

Press Paragraphs

Notice C. A. Barrett & Co. add in this issue.

Hill sells an Elgin watch with dust proof case for $5.

Chad barrels for sale at T. M. Taggart & Co's. store.

Jarman sells fresh sauer kraut for 45 cents per gallon.

Mrs. J. D. Plamondon visited friends in Pendleton, Monday.

Miss Velma Wilkinson visited friends in Pendleton Saturday.

Attorney Watts and wife were visitors in Pendleton Monday.

W. D. Chamberlain transacted business in Pendleton Tuesday.

Mrs. W. R. Taylor was in Pendleton Tuesday, and visited friends.

Chas. Barrow of the Mosgrove Mercantile was a Milton visitor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Koontz are visiting relatives in Pasco this week.

You should buy one of these fine roasters on display at Barrett & Co's.

Swift & Co's. Premiums Hams and Bacon for sale by T. M. Taggart & Co.

Jarman will buy at top market prices, all the butter and eggs you have to sell.

D. C. McIntyre and S. L. Spencer are on jury duty at Pendleton this week.

You can get the high grade Hamilton Railroad watch at Rose's, in Pioneer Drug Store.

Ira Kemp, cashier of the Farmer's Bank of Weston, was in the city a few hours Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dudley were among the Athenaites, who were in Pendleton Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Pinkerton visited in Walla Walla Wednesday, returning home yesterday.

Mrs. Otis Whitman and children leave today for a visit with relatives in Wallowa county.

Miss Genevieve Dickson went over to Walla Walla Wednesday evening for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Fred Gross Sr. has returned from an extended visit with friends in the Willamette valley.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Barnes were over from Weston Tuesday and took dinner with friends here.

Clint Thomas last week moved his family from this city to Walla Walla, where he will go into business.

Mrs. N. C. Dickenson will spend Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. L. C. Clark near Walla Walla.

C. A. Barrett & Co. have a list of odds and ends to dispose of at greatly reduced prices for a few weeks only.

Miss Babe Walker arrived Saturday from La Grande, and is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker in this city.

Mrs. Lester O'Hara was called to Weston Wednesday by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Dick Gerberding.

Misses Lula Tharp, Reta Rothrock and Cecile Boyd were over from the Weston Normal Wednesday between trains.

Miss Eva Rider, the efficient manager of the local telephone system in Athena, had business in Pendleton Saturday.

Pendleton and Baker City high school foot ball teams battled to a tie score of 6 to 6, in the mining town Friday.

There is a grand sale on hats and outdoors at the Jones & Jackson millinery store this week. Call and get bargains.

If you like to have a good cup of coffee or a light lunch at any time through the day stop at Miller's Bakery.

Announcement of the arrival of another son in the home of Geo. D. Brown at Hart and, Minn. Of course he is a printer and the fact that his first hit was a home run, stamps him as a ball player of the stamp of his dad.

Misses Carrie Sharp and Aley Foss, teachers in the Pendleton public schools, spent Sunday at their homes in this city.

One iron bed, springs and mattress, one six foot extension table, and one kitchen treasure almost new. Inquire at Press office.

Mrs. Rookwell Carey left the first of the week for her home in Portland, after an extended visit with her mother and sister here.

Miss Lizzie Sheard spent the first of the week at her home near town, from Whitman college, where she is attending school.

Miss Ida Montgomery and Byron Johnson, both formerly of Athena, were married recently in Portland, where they are at present reside.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stone left on Sunday evening's train for Southern Oregon, where they will visit relatives for a couple of weeks.

Remember the St. Nichols hotel will serve the usual annual Thanksgiving dinner. Take the family there to dine Thursday, November 26.

Use De Witt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve—it is heating, cooling and cleansing. It is especially good for piles. Sold by Palace Drug Co.

All those indebted to Mrs. Lillie Miller are urgently requested to call and settle before December 1st. This is imperative and must be heeded.

Matt Mosgrove is closing out his stock of merchandise at Milton and will leave shortly with his family for California, to reside during the winter.

Principal Miner, of the Athena Public school, assistant principal Smith and Miss Velma Wilkinson will attend the teacher's institute at Baker City, next week.

Miss Kitty Sharp has recovered from a serious attack of tonsillitis and Miss Alta Sharp, who was injured in an accident near Pendleton a couple of weeks ago is improving.

Dr. Sharp reports a new boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lienallen. The young rancher made his appearance at the Lienallen home, Tuesday, November 18, 1908.

De Witt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are unequalled in cases of weak back, back ache, inflammation of the bladder, rheumatic pains, Antiseptic and act promptly. Sold by Palace Drug Co.

Miss Norma Smith is visiting friends in The Dalles, where she accompanied her father the first of the week when he attended the funeral of his brother. Miss Smith will remain in The Dalles for several weeks.

The rain which fell Tuesday night and a portion of Wednesday found the farmers with their crops practically all sown. The rain was needed, in fact the water wagon can make as many trips as it wants to.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McBride of Walla Walla, were guests at the Wm. McBride home in this city Saturday. They came over in Mr. McBride's White steamer car, and found the roads in excellent condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tompkins and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmitt will go to Waitsburg next week, where they will attend the wedding of Miss Clara Vollmer, a niece of Mr. Schmitt, and will also spend Thanksgiving.

Otis Whitman returned the first of the week from an extended tour through the northern part of Washington. He has not fully decided where he will locate, but will probably return to that part of the country in the near future.

Miss Babe Walker is in town for a limited time. She is giving instruction in the Normal system of cutting without fitting, women's and children's garments. Class or individual instruction. Terms reasonable. Box 274, Athena, Oregon.

Mrs. Joe Bannister was down from near Pullman this week, visiting friends. Mrs. Bannister informs the Press that the house recently burned in that neighborhood, reported to have belonged to her son-in-law, was the property of another Herman Curtis, and not the H. H. Curtis well known here. This is gratifying to his friends who sympathized with Mr. and Mrs. Curtis in their supposed loss.

When you have any watch work, jewelry repairing, spectacle mending, or broken lenses, call on the new jeweler. I also have a nice up-to-date stock, such as carried by jewelers in large cities, (see my window displays.) Marshal O. Rose. In the Pioneer Drug Store.

A large number of people attended the educational congress at Whitman college this week. One of the principal events was the action of the board of overseers in adopting a new constitution which changes the school from one of Congregational denomination to non sectarian.

Mr. John Lewtas, a traveling lecturer and writer, gave a lecture in the Methodist church Wednesday night which was greatly appreciated by the small audience present. The subject was "What I saw in Syria, Turkey, the Holy Land and Egypt," and was illustrated with stereopticon views.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Colbern left Monday for their winter's sojourn in California. They will visit various cities on the way south, including Sacramento, San Diego, Long Beach and Los Angeles, staying several days in each place. They will probably spend the greater part of the winter at Long Beach.

Christmas is already being planned for by the churches and Sunday schools, and will be observed with old-time enthusiasm at all three of the churches. Programs are being arranged and rehearsals are under way. The Christian church choir are arranging a cantata which will be given in the church some time during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McEwen were in Pendleton Tuesday, where the injury to Miss Jessie McEwen's foot was examined under the x-ray. The young lady several weeks ago suffered a severe sprain, since which time she can scarcely bear her weight on the injured foot. Nothing developed under the x-ray that will be of assistance in treating the case.

Charlie Garking, the popular young farmer who with his brother, George, farms a large area of land near Helix, left Tuesday for Tacoma, where he will spend the winter. It is rumored that when Charlie returns in the spring he will be accompanied by his bride, a young lady formerly well known in Athena, but now living in the Sound city.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Reeder and little daughter will leave the first of next week for their new home in Tacoma, where they will reside in the future. Mr. Reeder already being owner of two or three residences there. This popular young couple will be greatly missed in Athena, where they have both grown from childhood. The best wishes of all go with them to their new home.

Frank Smith, brother of O. R. & N. Agent M. E. Smith, mention of whose illness was made in last week's Press died at a hospital in The Dalles Saturday. The death is particularly sad, in view of the fact that the deceased was on his way to visit at the home of his brother, when he was stricken with hemorrhage of the brain. He took sick at Biggs, and was taken to The Dalles. His home was in the east and he had recently accompanied a daughter to San Francisco. Mr. E. M. Smith and daughter, Norma, went to The Dalles Sunday.

A visitor to the primary department of the public school yesterday, on registering in the visitors' book, was confronted with a page wholly blank except for one lone name, that of a minister who has no child in the school. On looking over the rows of interesting and interested little faces, the wonder grew that parents, who would seemingly have so much interest in the matter, should never, during all the past three months, have once visited them at their work. Parents, don't be too busy with the sordid duties of life to neglect the greatest of all, the improvement of the minds of the little ones. Visit the schools and encourage them and their teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, of Walla Walla have been in the city the past week. Mr. Gibson bought up a carload of hogs which yesterday he shipped to Seattle, and his wife remained a guest of her cousin, Mrs. A. A. Foss, who will accompany her home for Thanksgiving week.

Call and inspect the values at the Great Slaughter Sale at the Mosgrove Mercantile Co. You get more and better merchandise there than any place in Umatilla county.

Austin Foss will next week take his annual two weeks vacation, going to Seattle and Tacoma, returning by way of Portland and visiting his brother and sister at Moro, Sherman county.

Miss Katherine Sharp has so far recovered from her recent illness as to be able to accompany her aunt, Miss Effie Frazier to her home in Pendleton.

Mr. Lambert, of Waverly, Wash., will locate in this city with his family. He will probably occupy the J. W. Smith residence on 5th street.

"Doc" Mansfield is confined to his bed with a serious attack of rheumatism.

Special bargains at the Mosgrove Mercantile Co's. Great Slaughter Sale. E. B. Aldrich, editor of the East Oregonian, was in town yesterday.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures colds, prevents pneumonia.

Jarmans Dept. Store

The Place Where the Whole Family Can Trade

Shoe Talk

Now that the rainy season has set in, you will need Shoes, and you will want good shoes, the very best you can buy for the money. Our stock of Shoes is large and complete, consisting of the well known brands, "The Hamilton-Brown" and "The Joe Miller." We won't try to sell you just any shoe that you can get on your feet, but will try and fit your feet with the style shoe that you like, and with Shoes that we can guarantee to give you perfect comfort and satisfaction.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

GREAT SLAUGHTER SALE

Of Mens, Youths and Boys Clothing

Owing to the extremely warm Fall, we find our store greatly overstocked on Men's, Youths' and Boys' Overcoats and Suits. Rather than carry these goods over, we have decided to Slaughter them regardless of cost. The cold weather is coming. Now is the time to buy. Never before has such an opportunity been offered to buy good, reliable, seasonable goods at slaughter prices. If you want Clothing, do not miss this opportunity but secure it at Athena's greatest Slaughter Price Sale. The Goods are here just as advertised and we do just as we advertise.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co. Athena, Ore

Our Fall Carpet Display

Our Carpet Department announces the arrival of many beautiful and exclusive patterns, comprising a great portion of our Fall line of floor coverings. In both Carpets and Rugs, in all sizes, a more handsome and select stock cannot be found in the Inland Empire. Embracing many new designs and colorings in Oriental, floral and domestic designs, this splendid showing covers everything in the most reliable carpet styles. Many of these patterns present new and novel effects in the manufacture of floor fabrics. The extensive line of this department offers an attractive assortment from which to make satisfactory selection. We guarantee perfect satisfaction and finished workmanship.

The next time you are in Walla Walla we hope you will visit our Carpet Department whether needing anything or not, for you are always welcome, buying or looking.

The Davis-Kaser Company
Complete Home & House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Wash. Pasco, Wash.