

Press Paragraphs

A J. Willaby was in Pendleton yesterday.

Dr. J. R. Sponagle was a Pendleton visitor Tuesday.

Henry Keen made a flying trip to Pendleton Wednesday.

For dressed poultry, call up Bert Cartano. Phone, 86.

Joseph N. Scott had business in Pendleton Wednesday.

Mayor A. B. McEwen made a business trip to Pendleton today.

Mrs. Byron Hawks has been seriously ill the last week with a gripe.

R. O'Brien of Pendleton, was greeting Athena friends Wednesday.

Misses Alta and Katherine Sharp visited in Pendleton over Sunday.

If you want to buy, lease or sell land call on S. F. Wilson, attorney.

Harvey Caton and George Bannister were visitors to the county seat Tuesday.

A. L. Swaggart made a business trip to his Birch creek ranch Sunday, returning Monday.

Mrs. E. R. Cox, who has been in Portland for some time, is expected home this evening.

M. W. Smith, the genial insurance man, was greeting old Athena friends the first of the week.

Mrs. Theo. Danner came over from Milton Tuesday and enjoyed a short visit with friends here.

Mrs. Henry Wood is steadily improving in health, a fact her friends will be pleased to learn.

Miss Mabel Gibbons, former teacher in the Athena school, has just finished a six-months term near Pilot Rock.

Mrs. L. Dell has full bred Rhode Island Red hens, from which she will sell settings of eggs at reasonable prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Doble, of the Mountain took the north bound train here Tuesday, for their new home in Alberta.

Mrs. A. E. McEwen last Friday evening attended the annual banquet and reception given at the Pendleton Academy.

Misses Della Danner and Mattie Caton were both ill at the Weston Normal school hall this week from severe colds.

Miss Lenore Mallett, of Ontario, Malheur county, now a student at the Normal, was a guest Saturday of Miss Cecilia Boyd.

For Sale—A team, wagon and harness; price $350. Enquire of Archie Doble, at Joseph Hodgson's farm, northwest of Athena.

James Boddy and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Dodd are moving today to Walla Walla, shipping their household goods over the O. R. & N.

County Superintendent Welles was in the city Monday visiting the different grades of the school. He went to Weston after a short stay here.

C. A. Barrett has on display at his hardware store a collective photograph of the members comprising the lower house of the Oregon legislature.

J. P. O'Brien, general manager of the O. R. & N. passed through Saturday evening on a tour of inspection stopping off a short time. He was accompanied by a party of railroad officials.

Mrs. Lizzie Jones is showing the new fashions in ladies' hats at her store, north side of Main street. Old patrons and new are invited to call.

Mrs. Gen Harris was up from Pendleton the first of the week. Mrs. Harris is now employed in the suit department of the Peoples Warehouse.

De Witts Carbolicized Witoh Hazel salve the original is good for anything when a salve is needed and is especially good for piles. Sold by Palace Drug Co.

L. M. Kemp was over from Weston Wednesday. He had made the purchase of a fine young McAlropa colt which he was exhibiting to his friends.

Attorney Wilson was called to Alberta Saturday on legal business. This is the second visit Mr. Wilson has made to Claresholm in the last two months.

Some bids have been received on the painting contract of the Christian church. It is likely the contract will be let in a few days and actual work commence soon.

Mrs. R. A. Bissinger, of South Cold Spring, spent last week at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Emery La Hue, in this city. She returned to her home Sunday.

The base ball fans will hold a meeting tomorrow night at Byron Hawks' drug store for the purpose of making arrangements for the organization of an amateur ball team.

Mr. Bohn, working in the interest of the A. O. U. W. and the Degree of Honor, delivered an interesting address last evening in the Lodge hall here, to a small audience.

Rev. H. E. Ryder is assisting in a series of revival meetings in the Baptist church at Weston this week. Much interest in the services is manifested by the Weston people.

Kodol is a combination of all the natural digestive juices found in an ordinary healthy stomach and it will digest food in a natural way. Pleasant to take sold by Palace Drug Co.

Mrs. Mae Whitlock, formerly Miss Mae Fischer of this city and a sister of Mrs. Lillie Miller, recently underwent a successful operation for appendicitis at her home in Seattle.

Kodol for Dyspepsia and Indigestion does the ordinary work of the stomach so that by taking a little Kodol every now and then you cannot possibly have indigestion or any form of stomach trouble. Sold by Palace Drug Co.

Hon. Mr. Nichols was in town Tuesday in the interest of the National Reform Bureau. He will return soon and give a public address at a union meeting to be held for that purpose.

Rev. Geisler and daughter, Miss Bertha and Miss Norma Smith were delegates Wednesday and Thursday to the Sunday school convention at Echo, from the Athena Methodist church.

Kennedys Laxative Cough Syrup not only allays inflammation and irritation of throat and lungs but it drives out the cold from the system by a free yet gentle action of the bowels. Sold by Palace Drug Co.

Harry Akers, the printer, was in the city for a short time today, passing through to Walla Walla on his wheel. Harry has been employed on the Pendleton Tribune as job man for some time.

Final account in the estate of W. H. H. Scott deceased, was made before the county judge Saturday. Joseph N. Scott, the administrator, and his bondsmen were discharged from further service.

Arthur Stone of this city has been chosen one of three Whitman graduates who will deliver orations during commencement exercises. Mr. Stone was selected out of a trial class of 24 for the honor.

Evangelist Bachelder, who held a successful meeting at the Methodist church in Athena during the winter, was here Tuesday and Wednesday, visiting friends. The evangelist goes to his brother at Enterprise, Oregon, for a much needed rest.

Mrs. J. N. B. Gerking and Mrs. Dean Gerking and little son left Tuesday for Freewater, where they will be the guests of Mrs. J. B. Saylor, pending the completion of their respective new residences now in course of construction.

The latest styles in all black hats will be displayed today and tomorrow at the Miller millinery store. Next week Friday and Saturday some of the nobby new styles in trimmed hats in colors will be shown. Ladies are invited to call today and tomorrow especially.

A case of scarlet fever developed in the family of Tom Defreese early in the week, his son Will being the victim. The young man has been seriously ill, and is under the charge of Dr. Sharp. The residence is under strict quarantine.

Mrs. S. J. Harden went over to Walla Walla Wednesday, where she was called by the illness of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester McCollough. The boy is troubled with an unnatural growth in the throat, which will necessitate a surgical operation.

Miss Nettie McCorkell who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. John Rothrock and Mrs. J. Sheard, of this city, returned to her home above Weston yesterday. Miss McCorkell will return soon to accompany Mrs. Rothrock to Hot Lake, where she goes for relief from rheumatism.

Willis Bush returned Wednesday to Birch creek, where he is farming his mother's land. Mr. Bush has been attending his daughter, Gladys, who is ill at the home of her uncle at Weston. She left yesterday for Walla Walla, where she will remain for several weeks.

Clifford Stone is confined to his home and under the doctor's care this week with a serious attack of appendicitis. Cliff was stricken some time ago with the same illness. No operation has so far been necessary, and it is hoped the young man may overcome the disease without it.

The debating team of Lewiston high school met and defeated Spokane high school last night. Maurice Hill, a graduate of Athena high school, class '08, was leader of the Lewiston team. Maurice was the youngest of the entire list of Lewiston aspirants when the members of the debating team was selected.

Alva Lincoln, the three weeks old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Kilder, died of pneumonia, and was buried Sunday afternoon, from the family residence on north 3rd street. A large number of friends of the family gathered to attend the funeral of the little one. E. B. Harris, of the Christian church, conducted the services.

Weston Leader: George Taylor has sold his farm of 440 acres on Weston mountain to Saylor Parris of Athena, whose son Wesley, will take charge. The consideration was $14,000 all of Mr. Taylor's horses and machinery being included. He left this week with his family on a visit to his old home in Ontario, Canada, and may afterward interest himself in the Alberta country.

Mr. Walter Brown and Miss Genevieve Beck, were married in Portland last week, where the young lady was attended by her grandmother, Mrs. Jackson Nelson, of this city. The wedding was the culmination of a romance begun at Whitman college, where both were students. The bride is well known in Athena, where she made her home with her grandparents, and the groom is a rising young merchant of Dayton, Wash., where they will make their home.

A St. Patrick's Day program will be given at the Epworth League rooms in the M. E. church Tuesday evening, to which the public is cordially invited. The Irish saint will be honored also in the decorations, which will be all of the green. After the program, baskets which the young ladies will prepare and fill with good things to eat, will be sold. The young men are invited to come and buy a pretty basket and a nice supper. Remember the date, Tuesday, March 16.

The Dime has an interesting program for tonight and tomorrow night. The great play, Damon and Pythias will be faithfully portrayed in motion pictures and lecture. Music will be furnished by the Athena band. Admission to these two entertainments will be 10 and 15 cents. The benefit given at the Dime last Saturday night netted the Athena band $10. The proceeds to the band amounted to a little over $5, and manager Tharp personally donated the balance.

The Weston potato market is reported to be showing activity. Four carloads were shipped Monday by D. B. Jarman, two going to Seattle, one to Pomeroy and one to Lee, Wash. Four more cars will go at once if the stock can be secured from the growers who are offered $1.25 a hundred. The high price of farm horses in this locality was indicated when eight old work animals brought an average of $150 each.

New SPRING Goods

IS WHAT YOU LIKE TO SEE
They are Arriving Daily

New Tailored Waists
New Lawn Waists
New Linen Waists

New Dress Gingham in the Foidunords, 15c; Red Seal Zepthers and Whittentons, 12, 1-2c; Normandies, in all colors, with or without fancy borders, 10c; new Apron Gingham in the Lancaster brand, 7c; new Calico and Foulards in all colors, some with fancy border, all for 7c per yd; new Percales with fancy borders, 10c per yd.

A very large line of new Spring and Summer Dress Goods in the Batiste, Organdies, Silk Tissue, Silk Pongee, Fancy Jacquards, Tokio Silk, Drape De Soil. Novelty Shantung, Fancy Crepe, etc. Come in and look this line over. New Domestic of all kinds. New Linens. New Towels and Towling.

The Kingsbury Hat

for Spring 1909. We have the very latest styles and colors. Come in and look at the "Kingsbury Trooper" the new soft shape in hunters green and black, also Nile green, brown and nutria.

We have the Goods

Jarman's Dept. Store.

Carpets and Rugs

We beg to announce the arrival of our Spring line of carpets and rugs. Mr. Mann, our Carpet Manager, spent several weeks in New York selecting only the best of the new creations, so that we can offer you a most superb variety of beautiful and exclusive patterns. A more handsome and select stock of both carpets and rugs could not be found. Embracing as it does many particularly new designs and coloring effects in Oriental Floral and Domestic designs, this splendid showing covers every thing in the most reliable carpet styles.

We not only have by far the most complete line in the Inland Empire, but we guarantee you perfect satisfaction and finished workmanship or refund purchase price.

You are always welcome to come to our store and look around whether you want to buy or not but should you buy we will prepay the freight to your station, if your purchase amounts to $10 or over.

The Davis-Kaser Company
Complete Home & House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Wash (The home of Greater Whitman)
Branch Store at Pasco, Wash.

Pendleton Cleaning & Dye Works

W. SULLIVAN, Prop.
LADIES' FINE GARMENTS OUR SPECIALTY

Hatters
All Kinds of Hat Work, including Stiff, Soft and Panama Hats. Special Attention given to Gent's Clothes
If you want Good Work, call us up

We Clean Lace and Chenille Curtains, Furs, Kid Gloves, Feather Boas, in fact almost everything. Evening Gowns Party Dresses Cleaned on Short Notice.
206 ALTA STREET, PENDLETON, OREGON. Telephone Main 169.

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

New Spring Goods are arriving Daily

Our First Shipment of
GORDON HATS
Just Received

DRESSY MEN WEAR GORDONS

