

11/4/49 X - 1/6/49

Press Paragraphs

Miss Alta Sharp visited in Pendleton over Sunday.

Alex McRea came down from Spokane Wednesday.

Hug McLean went down to Pendleton Wednesday.

Mrs. Ross, of Adams, was trading in the city Wednesday.

Miss Ruby Douglas was shopping in Athena Wednesday.

Mrs. John Harris was in the city from Weston Wednesday.

Fay La Grow took a trip to his stock ranch at Touchet Sunday.

Otis Whiteman made a business trip to Walla Walla yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mansfield were Pendleton visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Kemp spent Sunday in the city with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Barker this week moved to Hermiston to reside.

Jinks Taylor returned last week from a visit to his cattle ranch on the John Day.

Mrs. Jas. Boddy has been seriously ill at her home on Main street this week.

Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Rott, Tharp and the Misses Orswell visited in Weston Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Montgomery were up from Helix Tuesday for a short visit.

C. M. Brotherton made a business trip to Walla Walla Tuesday and Wednesday.

N. R. Harris, the correspondent for the Spokesman-Review was in the city Friday.

Mrs. Jas. Kern and daughter, of Walla Walla visited in town the first of the week.

Miss Nettie McCorkell was visiting in the city Tuesday from her home east of Weston.

Mrs. Vandespool and daughter, of Weston mountain were visiting in the city Monday.

The Mayville cigar store has closed and the proprietor has gone to seek another location.

Mrs. Mary Montgomery, of Helix, was a guest of Mrs. Chas. Betts Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Will M. Peterson was up from Pendleton the first of the week visiting at the Dudley home.

Byron Hawks, proprietor of the Pioneer drug store, had business in Pendleton Wednesday.

Miss Ann Ely was over from Weston Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Rhodes.

Mrs. Sarah McDougal, of Weston was a guest Monday of her brother, Wm. Kilgore in this city.

Miss Ora James, who has been visiting relatives here, returned Monday to her home in Pendleton.

Mrs. Lucretia Maloney was over from Weston Tuesday visiting at the home of her son, John Rothbrock.

Beginning, Monday, November 22nd, we will close at 5:30 p. m. Saturdays excepted. Mosgrove Mercantile Co.

Mrs. Edith Lockwood is slowly recovering from a severe case of pleurisy, at the home of her parents in this city.

Mrs. D. B. Jarman came over from Weston the first of the week and visited her mother, Mrs. Wm. Winship.

Mrs. N. A. Miller Mrs. H. H. Hill, Mrs. Ed Koontz and Mrs. Henry Dell were visitors in Pendleton Wednesday.

Theodore Russell came down from Spokane Saturday and was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Banister.

Last week Mrs. C. A. Barrett was elected clerk of Athena Circle No. 10 in place of Mrs. Geo. Foster, recently resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Watts attended the funeral of Mrs. Linville in Weston Tuesday.

R. H. Whitehead, N. P. agent in this city has been confined to his home this week with a threatened attack of typhoid.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Licuallen and little daughter were trading in the city from the farm near Adams Wednesday.

Mrs. O. A. Rhodes and daughter are visiting at the Hansell home west of town during the absence of her husband in Portland.

Leo Cook left Tuesday night for Walla Walla for a short visit. He will return to Athena before going to his home in Seattle.

Mrs. N. E. Lee, of Northport, Wash., is visiting at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Jones. Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Lee have been lifelong friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Haworth have rented the A. J. Willaby cottage on the south side of Jefferson street and are moving in this week.

W. G. Preston returned to his home in Waitsburg yesterday after several days attending to his interests in the Preston-Parton Mills here.

Mrs. Henry Wright left Tuesday for her home in Sequim, Wash., after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis La Brasche.

Wm. Pinkerton Sr. went down to visit at the home of his son, Nathan, Tuesday. Nate is farming the Jas. Nelson place near Pendleton.

O. A. Rhodes, manager of Jarman's Department store left Sunday evening for Portland, where he will buy for the Christmas holiday trade.

Frank and Robt. Tharp with their daughters, and Lawrence, went to Walla Walla by auto Sunday and report the roads in good condition.

Mrs. Jas. Nelson left Monday for her home in Alberta after a visit of a couple of weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pinkerton, Sr.

Mrs. Agnes Ferguson was over from Walla Walla over Sunday. Mrs. Ferguson is employed in the dry goods store of Hanger & Thompson in that city.

J. E. Jones, the local delivery man took a trip the first of the week to his mountain ranch. Roy Burke attended to the transfer business during his absence.

Mr. McAlexander, who has lived in Athena for the past several years, with his family left Tuesday for Hermiston where they will live in the future.

Remember that tomorrow night "The stars will shoot, and the owls will hoot, and bats fly in and out; the fires burn blue, and the candles too, for witches will be about."

Mrs. Wm. Pinkerton Sr. went down to visit her son near Pendleton yesterday. She was accompanied by Miss Nettie Rose who has been with her for some time.

Mrs. Heisley and little daughter left Tuesday evening for their new home in Walla Walla and were followed Wednesday by the doctor, who drove his team over.

Claud Estes moved his family to Pendleton Tuesday, from the Estes farm adjoining town. Claud will engage in his old vocation of tonsorial artist at the county seat.

Rev. John Thomas, late Missionary in Coos county, will preach in the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock and Sunday evening at 7:30. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. Luedtke left yesterday for the sanitarium at College Place, where she will take treatment for the next month or so. Mrs. Luedtke has been in delicate health for several years.

The lady buying through the month of November the highest priced hat will be presented with a $5.00 plume, colors either black, white or brown, at the Jones & Jackson millinery store.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McArthur write from Portland, directing that their copy of the Athena Press be sent to San Diego, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. McArthur will spend the winter in that city.

J. W. Maloney and Montie B. Gwinn, cashier and president respectively of the American National bank of Pendleton, Tom Thompson, wheat raiser, and Walter McCormach, were guests of Athena friends for a few hours Tuesday.

Just received by express, all the latest fads in men's seasonable rock wear. Mosgrove Mercantile Company.

Miss Stella Jackson has returned from a business visit to Echo and Hermiston, in which she did very satisfactorily in the millinery line.

Hill cleans one and eight day clocks for 1.00, alarm, 50c. Genuine make and best made main spring, any grade watch, $1.00. Guaranteed one year.

Mrs. S. A. Fleener, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hill in this city, left Wednesday for a visit with relatives in Wallowa county. Mrs. Fleener's home is in Lewistown, Idaho.

Just arrived, latest novelties in men's overcoats. If you want stylish goods at reasonable prices look them over before purchasing. Mosgrove Mercantile Company.

Mr. Alex McKenzie was in town Tuesday taking advantage of the fine weather. Mr. McKenzie is slightly improved from his severe illness and his many friends were pleased to shake his hand once more.

Mrs. Elinor Linville, a pioneer lady of Weston, died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Martha Van Winkle in that city Monday and was buried Tuesday. Mrs. Linville was the mother of Mrs. Henry La Brasche.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith returned Sunday evening from The Dalles, and report Mr. Smith's brother as slightly improved, but still in a serious condition. The trouble was a clot on the brain, with paralysis threatening.

Improvements at the Christian church parsonage have been completed and the residence is now one of the most convenient in the city. The house has been plumbed and lighted and a new cellar dug and finished.

If you want to be well-dressed, see the latest production of the tailor's art. The new suits at the Mosgrove Mercantile Co.'s are surpassed by none and equaled by few.

Mr. and Mrs. James Haworth are in the city, visiting at the Winship home. Mr. Haworth has sold his homestead near Heppner and will buy or rent land in some other locality. They will probably remain in Athena through the winter.

Theo. Danner, the photographer went over to Freewater Sunday and returned Tuesday morning. Mr. Danner has made arrangements to spend one day of each week in that burg, and will fit up a studio there for the purpose of taking pictures.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Leach were down from their mountain ranch Tuesday trading. They report no snow at their place but that farther back in the mountains there is several inches. Mr. and Mrs. Leach will go to Walla Walla to spend the winter.

The E. O. S. N. S. football team defeated the Waitsburg team last Friday in a game, the result of which was 6 to 0 in favor of the normalites. In the evening Waitsburg gave a reception to the visiting students which was highly appreciated by them.

The many friends of Mrs. Mamie Hall, wife of B. B. Hall late cashier of the Weston bank, are greatly shocked over the news of her extremely dangerous illness at her home in Spokane. The latest news is that the outcome of her illness is very doubtful.

Come and see Prof. J. S. Doan, the celebrated Hypnotist and see the strange antics and astonishing feats of the people who are bound by his spell also a life like motion picture of Pecks Bad Boy and His Pa. Athena Opera house, Friday and Saturday, October 30 and 31.

A Milton item says: A three handed deal involving the transfer of $22,500, has just been closed by Maneta & Co., by which Chris Helburg becomes the owner of 250 acres of land at the State Line, Pets Wilson 200 acres up the river eight miles and Amos Demaris gets 320 acres ten miles up the river.

An aggravated case of tonsillitis developed in the family of Mrs. John Smith this week, which for a time looked like it might be something more serious. However, Dr. Sharp took extra precautions in having the case quarantined and Roy is now about recovered.

E. W. McComas, N. C. Richards, W. L. Thompson, C. E. Roosevelt, Tom Thompson and Frank Saling, constituted a party of members the Pendleton Taft-Sherman club who visited Athena Wednesday on a "glad hand" campaign. The party, who were in an auto, went on to Weston, Milton and Freewater, returning to Pendleton in the evening.

Mrs. E. Lane Walker, teacher in the primary department of the public school, left for Huntington Tuesday in response to a message announcing the illness of her husband, Mr. Clay Walker, editor of the Huntington Herald. Mrs. Walker's room was acceptably cared for by Miss Katherine Sharp during her absence.

Mrs. Stockman, Waffle, Smith and Rugg, members of the Pendleton Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church, came up yesterday by auto, for a visit with the local M. E. aid society. The ladies of both societies gathered at the Worthington grocery store, from whence they proceeded in a body to the church where a pleasant and profitable afternoon was passed.

Kodol is a combination of the natural digestive juices and it digests all classes of food and every kind of food, so you see it will do the work that the stomach itself does. Sold by Palace Drug Co.

Our Fall Carpet Display

Our Carpet Department announces the arrival of many beautiful and exclusive patterns, comprising a great portion of our Fall line of floor coverings. In both Carpets and Rugs, in all sizes, a more handsome and select stock cannot be found in the Inland Empire. Embracing many new designs and colorings in Oriental, floral and domestic designs, this splendid showing covers everything in the most reliable carpet styles. Many of these patterns present new and novel effects in the manufacture of floor fabrics. The extensive line of this department offers an attractive assortment from which to make satisfactory selection. We guarantee perfect satisfaction and finished workmanship.

The next time you are in Walla Walla we hope you will visit our Carpet Department whether needing anything or not, for you are always welcome, buying or looking.

The Davis-Kaser Company
Complete Home & House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Wash. Pasco, Wash.

NEW & UP-TO-DATE CLOTHING

Can be had by asking for the "Miller-made" at Jarman's. They are made in the latest models and are just what they should be in every detail and finish.

Prices from $7.00 to $20.00

Men's Fancy Flannel Vests. They are ALL THE GO. COME IN AND SEE THEM

"VIKING SYSTEM" CLOTHING
For Boys and Young Men

We have them in both plain and fancy patterns

Prices from $1.50 to $15

Jarmans Dept. Store
The Place Where the Whole Family Can Trade

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

Special Notice

To Ladies Who Appreciate High Grade in Merchandise

Just received a large shipment of the latest imported and domestic Fall dress goods and suitings, in all the new weaves and coloring. It will pay you to give them your careful inspection before making your fall selections.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co. Athena, Or
B. & H. Trading Stamps Given with Cash Purchases