We Explain

We want to explain to our many friends who live outside of Walla Walla that we have at our store two waiting or resting rooms that have been furnished for the benefit of out-of-town folks. They are what we call comfort rooms, and you are under no obligations to buy anything here if you feel like using them. We want you, the next time you are in Walla Walla, to make them your headquarters. There are nice, comfortable rockers; there are books and magazines to read; there is a lavatory if you have had a long ride or drive, there is stationery if you wish to write; there is someone to look after any bundles or packages that you may wish to leave and you are at liberty to use our telephone if you wish. You are perfectly welcome to meet your friends and make your shopping appointments here, and as we said before, you are under no obligations at all.

EVER TRADE AT WALLA WALLA?

We would like to have you try trading at our store the next time you are in need of anything in the housefurnishing line, either by mail or when you come to Walla Walla.

Our out-of-town trade has grown to such proportions that we have found it necessary to increase facilities in our Mail Order Department. This department is for the sole benefit of out-of-town folks who prefer to buy by mail, and you are assured absolute satisfaction and the very lowest prices. Just try it by writing us of your wants. You will find our stock more complete and our prices lower than any others in this territory.
