

Press Paragraphs

Matt Moargove was over from Milton Tuesday.

D. C. Kirk was in town from Weston Monday.

Clint Thomas had business in Walla Walla this week.

Hill sells an Elgin watch with dust proof case for $6.

Order barrels for sale at T. M. Taggart & Co's. store.

Jarman sells fresh sauer kraut for 45 cents per gallon.

S. F. Wilson visited in Walla Walla the first of the week.

For sale—Old newspapers 15 cents per hundred at Taggart's.

Clarence Burden was down this week from Sprague, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Graham, of Weston, were in town Wednesday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Berlin, October 30, 1908, a daughter.

E. A. Dudley made a business trip to Walla Walla the first of the week.

Mrs. T. M. Barger, of Walla Walla, is reported to be ill at her home there.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kidder, November 7, 1908, a daughter.

Swift & Co's. Premiums Hams and Bacon for sale by T. M. Taggart & Co.

Mrs. Benefel of Weston, was in the city Saturday on a trading expedition.

Jarman will buy at top market prices, all the butter and eggs you have to sell.

Fred Kershaw has been under the weather this week, and confined to his home.

Mrs. Sarah Harden and daughter, Edna, visited friends near Helix last week.

Mrs. F. S. Le Grow spent a portion of the week with friends in Walla Walla.

Mrs. Geo Knight, of Pendleton, attended the Barger funeral in Athena Monday.

Mrs. Jesse Saling came up from Pendleton Tuesday, and spent the day with relatives.

R. H. Whitehead is progressing nicely toward recovery, after a seizure of typhoid fever.

You can get the high grade Hamilton Railroad watch at Rose's, in Pioneer Drug Store.

Mrs. Wesley Trueman, of Walla Walla, has been visiting her son, J. F. Kershaw, of this city.

Principal Mines of the Athena Public school will attend the teachers' institute at La Grande.

Robert Coppock returned Friday from Alberta, where he owns some first class wheat land.

Joseph Koontz of Chewelah, visited in the city this week, the guest of his nephew, Edward Koontz.

Miss Effie Frazier was up from Pendleton this week visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. F. Sharp.

F. S. Le Grow and W. R. Taylor moved their stock this week to Mr. Le Grow's ranch on the Touchet.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Connick will visit for a few days with Mr. Connick's parents near Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Colbern will leave Monday for southern California, where they will spend the winter.

If you like to have a good cup of coffee or a light lunch at any time through the day stop at Miller's Bakery.

One iron bed, springs and mattress, one six foot extension table, and one kitchen treasure almost new. Inquire at Press office.

Mrs. O. W. E. Zetba and little grandson arrived home Sunday from Guy, Wash., where they visited for the past few weeks.

Lester Swaggart has become impressed with what Alberta has to offer in wheat land, and will probably invest in a couple of sections.

Use De Witt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve—it is healing, cooling and cleansing. It is especially good for piles. Sold by Palace Drug Co.

New ads today: Peoples Warehouse, Pendleton; Pendleton Cloak and Suit House, Pendleton; Schnell, Walla Walla; O. R. & N. Co., Portland.

The continuance of favorable weather has made it possible for farmers to complete seeding operations and most of the fall grain is now in.

Mrs. Vest, of Elgin, was in the city Saturday. Mrs. Vest is at present living in Weston where she is sending her children to the Normal school.

Substantial improvements are being made on the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones among which is a new front porch. Mr. Jacobs is doing the work.

Henry Barrett and sister, Mrs. J. D. Plamondon, and Miss Katie McEwen visited Walla Walla Monday night, where they attended the theatre.

Dell Bros. are catering to the fish loving public with a fine window display of cured fish. All varieties are represented and the general assortment is tempting.

Mrs. Ernest Bostwick and sister, Miss Anna Booher, arrived Wednesday from the Reeder farm near Ritzville and will visit for a time with relatives here.

Mrs. Alf Johnson and sister, Mrs. James, came up from Pendleton Wednesday and are visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wood south of town.

Leo Cook came over from Walla Walla Monday and is a guest at the home of his cousin, Miss Kittie Gholsen. He will leave soon for his home in Seattle.

David Mentzer, of Springfield, Iowa, who has been visiting his old friend, Bert Cartano, left Tuesday for Wenatchee Wash., where he has secured employment for the winter.

House for rent, having 7 rooms and bath, pantry etc. Rents for $10 per month. Refer to Dr. Heisley, or Mrs. J. W. Smith. Also Dr. Heisley has 3 cords of wood and coal for sale.

Try Kodol today on our guarantee. Take it for a little while, as that is all you will need to take. Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. It is sold by Palace Drug Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Harden and baby were up from the ranch near Helix the first of the week. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Will Harden and son.

De Witt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are unequalled in cases of weak back, back ache, inflammation of the bladder, rheumatic pains, Antiseptic and act promptly. Sold by Palace Drug Co.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kirk left Monday for their winter home in Prospect Park, Los Angeles. Their big lawn residence is closed for the winter, after a summer of many hospitable gatherings.

Mrs. E. R. Cox the first of the week went to La Grande, where she attended the meeting of the Federated Woman's clubs. Her millinery store was cared for by Miss Dora Bennett during her absence.

Jones & Jackson will take orders for Chas. A. Stevens & Bros., of Chicago. Anything in suits, skirts, coats, ladies furnishings generally. Ladies are solicited to call and see samples and get prices.

W. S. Buel is reported to be failing in health, in Los Angeles, where he went with his family a year ago. It was hoped the climate would prove beneficial in his case, which it did for a time.

Miss Katherine Sharp is confined to her home with a serious attack of tonsillitis. Miss Blackstock, a trained nurse from the Walla Walla hospital arrived yesterday and is in attendance on the case.

Athena leads Umatilla county in number of students at Oregon Agricultural College. Athena students are: Thomas E. Foster, Anna L. Edington, Frederick E. Gross, Jesse B. Edington, Rawla A. Miller, William R. Tompkins.

Mrs. Effie Adcock, who spent several months with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Colbern, was married recently at her home in Missouri, to a Mr. Aquart. Her many friends here will extend well wishes.

Miss Rhea Vanderpool and Lester Wilson, both of this city, were married in Pendleton Wednesday. The young people will make their home in Hermiston, where the groom's parents recently removed from here.

H. C. Curry Eye sight specialist formerly of Walla Walla now of Seattle will make their next professional visit to Athena Friday November 20 for one day only at Hotel St. Nichols. Eyes examined. All work guaranteed.

When you have any watch work, jewelry repairing, spectacle mending, or broken lenses, call on the new jeweler. I also have a nice up-to-date stock, such as carried by jewelers in large cities, (see my window displays.) Marshal O. Rose. In the Pioneer Drug Store.

Wm. Tompkins has disposed of his land holdings in Alberta, at a good margin of profit. Three years ago Mr. Tompkins paid $11 per acre for a section of land near Claresholm, and without improving it, even to the extent of fencing, has sold it for $18.75 per acre.

Adams and Helix lost their hotels by fire this week. The Adams hotel, owned and conducted by Mr. Rosenvelt was totally destroyed Tuesday night and last night, the hotel at Helix, conducted by Mrs. Frank Myers was so badly damaged by fire that it is beyond the possibility of repair.

Yesterday Cleve Stanton left for Arlington, where he will visit his sister and incidentally hunt the festive wild goose, whose name is reported to be legion in that vicinity at present. He will be joined on Sunday by George Thompson, who will take a vacation after the strenuous labors of putting in his crops.

Mrs. J. E. Jones has just received the sad intelligence of the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary Ennis, at her home in Hamilton, Iowa, of acute pneumonia. Mrs. Ennis was 56 years of age. Mr. and Mrs. Jones left Iowa about 6 years ago, since which time Mrs. Jones had not seen her mother. The sympathy of her friends is extended her in her sudden bereavement.

Three big dray-loads of Christmas holiday goods passed up the street yesterday consigned to the Jarman Department store. Jarman will have the finest and most complete stock of holiday goods ever brought to Athena, and their customers will be on the qui vive for the grand display which will be shown just as soon as they can be arranged. Watch the Press for further announcements.

Marion O'Harris, the man who shot a deer with a "22" at his home one mile above Weston, was in town Monday. "Doc" says he went through the ordeal calmly, but his neighbors assert that he sat down beside the deer and yelled for help. Any way he got the deer all right all right, shooting it three times with a small bore gun, the last shot penetrating the heart.

The third annual report of the board of commissioners of the Third District Eastern Oregon fair shows that owing to the big expenditures necessary in enlarging the pavilion and other improvements the expenditures were in excess of the receipts of the association by almost $2000. The deficit, however, was made up almost entirely by the surplus left over from former fairs and the association is but about $275 in debt.

Among those who have renewed their subscription to the Press this week are O. C. Turner, Weston; Mrs. Waterman, Spokane; Henry Schmitt, Adams; Gus Voltner, Waitsburg; Wm. Blakley, Pendleton; Doug Flynn, Ritter; John Walker, Mrs. N. C. Dickenson, I. D. Miner, W. W. Jacobs, Athena; Jack Weir, Washtnau; Harry Turner, Weston. Look at the date following your name on the paper. You may be next.

Tuesday afternoon the immediate neighbors of Mrs. P. E. Colbern gathered at the home of Mrs. Wm. Tompkins, from whence they proceeded in a body to her home, where she was properly surprised, and at once capitulated. The afternoon was passed in "pulling wool," (not each other's) and at 4 a dainty lunch was brought forth by the visitors themselves. The occasion was in the nature of a farewell to Mrs. Colbern, who leaves soon for her annual trip to sunny California.

The ladies of Athena Circle No. 10 were entertained at the splendid home of Mr. and Mrs. Ad Pinkerton Wednesday, two miles northwest of town. The ladies spent the entire day there, and did some excellent work in the way of quilting etc. At noon a sumptuous dinner was spread by the hostess, at which just 41 were seated, including the family. The ladies say there are no more royal entertainers than Mr. and Mrs. Pinkerton. Mr. Pinkerton drove to town and furnished rigs for all, and it was a jolly crowd of ladies who gathered for the best treat of the season.

Scriber Gives Bonds. J. W. Scriber, formerly cashier of the wrecked Farmers' and Traders' bank of La Grande, Ore., was released from custody on bonds amounting to $40,000 provided by friends and relatives. In connection with his release it has been given out upon what is regarded as reliable authority that several conferences have been held by Scriber's relatives and friends in view of making good the entire indebtedness of the ex-banker. It is also rumored that he will plead guilty when arraigned.

NEW & UP-TO-DATE CLOTHING

Can be had by asking for the "Miller-made" at Jarman's. They are made in the latest models and are just what they should be in every detail and finish.

Prices from $7.00 to $20.00

Men's Fancy Flannel Vests. They are ALL THE GO. COME IN AND SEE THEM

"VIKING SYSTEM" CLOTHING

For Boys and Young Men

We have them in both plain and fancy patterns

Prices from $1.50 to $15

Jarmans Dept. Store

The Place Where the Whole Family Can Trade

Dress Shirts

in great

Mosgrove Mercantile

New Line of

Gentlemen's

Our Fall Carpet Display

Our Carpet Department announces the arrival of many beautiful and exclusive patterns, comprising a great portion of our Fall line of floor coverings. In both Carpets and Rugs, in all sizes, a more handsome and select stock cannot be found in the Inland Empire. Embracing many new designs and colorings in Oriental, floral and domestic designs, this splendid showing covers everything in the most reliable carpet styles. Many of these patterns present new and novel effects in the manufacture of floor fabrics. The extensive line of this department offers an attractive assortment from which to make satisfactory selection. We guarantee perfect satisfaction and finished workmanship.

The next time you are in Walla Walla we hope you will visit our Carpet Department whether needing anything or not, for you are always welcome buying or looking.

The Davis-Kaser Company
Complete Home & House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Wash. Pasco, Wash.