

Press Paragraphs

F. G. Lucas is down from his mountain ranch.

For dressed poultry, call up Bert Carlucci. Phone, 86.

Thos. Lieuallen was in the city yesterday from Adams.

A new linoleum graces the floor of the local telephone office.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wood, January 6, 1909, a son.

Mrs. Martha Mays has recovered from a recent attack of illness.

Mrs. Ed Lafave is ill at her home south of town, with the grippe.

If you want to buy, lease or sell land call on S. F. Wilson, attorney.

Carl Christian has been working at the Parker and Stone barber shop this week.

C. A. Burns, circulation agent for the Spokesman-Review was in the city Saturday.

Douglas Ball, the tall man of Blake, McFall Co., Portland was in the city yesterday.

Archie McIntyre has been detained from school this week on account of sickness.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Redford, January 16 1909 twins, a son and a daughter.

A pretty stiff wind, that of Wednesday night. What if the snow had been with us. Hully Gee!

Mrs. Fletcher, mother of Mrs. John Keen, is ill with the grippe. Mrs. Fletcher is over 80 years old.

All accounts owing to the firm of Jones & Jackson not paid by February 1 will be placed with a collector.

A discount of 10 per cent on all orders for goods amounting to $5.00 or over at Miller's furniture store.

James Carlyle died this morning at his home in Weston after a lingering illness. He leaves a wife and several children.

A. B. McEwen and Henry Keopke returned from Portland Monday. They report a good time at the big Masonic gathering.

If you like to have a good cup of coffee or a light lunch at any time through the day stop at Miller's Bakery.

A genuine March hail storm and shower, accompanied by a high wind, was introduced by the weather man last evening.

Julia A. Norton, the face and scalp specialist is here and will answer all questions free this evening at St. Nichols Hotel.

The railroad washouts are making business for the livery men. Drummers will travel, no matter what the conditions may be.

Miss Eva Rider, local manager for the telephone company requests that patrons of the rural lines who are in arrears call and settle.

Over 150 passengers are held up at Walla Walla owing to railroad washouts. Railroad companies are paying hotel bills for travelers.

There is little or no sickness in Athena this winter. A circumstance this is perhaps noted more by the physicians than any one else.

A card from Representative Barrett, announces that he and Mrs. Barrett are pleasantly located in Salem, at No. 332 North Church street.

Mrs. M. L. Akers and little daughter are visiting at the home of Mrs. Akers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Swaggart, north of the city.

The young people will participate in a dance at the Umatilla Implement Building this evening. Johnson's orchestra will furnish the music.

Bert Ramsay has sold his pleasure resort in this city to Mr. Grant of Heix. Mr. Grant has taken possession, and Bert may take trip to Alberta.

Miller the furniture man announces until Jan. 31, he will give 10 per cent discount on all orders for goods amounting to $5.00 or over.

For health and happiness—DeWitte Little Eraly Risers—small, gentle, easy, pleasant little liver pills, the best made. Sold by Palace Drug Co.,

The "Si Plunkard" troop which was to appear at the opera house Wednesday night, was marooned by high water at Waitsburg and cancelled date here.

Sanford Stone is in town from the McEwen ranch. Athena's canine population is temporarily increased by four, that number following Sanford from the ranch.

Work on the new Odd Fellows building at Milton was resumed after the cold weather. The contractors are under $10,000 bonds to have the building completed by March 1.

A. R. Price and family are spending the winter at Newport, Yaquina Bay. Their present home is at Pullman, Wash., but a warmer climate was selected for the winter.

All members of Athena Circle No. 10 are requested to be present at the meeting Saturday afternoon, January 23. Officer for the ensuing year will be installed at this meeting.

Mrs. Octavia Hargrove and daughter of Juniper, were guests this week of her brother, M. O. Rose and family. Mrs. Hargrove was detained during the week by the high waters.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Rhodes returned yesterday from Portland. They came over the North Bank to Pasco, thence to Walla Walla on the Northern Pacific and home on the local passenger.

The Northern Pacific was also out of commission as the result of the high water. The road bed was badly damaged in Vansycle Canyon and there are also washouts between Pendleton and Helix.

The recent snow is said to have been of much value to the fruit crop of Milton and Freewater. It is estimated that two inches of moisture went into the soil in that locality when the snow melted.

On Friday evening, January 29, there will be an invitation dancing party at the Athena opera house. The young gentlemen having in charge the matter of arrangements are putting forth efforts to make the event a success.

For some reason not explained, the library of School District No. 29 has not received its apportionment of books this year. Where the difficulty lies is not explained, but unless the books come soon they will be of little benefit this year.

During the high wind of Wednesday night, the electric lights went out. Service at the Baptist church revival meetings were interrupted until lanterns could be secured and lighted. The program at the Dime was also delayed.

A team from the McBride livery stable made a trip to Pendleton this morning and the driver carried an order from Postmaster Githens for Athena mail held there. The mail is expected to arrive about 5 o'clock this evening.

Mrs. Frank Jackson, who was seriously injured last week by the explosion of water pipes in the kitchen range, is reported to be getting along nicely. No bad results to her eyes, which were blistered by hot ashes, are anticipated.

A derelict cayuse, old, starved and weak for want of food, drifted into town from the reservation after the storm and roamed about the streets until yesterday morning when it got down never again to rise. It was humanely put out of its misery by a leaden missile from officer Gholson's pistol.

An effort will be made by the Walla Walla Ministerial Association to secure the services of Evangelist Billy Sunday in a proposed religious awakening of the garden city. The Rev. Billy's schedule is now extended over a period of two years and it is doubtful if his services can be secured.

There will be no preaching service in the Baptist church Sunday morning, but all will attend the Methodist church, where Rev. Geisler will address the new converts in both congregations. At 3 p. m. District Evangelist Bachelder will deliver an address to men only in the Baptist church. There will be special music. The evening services will be held in the Methodist church in order to accommodate the people who wish to attend. Pastor Ryder will preach on the subject "Is Hell a Myth." Don't miss it.

B. C. Kidder, who recently visited at the home of his son George, in this city, was pictorial artist for the Leslies Weekly during civil war times. At the Kidder paint store, is a sketch from a wood engraving made and printed in 1863. The sketch depicts a skirmish scene between federal pickets and a troop of Texas rangers.

Burglars entered and robbed the post office and drugstore at Adams Wednesday night. Cash amounting to $24 was taken at the postoffice and the loss to the drugstore is not reported. A Jap, who is supposed to be one of the burglars, was apprehended in this city yesterday morning by Officer Gholson, and turned over to the Adams authorities.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers Bank of Weston, the following officers were elected: Robt. Jamieson, president; G. W. Probstel, vice-president; I. M. Kemp, cashier; Paul Bulfinch, asst. cashier; R. Jamieson, G. W. Probstel, O. C. Turner, G. DeGraw, G. W. Staggs, Joseph Wurzer, G. M. Rice directors.

Lester Miller, of Joseph, Walla Walla county, a former Normal school student, accompanied by his mother, came over from Walla Walla yesterday, and is visiting at the home of his uncle, W. C. Miller. Lester is a base ball player of ability and Whitman college athletes hope to see him in their team line up this season.

Jerry Stone went down to Pendleton on Monday evening's train, the last that passed through before the flood. He returned yesterday overland, riding to Adams and walking from there. Mr. Stone says the Creek road is badly washed out and damage to culverts and bridges makes the road impassable. He drove to Adams over the reservation road.

The revival meetings at the Methodist church closed Sunday evening. In all about thirty persons were converted during the meetings, four joining the Baptist church and the remainder affiliating with the Methodist church. District Evangelist Batchelder, who conducted the meetings, remained in the city this week, being unable to leave for Frasier, Idaho, on account of railroad washouts.

Rev. Ryder began revival meetings at the Baptist church Monday evening. His meetings are well attended. On several evenings this week the seating capacity of the church has been taxed. By way of advertisement, Rev. Ryder has distributed imitation railway tickets, on which is printed the following announcement: "Sixteen Nights Mission at Baptist Church. Rev. H. E. Ryder will Preach and Sing. Admit Bearer and Friend. Song Service at 7:30 p. m."

Old "Buck" a faithful saddle and pack horse, whose days of service have long since passed, finds in his declining years kindly care at the hands of his generous and appreciative owner, Wm. Winship. Quite the reverse was noted in the case of another faithful servant which was allowed to roam about town during the late storm, until he came to the attention of big-hearted Ed. Koontz, who at once made arrangements for his care at one of the livery stables.

A Horrible Hold-Up.
About ten years ago my brother was "held up" in his work, health and happiness by what was believed to be hopeless Consumption," writes W. R. Lipscomb, of Washington, N. C. "He took all kinds of remedies and treatment from several doctors, but found no help till he used Dr. Kings New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles. He is a well man today." It's quick to relieve and the surest cure for weak or sore lungs, Hemorrhages, Coughs and Colds, Bronchitis, Lagrippe, Asthma and all Bronchial affections. 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Palace Drug Co.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE

No. 147. 160 Acres near Weston, good farm land running water, fair buildings, near warehouse and school, this for a short time at $65.00 per acre.

No. 148. 400 Acres seven miles South-east of Walla Walla, 200 acres in summer-fallow wheat, balance stubble, land is nearly level. Good house and barn. Water piped in the house and on the lawn, some fruit, at $85.00 per acre.

No. 149. 181 Acres two miles from Athena, this is on the Reservation; for the balance of this month at $15,500.00. This is worth looking after.

No. 15. 383 Acres nine miles north of Walla Walla, all in wheat 1-3 goes with place, warehouse on farm, good well, and shed for 20 head of horses, this belongs to an estate and must be sold, price $40.00 per acre.

No. 151. We have some nice acre tracts for sale, prices range from $200.00 to $1200.00 per acre.

No. 152. 1280 Acres on the Eureka Flat, 700 acres in wheat 1-3 goes with place, land lays fine, railroad runs through farm, warehouse 1-4 mile from farm, this at $35.00 per acre.

No. 153. 880 Acres nine miles South-east of Walla Walla, fine barn with stone foundation, good house, 400 acres in wheat, this is foot hill land price $45,000.00, $6000.00 cash, balance as long time as you want.

This is just part of what we have for sale; if you are interested come and we will show you the land. Copeland & Ginn. No 10 Second St. Walla Walla.

Jarmans Big Dept Store

We Are Headquarters for Everything to Keep You Warm

Leggins, Overshoes and Rubbers for Everybody
Don't go by, but come in, buy something warm

"The Best Quality, Price and Service"
This is Our Motto for 1909

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

All Remnants at less than cost during this Sale

All Furs at actual Cost during this Sale

OUR GREAT INVENTORY SALE

We are invoicing and find that we have many broken lines of seasonable goods that must be got rid of to make room for the New goods.

odd Lots of Wool Dress goods less than Cost.
odd Lots of Fancy Silks less than Cost.
odd Lots of Men's Suits less than Cost.
odd Lots of Men's Overcoats less than Cost.
odd Lots of Boys' Suits less than Cost.
odd Lots of Boys' Overcoats less than Cost.
odd Lots of Men's Shoes less than Cost.
odd Lots of Boys' Shoes less than Cost.
odd Lots of Women's Shoes less than Cost.
odd Lots of Girls' Shoes less than Cost.
odd Lots of Ladies' and Children's Cloaks less than Cost.

Come and inspect these special offerings. Your money will buy more here than any place on Earth.

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

If you want Shoes, look over our Odd Pairs

Men's Wool Underwear, $1.25 grade, 98c during Sale

12th Annual January Clearance Sale Ends January 30

The end of our big clearance sale—a sale that will be remembered for many a day as the biggest bargain event ever offered in the Inland Empire—is soon at hand; only a little over a week off.

Right now is when you should prepare for the future. Buy now! when practically every article in our entire stock is reduced greater than ever before.

Carpets, furniture, draperies, china, glassware, stoves, ranges kitchen utensils, all included in this great stock-reducing, money raising sale. We honestly say we have eliminated our profit for this month, in order that our stock will be small at stock taking, and that we will have a plus of cash to buy for spring.

Write us today your needs and we will send you prices and descriptions, and remember we pay the freight.

The Davis-Kaser Company
Complete Home & House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Wash. Pasco, Wash.