,000 instruments during Mr. Hendley's term of office. Under Mr. Folsom's term of office a similar explanation might reduce his apparent shortage.

Of the assessor's office Mr. Johnson says: "With the county poll tax done away with in the levy of 1906, and no other public monies with the exception of an occasional transient tax, coming into the hands of the assessor, the examiner found little in this office to occupy his attention."

In the office of the county clerk, under the administration of Frank Saling, from July 1, 1905 to July 1, 1908, shortages amounting to a total of $149.05 were found, but all of these are errors in making collection of fees and were easily explained.

In the sheriff's office from July 1, 1907, to July 1, 1908, a discrepancy of $8.12 is found in the collection of taxes and most of this was the result of a misunderstanding of the division of school district and other special taxes. The accountant says: "No suggestions are offered and but little improvement could be made in connection with the methods and work of tax collection."

In the investigation of the treasurer's office a mistake of $2 in favor of County Treasurer Bradley was found, and also a mistake of $9.90 against the treasurer, both of which have been corrected.

Paid Promptly.

This is to certify that the Belgian Horse Association suffered the loss of Stallion General DeWet on June 15th, 1908. Proof of loss was made to office of National Live Stock Association, July 6th, 1908, and a check was received in full from their agent B. Jensen on Aug 6th, 1908, which we consider a very creditable showing and appreciate having done business with such a reliable company.

H. A. Barrett, sec. Belgian Horse Ass'n.

Change Name of Baker City.

There is a move on foot to drop the word "City" from Baker City, leaving the name one word, "Baker." Business men generally approve of the idea, but there is occasionally one who objects on the grounds of tradition. Those favoring the new name say that all good towns in the country have dropped the word city.
